"Love" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 31.
The Golden Text, (Ps. 145:9), is "The Lord is good to all: His tender mercies are over all his works."
Among the Bible citations in this passage (I. John, 4:19): "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us: God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (to 484): "Divine Love always has and will always visit every human need."

Fashion Tips
Fall millinery is being shown although the hot weather makes us cling to our straws.
The new models are fashioned of felt, velvet and haters plush.
Although the tiny doll hats are being worn at present they will, no doubt, pass quickly out of the picture and are not for the woman who expects her hats to do long service.
Crowns are high and fitted to the head and the new hat decorated with tilts forward.
Sport hats have large brims and bands of different colors. These bands are often of suede or kid.
Veils bid fair to be as smart if not smarter than they have been. They are of all types and colors.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Rockwood N. Bulard and their family will leave their home on Manor road some time after August 15, to journey to their summer home at Christmas Cove, Me., where they will spend the remainder of the season.

Miss Ruby I. Van Rensselaer of Evergreen road is among the Birmingham residents vacationing in the east. At present she is a guest at the St. Regis hotel in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Watson of Washington, D. C., will spend the week-end in Birmingham as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester I. Colbert of Puritan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Siau and their family, who are spending the summer at their cottage at Macatawa, will return to their home on Dorchester road on the first of August. Miss Rosemary Essig of Birmingham road was the house guest of the Siaus for a fortnight, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Essig, were also their guests for a few days.

By SOPHIE MORE

Everybody and his brother must've decided that summer's THE time for assorted fun of every description. So with the slightest excuse at all, there'll be a party or something whipped up. The more the merrier sez Sophie, panting a bit. With several of our sa-moanest brides-elect choosing this coming week-end as THE DAY, it's pretty safe to wager that a majority of the members of the fair sex have been up to their ears in showers and all the other attendant festivities. Again Sophie rises up and says, "The more the merrier."

Double Header

By the WAY—did you know that one of last week's champion events all of a sudden turned out to be a double header? That it did, so instead of just one of our fairest l'il gals going down to West Point for illumination, there were TWO. Hilda Brown, as you know, was the original taker-tripper, but before you could say "BOOM!" Betty Spinning went along too, and of course the gals had the time of their eventful young lives.

More Of It

Another taker-tripper who really goes in for the stuff is hating about the New England region like c-hurray. In case you missed that dark lovely coronet braid and that beautiful tan, commonly associated with Dart-Mathews, he it known that she's the traveler, along with brother Mack. No telling when they'll decide to come home, nor can they be blamed. After all, with fun like MAD! all around 'em, why SHOULD they think about coming home?

"These Foolish Things"

And that doesn't mean that there isn't anything doing around here, either. Because, if nothing else, the bridal showers mentioned above are REALLY something. Marge Kidder had a novel idea at her last week's gala for Jane Fowler, which really MUST be in every bride's repertoire. All the gals brought dish towels (n'emmed 'em for Jane . . . And THEY brought the most novel idea at their names on 'em, so Lieutenant Smith and his bride would know who gave which. And while the embroidery was going on, there was much talk of how they'd all come down and pick out a husband from among the dashing young officers . . . And one gal, just to remind Jane what she wants for HER, put together one above her name . . . "Six feet two, brunette and FUN!"

"Nothin' Guest"

Besides all the above-mentioned hilarity, we have a house-guest in our midst, with fun popping all around him and his hostess 'fill their pale. Bud Pierce, Cleveland flash, is the lad and he's the guest of Millie White, who is the bride of Knappe Little, Theta and Benson and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. White. THE MAIN attraction is to be for all of 'em to cool off and to have as much fun as possible while doing so. So Bud's meeting people in Boston while cruising about with the Whites on their smooth boat, "The Four Sisters." And if THAT isn't the right idea, Sophie'd like to know what is.

Novel Idea

So now we return to bridal showers and such, that being the BIG stuff right now. This time Janie Babcock was the guest of honor, on account she and Bob Vinton are practically SET to take off, as you know. Betty Hill and Marge Sperry, being two of her best pals, gave a luncheon and shower for absolute tons of people at Pine Lake, honoring Janie. And now comes the NEWS. These two cuties could absolutely have a reward for cute table decorations! They had a simply HUGE bouquet of pink roses, blue larkspur and bronze bachelor buttons in the center of the table n' a tiny pin-up umbrella at each place. THEN, to top it all off, they had a lil' pink ribbon running from each umbrella to the roses in the center, so each gal, by pulling, could have a corsage of her own. Neat!

Cheese and Asparagus Salad
Soften 1 tablespoon of gelatin in about 5 tablespoons of cold water and dissolve in 1 cup of boiling water. Let this partly set. Whip 8 cup of cream and add to it 1 1/2 cups of grated yellow cheese. Add a pinch of salt and a dash of cayenne. Fold in 1/2 cup of finely chopped celery. Add the partly set gelatin to the cream and cheese mixture. Mix all well together. Oil a mold and line the sides with cooked asparagus tips. Pour enough of the cheese mixture to hold the bottoms of the tips in place. Chill. Fill the mold with the rest of mixture and cover. To serve unmold on a platter and garnish with hard boiled egg sliced and with lettuce.

Jellied Ginger Beer Salad
Heat to the boiling point 2 halves of canned peaches, 2 cups of pear juice, 1 tablespoon chopped preserved ginger and 2 table-spoons ginger syrup. Remove peaches and arrange rounded side up in a shallow dish. Add 1 tea-spoon of salt and 1 package of lemon jelly to the boiling syrup. Stir until dissolved, then pour over the peaches. Chill and cut in squares. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

Orange Ice
2 cups water
1 cup orange juice
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Grated rind of 1 orange
Make a syrup of sugar and water. Boil ten minutes. Add fruit juices and grated rind. Cool and freeze.

Lime Ice
1/2 cup lime juice
1 1/4 cups water
2 egg whites
Pinch of salt
Small quantity of food coloring
Cook sugar and water or 10 minutes. Add strained lime juice and cool. Add small amount of green food coloring. Chill and freeze. When nearly frozen pour into a bowl and whip. Add well-beaten egg whites, to which a pinch of salt has been added. Freeze.

Maple Bavarian Cream
1 cup maple syrup
4 package of gelatin
1 cup chopped nuts
1 1/2 cups cream, whipped
2 egg yolks.
1/4 cup cold water.
