

Prominent Birmingham Students Will Figure In Commencement Exercises

TRIANGLE SPLASH ALL DAY CRUISE ON 'TWO MASTER'

An all-day cruise on a two-master schooner, one of the most ambitious entertainments planned by the organization, will be held by members of The Triangle Club on Sunday.

Those who have cars at their disposal are requested to bring them in order to provide adequate transportation. The schooner will weigh anchor at the Hotel Wilbur dock on East Jefferson avenue at one p. m., returning about midnight.

Calendar OF COMING EVENTS

- Today, Community House: 6:30 p. m., Family hour. Friday, June 17, Community House: 9 p. m., "Gay Teens" Variety Show.

BIDS WANTED

Sealed bids for furnishing tractor with mower attachments to the City of Birmingham, will be received at the office of the City Clerk of Birmingham, Michigan, until 2:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time, June 22, 1938.

Week-End SPECIALS

- GENUINE SPRING LEG O LAMB . . . lb. 28c FRESH DRESSED—WHITE ROCK BROILERS—2 1/2 lb. av. . . lb. 29c

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO. PHONE 65 124 N. WOODWARD

June Bride Will Speak Vows Friday

A marriage of interest scheduled for Friday afternoon, will be that of Miss Jean Ransier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ransier, of George street, and John A. Williams, of Detroit.

A number of parties have been given in honor of the bride-elect, among them the rehearsal dinner given Sunday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. James Ransier at their home.

Miss Betty Shoemaker and Miss Marion Ray entertained jointly at a kitchen party last Friday evening at Miss Shoemaker's home in Pleasant Ridge.

Grace Staples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staples of Yonkers, was hostess at dinner to members of the school set, at a luncheon in her home.

MANDARIN NAILS

It is now possible for you to have those long, jewel-like nails you have admired on smart women.

Another amazing contribution to encourage strong, thick nails. JULIETTE MARGLEN NAIL-O-WAX CLEAW REMOVER

WILSON'S Woodard at Maple

DEB LUNCHEON AT 'OVERBROOK' SOCIAL HIGHLIGHT

First debutante of the season to make her bow in Bloomfield Hills was Miss Betty Hyde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brossy Hyde, of Detroit, who was presented at a buffet luncheon given Wednesday afternoon by her grandmother.

Miss Hyde, her mother and grandmother received in the library, which was a hower of pink roses for the occasion. The gift bouquets, many of which were gorgeous ones of garden flowers in all the lovely colors of June flowering.

The debutante, an attractive Bloomfield friend, wore a short skirted frock of dusty pink crepe, belted in Dubonnet. She wore Dubonnet, Dr. and Mr. Thomas pink roses tied with satin ribbons.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Martin of Oakland avenue, spent the week-end at the How Military academy, where they were the guests of their son, Robert. He accompanied his parents back to the home and will spend the summer with them.

Miss Elizabeth Adams is entertaining 24 friends at bridge after her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Adams, on Kennesaw road, for the pleasure of Miss Audrey Walker, of Detroit, who will become the bride of Henry Schmiedel of Goldwater, on June 20.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Leimbach and family of Detroit, are entertaining the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Estles on Riverview for the summer. The Estles are at their cottage at Woodlawn lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Miss Esther Lee Mixer will entertain a foursome at luncheon and bridge today, at the Detroit Boat Club, honoring Miss Mary Morrell of Seattle, Wash., who is making a brief stopover in Detroit en route to her home at Summit Park, near Smith College.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Leimbach and family of Detroit, are entertaining the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Estles on Riverview for the summer. The Estles are at their cottage at Woodlawn lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dean Alexander of Glenbury road, will have as their guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chellette, of Grand Rapids. The Alexander daughter, Miss Dorothy, will leave June 28, with a group of Kingstonians, to spend the summer at the Lazy F ranch in Montana.

Mrs. Sam C. Mitchell, of Pilegrim road, returned Tuesday from Grand Rapids, where she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Shobe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Rodyman and Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Wingo were joint hosts to an excellent dinner at a buffet supper of beautiful appointments last Saturday evening, at the Rodyman home on Linden road. Great clusters of pink and rose peonies were disposed about the long table.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. I. Sabon of Puritan road, returned last week from New Haven, Conn., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Prof. and Mrs. Theodore Cole.

Miss Jane Carolyn Hyde has returned to her home on Oakland avenue from Oxford, O., where she is a student at Western college.

Mrs. Louis J. Giffels entertained a student at luncheon Tuesday at her home on Kennesaw avenue.

Francis George, a student at Harvard university, arrived Tuesday to spend his vacations. He and Mrs. Harold M. F. George, of Park street.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Streylinger and son, Philip, of Dorchester are motoring through the East.

Mr. Elmer Silverstein and child, of Hipp Cross road, went to Rochester, N. Y., last week to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hold, of Fairfax road, were hosts last Saturday to a group of friends at a buffet supper served on the porch.

Miss Joy Stewart will sail from New York on Friday, June 21, aboard the Statesman, bound for Scotland. She will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Stewart of Dunbarton, Scotland, making several trips through the British Isles with Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Carey, of Long Lake road, will have as their guests over the week-end Mr. Carey's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeClair Carey, and their little daughter, Virginia, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Zoltan Spesky, of Faculty row, have departed on a western trip to Lake Louise and Banff and California.

Members of the cast of "The Road to Rome," which will be presented at the Greek theater, Cranbrook, by St. Dunstan's guild Friday and Saturday evening, will have a subscription supper after the show Friday, at the home of H. Kenneth Ringham on Birmingham road.

Mrs. Carl A. Underhill, of Fairfax road, will leave Friday for Grand Rapids, for a fortnight's visit with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Clark had a buffet supper and housewarming for 28 guests on Sunday evening at their new home on Brookside drive. Monday, Mrs. Clark entertained Polly Viet, Karen Sue Elliott and Ken Fowler at a birthday party for her three-year old son, Tommy.

Right In Your Home... Right on the Floor... CARPETS CLEANERS PHONE 380

LOCAL CO-EDS TO GET DEGREES AT UNIVERSITY

Five prominent members of the collegiate set at the University of Michigan, all of whom are residents of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills, are among those who will receive their diplomas at the commencement exercises of the University of Michigan.

Miss Barbara P. Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Horton of Pilgrim road, completed her education at the end of the fall semester, in February of this year. She will receive her Bachelor of Science degree, majoring in physical education. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority and has been active in the affairs of the organization. She served as house president last year and was pledge trainer this year.

Miss Carol Collins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins of Pilgrim road. She will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree, she was affiliated with Phi Kappa Sorority and figured prominently in the annual Junior Girls Play last year.

Miss Carolyn Beltrami, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Beltrami of North Woodward avenue, is another member of Gamma Phi Beta. She has been an active member of the University Girls' Club, of which she was secretary, and of the Choral Union. During her sophomore year she assisted in preparations for the Sophomore Cabaret. As a junior and she was on the publicity committee of the Junior Girls' Play and for the past two years she has been a member of the social committee of the University of Michigan League. She will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Miss Dorothy Ray, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ray of Wimbledon drive, is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta sorority. She was a member of the ticket committee for the Junior Girls' Play. Other activities included participation in the Stanley Chorus and on the staff of The Michigan Daily. She will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Miss Eleanor Ambal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Ambal, of Lone Pine road, will also receive a Bachelor of Arts degree. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Mrs. Paul L. Penfield will be hostess in the Polygon club of the First Presbyterian church at supper Friday evening, at her home on Lakes Park drive. The guests will include Miss Lucille Bell and Miss Florahell Irwin will assist.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Leimbach and family of Detroit, are entertaining the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Estles on Riverview for the summer. The Estles are at their cottage at Woodlawn lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

PARTIES WILL HONOR DETROIT BRIDAL PAIR

Much local merry-making will hinge on the wedding of Miss Marie Jean White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Schaefer of Detroit, to Dr. Albert Falconer, also of Detroit. The ceremony will be held at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, June 18, at the Woodward Avenue Congregational church.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Welby of Yorkshir road, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, will entertain extensively in the pre-nuptial period. At present they have as their house guests several out-of-town visitors who will attend the wedding. They include G. F. McMillan and Miss Mary Margaret McMillan of New York; Mr. and Mrs. VanAmburgh Goodrich of Kansas City, Mo., and Robert Falconer of Kansas City, Kan.

This evening will be the scene of a dinner for the wedding party to be given jointly by Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Paxton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Mosby. The affair will be held at the Thomas home on Surfside drive.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Welby will entertain the bridal party at the rehearsal dinner, and the yellow and white flowers in their home. The affair will be all fresco, with yellow cloths on the tables, and yellow and white flowers. The garden background will lend added beauty to the scene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cruickshank, and their son Ward, Jr., of Southfield avenue, will spend the week-end in Ypsilanti, where another son, William M. Cruickshank, will be graduated from the Michigan State Normal college. Among the activities they will attend will be the State Normal college, and Robert Falconer of Kansas City, Mo., and Robert Falconer of Kansas City, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vliet Jr. will entertain her interior decoration club on Monday evening, at her home on Gordon court.

Mrs. Mrs. Boyce Bicketts, of Cranbrook, who is journeying in Cleveland.

Mrs. Robert Vanderkloot and Mrs. John K. Stevenson entertained jointly Tuesday afternoon, at a tea and garden party at St. Dunstan's guild Friday evening at the Greek theater, Cranbrook. Among those who will be the bride of Simon F. Knudsen tonight. The bride-to-be is sister of Mr. Knudsen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeWagner was hostess at an informal luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. DeWagner, 125 members of the younger set will attend the affair.

BARNUM BOARD STARTS TO PLAN PTA ACTIVITIES

The new executive board of the Parent Teacher Association of Barnham school met Tuesday to formulate plans for next season's activities. The chairman of various committees were named at the meeting, among the other accomplishments during the business portion.

Mrs. Wesley C. Casson will act as program chairman, with Mrs. Donald C. Mann, as hospitality chairman. Heading the ways and means committee will be Mrs. Lois's Hook. Mrs. Harry Clark will direct welfare and Miss Boyce, milk distribution. Howard Sumera will care for the longshoremen of recreation activities. Mrs. Dean F. Howland and Mrs. Wilbur will direct picture and publications committees respectively. Mrs. Raymond Morrow, in charge of membership for room mothers, completes the list of chairman.

The organization has already begun plans for its annual county fair, although the fair will be an extension of next September, in the latter part of the month.

Crane's WRITING PAPERS AND QUALITY FOLKS! Nothing more surely identifies the quality conscious woman of today than her writing paper. And you may now buy the very finest Crane's without a feeling of extravagance. Beautiful plain papers or papers engraved with monograms—priced from 2c plain and from $1.50 upwards with monogram or address die engraved in steel and hand stamped in your favorite color.

La Belles 137 WEST MAPLE ROAD "Birmingham's Shop of Gifts" Phone 1225

BIRMINGHAM JACKIE BOB BURNS "Radio City Revels" ALSO DICK PURELL "The Daredevil Drivers"

MAT SAT 2 to 5 p. m. DOROTHY MILLARD "Her Jungle Love" 1:40-4:30 Mon-Tue 7:25-10:10 Wed-Fri 7:15-10 p. m. Sat 7:15-10:10