

COWARD COMEDY PROVES BOON TO BORED SOCIETY

There will be a welcome break in the usual summer entertainment ideas of swimming and picnicing on Friday and Saturday evenings, July 29 and 30, when "Hay Fever" is staged at the Village Players' Theater. The popular Noel Coward play is just the thing for entertainment on a warm evening, and Birmingham hostesses are putting the evening to good use. Several groups will be in hand to applaud their friends in the east, which is composed of members of the dramatics class sponsored by the Community House. Dr. John B. Hassberger is directing the production, assisted by Miss Joan Baker.

BRIDE SELECTS BLUE GOWN FOR GARDEN RITES

A charming home ceremony, to be held this afternoon at half past four in the garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer E. Moody, will unite in marriage Miss Jean McDonough and Mr. Moody's brother, Curtis L. Moody of Outer Drive, Detroit. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McDonough of Chattanooga, Tenn.

The Rev. Joseph Means of the United Presbyterian Church will read the rites against a garden background. Miss Mary Virginia Moody, daughter of the bridegroom, will attend Miss McDonough as maid of honor and Robert Moody will assist his father as best man.

The bride's gown is of cornflower blue marquisette, fashioned on simple and gracious lines with short puffed sleeves and a sweeping, bouffant skirt. Her picture hat, a wide-brimmed loggion, is mostly blue with velvet ribbons in a matching shade of blue, and she will carry a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses, lilies of the valley and white larkspur.

Miss Moody will wear a gown similar to that of the bride, of pale pink marquisette. Her large hair is trimmed with long ribbons of pale pink velvet and she will carry tea roses and blue lily flowers.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception will be held at the Birmingham Golf Club for members of the immediate families. The guests will be seated at a T-shaped table, adorned with deposits of white blossoms and illuminated by white tapers.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Moody will be at home to their friends on Outer Drive on August 15.

Mrs. Donald C. Mann is once more ensconced at the family's summer home on Torch Lake after breaking her summer by a return to her home on Hanna street for ten days.

Step into the bath tiled, step out refreshed, rested, pappy... your skin satiny-smooth! No tub time to scrub.

DATE IS NAMED FOR HOME RITES BY BRIDE-ELECT

The waiting of summer brings no decrease in the number of interesting wedding plans in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills as the bride-elect announces their plans one by one.

Among the Birmingham residents who are entertaining house guests at present are Mr. and Mrs. Ledger Paxton of Wesley drive. Their visitor is Mrs. Paxton's mother, Mrs. George M. Crawford of Tappan, Kan., and she is making a stay of indefinite length.

Phillip Dibble returned Tuesday to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Dibble on Hill-top Lane, after spending a month at Camp Nissokone.

NANCY KELLY
Having fought with Columbia and had her contract bought off, Grace Moore departed for Paris, where she will start right in making pictures again. She'll do both French and an English version of "Louise." And, as French pictures are rarely up to the United States standard, she probably won't like the result.

You can't tell these days, where a swing musician will bob up. When Benny Goodman and his band were playing an engagement in Texas last year everybody for miles around who liked swing music came to dance. During the intermission a young man with a cornet in his hand came to Goodman and asked to play for him. Goodman took him into an adjoining room, Jess Stacey sat down at the piano, and the young man began to toot. "Buddy," said Goodman when he had finished. "Whatever your name is, you can join my band. By the way, where did you learn to play a horn through its pieces?" "I'm a member of the Salvation Army band," replied Henry James, who's been a member of Goodman's gang ever since.
