

'PLANE' CARRIES BETROTHAL NEWS OF JANE FOWLER

Since nothing is too good for an engagement, "sky riding" announced the engagement of Jane Conger Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Fowler, of Harmon avenue, to Cadet Arthur J. Smith Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Smith, of Parker avenue, Detroit. The occasion was a tea, given by the parents of the bride elect, to 60 friends, at their home on New Year's day. No date has been named for the wedding.

Miss Fowler was graduated from Michigan State College last June. She was a member of Alpha Phi sorority, and active in campus affairs. Cadet Smith is first class man at the United States Military Academy, at West Point, New York.

The "sky writing," linking the names of the engaged couple, streamed from a silver plane, suspended over the table. Carrying out the military motif in blue and silver, tin soldiers "marched" below the plane.

Mrs. W. H. Fowler, grandmother of the bride elect, and Mrs. Smith presided at the tea. Also present were Mrs. Mary Quinn Johnson and Mrs. Forrest K. Fowler, assisted the hostess. Mrs. Fowler received her guests in a floor length gown of salmon pink, with a corsage of exactly matching roses, similar to those worn by the others who assisted. Mrs. Fowler chose a black crepe gown, and Mrs. Smith was clad in black velvet. Mrs. W. H. Fowler's gown was of blue crepe.

MISS NORMAN TO WED

Announcement has been received of the approaching marriage of Helen Norman, daughter of Mr. Mary M. Norman, to Patrick Edward Flood, on Monday, January 10. The ceremony will be performed at St. Joseph's Cathedral, at Columbus. Miss Norman was an assistant librarian at Baldwin Public Library when she and her mother were residents of Birmingham.

Mr. Wallace Dodd was hostess to members of her book club Wednesday, for lunch, at her home on Puritan drive.

FRANKLIN PTA WILL SPONSOR SQUARE DANCE

The spirit of the real old-fashioned square dances will be revived at the barn dance, sponsored by the Franklin Village Parent Teacher Association at the Franklin Town Hall, on Tuesday, Jan. 18. Jimmy Wood and His Franklins, who will furnish the music for the occasion, have promised to furnish the knowledge of the old-time reels, jigs and polkas, and they will bring along a professional dance caller to lessen the confusion of the dancers, who may have forgotten some of the lively figures.

The ways and means committee of the Association is arranging the party, headed by Mrs. Oliver Horn. The chairman of all the other committees of the organization will assist Mrs. William B. Hoyer, who is chairman of the decorations committee. These will include Mrs. Edward R. Hoyer, Mrs. Truman S. Campbell, Mrs. James Morse, Mrs. George Weidman, Mrs. James Schermerhorn, Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff, Mrs. C. J. Laessle and Mrs. George B. Galt.

MUSICALE WILL OFFER PROGRAM OF 'THREE B'S'

In its next meeting, which will be held at the Community House at 2 p. m., Thursday, Jan. 13, the Birmingham Musicales will present a program which will feature a reading of a paper, instrumental and vocal selections. Mrs. Martin Fossum, chairman of the day, assisting as hostess will be Mrs. Paul McKenney, Mrs. Ward Crank and Miss Sarah St.

Mrs. Wilbur W. Raymond will present the program which will feature a paper entitled "The Three B's," Bach, Beethoven and Brahms. Following the reading of the paper, a two-part duet, performed by Helen Wagner Neff and Margaret W. Bailey, will be presented. The program will conclude with a paper, "The Three B's," arranged by Harold Bauer, will be their first selection. The program will conclude with a paper, "The Three B's," arranged by Harold Bauer, will be their first selection.

The Birmingham Musicales Chorus will next take the center of the stage, under the baton of Frederick A. Protheroe, who will sing two Bach numbers: "O Morning Star How fair and bright," and "Joy of Man's Desiring." Following the Chorus will be a Beethoven solo for violin and piano, Op. 24. Mrs. Fossum, who will play the violin, accompanied by Remmie Dill.

The second choral interlude will open with Ludwig Van Beethoven's "Elegy," followed by the "Song of the Sea," by Brahms. These will also be directed by Mr. Protheroe. The program will conclude with a paper, "The Three B's," arranged by Harold Bauer, will be their first selection.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stuart and their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Adams road, have returned from Quebec, where they spent the holidays.

GIRL SCOUTS

A training class for leaders will be held at the Girl Scout headquarters in the Community House on March 18, according to a decision reached Monday night by the Girl Scout Council. Girls who participate are those who will have passed the tests for merit badges by March 4.

WPA Theater To Play At Cranbrook

Marlowe's classic, "The Tragical History of Doctor Faustus," will be presented by the Federal Theatre, tomorrow night at 8 p. m., for members of the school and the faculty. The production, which is under the direction of Verner Haldene, is one of a series of plays at high schools in Detroit and vicinity.

Ray Rawlings, former commercial stage star, played the title role. A Courtney White, who will be remembered as the original "Dracula," will appear as the Mephistopheles. Other members of the cast include Peggy Fern, Alma Brock, Louise Gaudin, Chester Adams, J. Richard Gable, Helen Budd and David Barnes, long-time, well-known players, who will play the principal roles.

The band swung out with infectious enthusiasm until around midnight, when the crowd adjourned in favor of ham and eggs. Noticed here and there during the evening were Dain Millinane, the R. W. Wenchels, who were hosts at a cocktail party before the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Brandt and their son, Richard, of Kenosha road, are expected home this week from a trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Adams were hosts to 20 of their Grasse Point friends at the main course of the progressive dinner on New Year's Eve, at their Kenosha road residence.

Mrs. Maude Allyn Keller and her sister, Miss Kitty Keller, were hosts to a large group of friends at a party on New Year's night at their home on Decher road. Dancing and music were provided on the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson were hosts to a party at their home on Park street. The party was given by Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Osterman, of Park street, and was attended by a large group of friends.

'GRANDEST' PARTY WELCOMES 1938 AT FOREST LAKE

Members of Forest Lake country club and their guests termed the "grandest party of all" was held at the club on New Year's Eve. The first of the 184 guests were on hand at 10 p. m., and the full quota had arrived. The first event of the new year was the serving of dinner, which, it was generally decided, would be more effective if it were served late enough so that everyone could be there to eat it.

The band swung out with infectious enthusiasm until around midnight, when the crowd adjourned in favor of ham and eggs. Noticed here and there during the evening were Dain Millinane, the R. W. Wenchels, who were hosts at a cocktail party before the show.
