

EARLY ENTRIES FOR SHOW ARE LISTED BY UNIT

The June Flower Show of the Birmingham Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, after being merely planned for so long, is now so close at hand that entries are already coming into the various sections. The show will be held at the Community House on Saturday afternoon. Exhibits will include those of non-members of the Association as well as members, and there will be a special children's class.

The list of judges is a long one, including many of the more prominent garden authorities in the district. Included among the judges are Mrs. Charles Harton, Mrs. Hazel Nasser, Mrs. Lee E. Jolin Jr., Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. Edith M. Forbach, Mrs. Lloyd Hughes, Myron Bly, Henry Foster, Jacob Baumann and Edward March.

Runners To Assist
Members of the younger set will fulfill the varied duties which will hold the positions are Barbara Welch, Joyce Webster, Josephine, Marjorie, Judy, Rosemary Essig, Virginia Bell, Phyllis Sander, Mary Gardner, Mary Brock, Gattman, John Stanich and Jane Hansen.

Mrs. Robert F. Grindley, chairman of the show, has exhibits, and her assistant, Mrs. Jonathan M. Hall, announces that the shadow boxes will be in lovely jewel tones. The idea evidently seems as attractive to prospective exhibitors as it does to prospective buyers, for a number of the former have already announced that they will exhibit in the show. Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman, to name one, has already announced that she will exhibit in the show.

WITH THE CLUBS
The first club movie of the season was shown at the Pine Lake Country Club Saturday evening. The film portrayed male members of the club during Stag Day. For the first time, the club has a movie of Bobby Jones in action was run off.

This evening will mark the first family night of the season. Some professional entertainers especially for the children have been secured, and there will be dancing for the evening.

The next dinner-dance is scheduled for Saturday, June 25. Jack Revere's orchestra will return by request, to provide music for the affair.

Club Notes
The League of St. James Women will hold its monthly meeting in the church parlors on Tuesday, June 7. Members of the League's board of directors will play hostess to the other members at a pot-luck luncheon, to be held at eight o'clock. Mrs. Percy W. Guest is chairman of the affair.

The Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Floyd Beattie on Tuesday, June 7. Members of the League's board of directors will play hostess to the other members at a pot-luck luncheon, to be held at eight o'clock. Mrs. Percy W. Guest is chairman of the affair.

Pupils To Dance In Auxiliary Benefit

The Auxiliary of the Pontiac General Hospital will sponsor a program of dances, to be given by the pupils of Miss Georgia Hoyt on Friday, June 10. The affair will be given in the Washington Junior high school auditorium at eight o'clock in the evening.

The list of patronesses, which is a long one, includes the names of three Birmingham matrons: Mrs. Carlton C. Patterson, Mrs. George B. Finch and Mrs. George J. Thomas. An orchestra of 22 picked musicians will provide music for the affair, offering several selections during the evening.

Pine Lake Matrons Reserve Tables For Party
Women members of Pine Lake Country Club will gather at the club on Friday, June 3, for a bridge luncheon and fashion show.

Chairman of arrangements is Mrs. Murray M. Habel, assisted by Mrs. Murray M. Habel and Mrs. Robert H. Ahlers and Mrs. Carl A. Oeding.

Mrs. Arthur Wray and Mrs. Peter K. Boyne are among those who have made early reservations for the affair. Each will be hostess to one table. Mrs. L. N. Pyle and Mrs. Oeding will entertain two tables. The list of others who have reserved tables includes Mrs. Benjamin H. Ambl, Mrs. Raymond R. Reiter, Mrs. Elmer G. Freeman and Mrs. Ahlers.

ST. JAMES FAIR TO OFFER WIDE VARIETY OF FUN

With all the variety and color planned by members of the League of St. James Women for the annual spring festival, to be held all day Saturday, it is hard to tell just what attraction will prove most popular. The affair, directed by Mrs. Franklin Fricker and Mrs. William M. Merrill respectively, is certain to rank high in the estimation of mothers of teen-age girls, to say nothing of the young ladies themselves.

Summer styles for the sub-deb will be featured at the show, with models to be drawn from the ranks of the local school set. The list will include the names of Mary Jane Hastreter, Virginia Stanley, Myron Conway, Genevieve Gay, Betty Ann Pease, Marilyn Pring, Louise Cobb and Betty Minor Forsyth.

Others of the younger set will assist in the serving of food at the gay individual tables, among which the models will walk. Those who have been asked to serve are Mrs. Stanley, Marjorie Walton, Virginia Fellows, Alice Jacobs, Jeanne Ann Heimiller, Nancy Howard, Katherine Hill, Barbara Case, Jean Merritt and Anne Day.

Mrs. Merrill's tea committee is serving on the committee are Mrs. Charles F. Dye, Mrs. Marvin G. Kim, Mrs. Edwin Hart Strunk, Mrs. C. Alton Valpey, Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mrs. Otis W. Howard and Mrs. James E. Bullock.

There will be attractions for other members of the family as well, at the affair. Pony rides and the traditional Pet Parade have been arranged for younger children. Every mother in the latter will receive a prize of some sort according to the judges, Mrs. Graham John Graham, Henry S. Booth and Edward L. Bryant of Ann Arbor. Mrs. J. Nicholas Haudjisky is in charge of the booth which will offer typical circus and carnival refreshments to the passers-by.

Mrs. D. M. Spencer is supervising the baked goods booth, and Mrs. Dominic S. Hastreter and her committee will dispense novelties and gifts at still another booth. Mrs. William Alf and Mrs. George T. Hendrie are in charge of the plant booth, assisted by several League members. During the afternoon there are games which will offer typical circus and carnival refreshments to the passers-by.

Mrs. Clinton E. Sears is entertaining at luncheon and bridge to-day, at her home on Ridgedale avenue. Her guests are to be Mrs. Rufus B. Jones, Mrs. William T. Cushing, Mrs. Rudolph Zuffin, Mrs. Y. C. Smith, Mrs. George M. Dwellley, Mrs. Rolfe C. Spinning and Mrs. Spencer C. Stanley. Next Tuesday, Mrs. Sears will be hostess to another group at a bridge-luncheon.

YOUNG COUPLE ARE HONORED AT OPEN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Lane Bishop of Poppleton avenue introduced their new son-in-law, Max James Parsons of Chicago, to their friends and friends of Mrs. Parsons, the former Eleanor Catherine Bishop, at an informal open house Saturday evening in their home.

The table was laid with an elaborate lace cloth, and garden flowers were used as decorations. Flanking the flowers on the table were a pair of red glass hurricane lights, matching the red glass plates and cups. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Julia Preston and Mrs. William George O'Rourke.

Mrs. Parsons announced that she would leave to join her husband in Chicago by the middle of the month. The young couple will be at home at the Lunt Monks apartments in Rodgers Park, a Chicago suburb. Mr. and Mrs. O'Rourke have already left for Chicago and will take up their residence in the same building.

Continuing the list of parties honoring Mrs. Parsons, news of whose marriage came as a surprise to her friends, Mrs. W. D. Hooper Jr. will entertain at an informal tea Monday, in her home on Mohegan avenue. Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth of Wintonston drive will be hostess at a luncheon in her home on Saturday, June 11.

Mrs. Irving B. Babcock is once more entertained in her home on Lone Pine road, after a sojourn of several months in Miami Beach.
