Edith Rainey Reveals The Date For Her Marriage To Fred L. Sage, Jr.

ADAMS P. T. A. APPOINTS HEADS OF COMMITTEES

The newly-organized Parent Teacher Association of Adams junior high school met at the school Monday evening, to appoint committee chairmen and conduct the final business of the year.

Mrs. J. Elmer Harvey is chairman of the hospitality committee and Mrs. John D. Maynard chairman of room mothers. Mrs. Clinton E. Sears will supervise work on publications. The corresponding secretary is Mrs. J. S. O'Gorman and the publicity chairman is Mrs. T. N. Hubbard. Mrs. J. S. O'Gorman will be chairman of the study group and the position of program chairman will be filled by Mrs. Peter B. Loomis.

Appearing on the program part of the evening was Howard D. Crall, superintendent of schools. Mr. Crall addressed the group on the function of the school system in Birmingham.

The meeting completed the organization of this most recent addition to local Parent Teacher Associations. The next meeting will be held in the fall.

'Theta' Alumnae Plan Luncheon

The first annual spring luncheon for members of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority will be held on Friday, June 10, at the home of Mrs. Ferd M. Brook of Lone Pine Court. Assisting the hostess will be other members of the alumnae group who have not entertained so far this year. Other members not known to the group are invited to attend and requested to notify the hostess.

Among those who have already indicated that they will attend are Mrs. J. Robert Mosby, Mrs. Russell Barnes, Mrs. Walter P. Herdich, Mrs. Atwood B. Oatman, Mrs. Clairen Vilet Jr., Mrs. Rufus B. Jones, Mrs. J. R. Wagner and Mrs. Bruce R. Dodds.

LAWN FETE PLANNED BY CATHOLIC LEAGUE

The annual bridge tea and garden party of the League of Catholic Women will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Wendell in Bloomfield Hills on the afternoon of Monday, June 20. Committees to supervise arrangements are now being organized, as plans get under way.

Proceeds from the affair will be devoted to the League's annual pledge to the Community House and to other charitable projects of the organization, during the opening season.

INLAND SAILORS TO OPEN SEASON AT MARINE BALL

Amidst an appropriate nautical setting, the semi-annual Marine Ball will be held at Orchard Lake Country Club on the evening of Saturday, June 11. The dinner-dance marks the opening of the season for the men sailors. In the fall, the ball is the occasion for the presentation of awards. Mel Crum's orchestra will play for Saturday's affair.

Ed W. Crum is chairman of waterfront activities. In charge of the junior fleet of boys is E. W. Averill. Mr. Averill announces this week the junior fleet officers, recently elected. There will be a Master of Races and Fleet Captain for each of the summer months, and an alternate elected for each position as well.

June is Art Underwood; for July Bob Tyson and for August, William Brewster. The alternate is Ed Brewster.

Men's sailing activities began on Saturday June 4, with three races sailed so far. Paul Penfield is leading sailor so far, closely followed by C. Theron Sandness.

Junior girls sailing will start on Tuesday, June 14, with a sail at 11 a. m. Luncheon will follow. The senior women skippers sail bi-weekly, at 2:30 on Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

Popular Couple Will Speak Vows At Church Ceremony In Late Afternoon

Saturday, June 18, has been chosen by Miss Edith Rainey and Fred L. Sage Jr. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry William Rainey of West Maple avenue and the groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Sage. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. W. Glen Harris at the First Presbyterian church, at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Louise Cobb is general chairman of arrangements, assisted by Miss Jo Anne Howell. Among other committee members who are working for the success of the affair are Miss Rhoda McHugh and Mary Ann Scott. Miss Nancy Fisher, Miss Yvonne Gay, Miss Betty Dick and Miss June Babcock.

A number of advance "dates" have been made for the ball, with many others, particularly by returning members of the college crowd, have indicated that they will attend. Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Adams, and Miss Howell by Rod Pollock. Other invitees include Miss Evelyn and Elizabeth Babcock and Robert Vinton, Miss Dick and Lee Marcup of Detroit, Miss Gay and Jack Vinton, Miss Betty Hill and Henry Houston of Pontiac, and Miss Harriet Babcock with Harry Starr.

DINNER DANCES AND BRIDGE ARE POPULAR AT CLUB

Dinner-dances for the weekend and bridge-luncheons to live up to the midweek period are the order of the day at most of the surrounding country clubs, now that the season has started.

Pine Lake Country club will depart from the accepted order for Saturday evening dinner and dance into an old-fashioned German garden party. Small tables with fully checked covers will be placed about the edge of the outdoor dance floor, and the band promises several appropriate novelty numbers, including square dances.

The Ladies' Bridge luncheon was held at the club on Wednesday. Mrs. Royce L. Heers was among the hostesses of the day. Oakland Hills Country Club is planning its luncheon and bridge for women members on Wednesday, June 15. Mrs. J. L. Doucette will be assisted by Mrs. T. W. Coleman, Mrs. Fred Buller, Mrs. W. J. Black and Mrs. William Guse.

On Saturday evening, June 11, Herbert Clausen on Big Beaver road, one-half mile east of Crooks road, by the Altar society of Holy Name church, Open house will be held at the Clausen home all day and there will be games, long, light supper for the men of the parish.

Those pouring were: E. E. Adams, president of the society, in charge of arrangements.

Mr. W. M. Hebbelwhite, who was Miss Esther Rainey before her marriage, early this spring, will attend her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Betty Sage and Miss Christine Kadau of Detroit.

Charles Cole Jr. of South Bend, Ind., will serve as best man for Mr. Sage. Sentinel guests will be Stewart D. Rainey, Mr. Hebbelwhite, D. B. Eames of Pontiac and Tom Pitts of Mishawaka, Ind. Mr. Rainey will give his daughter in marriage.

Miss Rainey decorated the entertainments for Miss Rainey on Sunday. She was hostess at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Jack Thacher in Detroit. Mrs. Jack Thacher is entertaining a group of friends at a party on Sunday evening, honoring the bride-elect. The affair will be held at her home on Woodward avenue.

Mrs. Archie Dues and Mrs. Thomas Meraw will be joint hostesses on Sunday, at the Dues home on East Mary avenue, for a kitchen shower.

Plans are being completed by Miss Rainey for post-nuptial festivities. A reception will follow the wedding, at the Community House.

MAVIS ROBERTSON TELLS OF BETROTHAL

Of interest to her friends in Birmingham is the news revealed this week concerning Miss Mavis M. Robertson. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Robertson of Webster street, announce her engagement to Henry Charles Maes of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Maes of Murphysboro, Ill. No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect was graduated from Baldwin high school and has been employed in Birmingham since then.

Those pouring were: T. B. Smith, Mrs. R. J. Waterbury, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Walter F. Elliott, Mrs. R. B. Billings, Mrs. Walter Russell, Mrs. Heber P. Gahn, and Mrs. Edward Clark.

Mrs. H. E. Wood and Mrs. E. S. Barden were co-chairmen of the reception and Mrs. Seaborn was in charge of the decorations.

SCOUT TROOP WILL STAGE SQUARE DANCE

The committee of Boy Scout troop R-11 of Franklin, assisted by the Franklin Community Association, will sponsor a square dance at the Franklin Town Hall on Friday evening, June 10. The troop will return to play for the dance. The square dancers will play modern music as well.

Proceeds from the affair will be devoted to Troop work. E. H. Brill is in charge of ticket sales. The public is invited to attend.

FAIR ASSOCIATION TO STAGE SECOND SHOW

So enthusiastic are members of the Franklin Antique Fair Association over their first semi-annual show, held at the Franklin Town Hall last week, that they will meet Friday to plan a second one in the fall. A crowd estimated at 1,500 people attended the first fair. Members of the Friendly Club of Franklin served refreshments during the afternoon April evening sessions.

President of the Fair Association is Walter Smith. Miss Mary Clark is vice-president. Frank Robinson is secretary and Gordon Fisher is treasurer. Helen Fitzmaurice Wendell is serving as publicity chairman.

SOCIAL TEMPO IS STEPPED UP BY HORSE SHOW

Social tempo in the Bloomfield district will be stepped up considerably over the weekend, due to the Detroit Horse Show, which opens today to continue through Sunday, at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club. Contentment upon the show is a continuous round of festivities, first of which is the cocktail party for horse show exhibitors, to be staged this evening at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson. There will be about 150 guests at this affair.

Friday's social activities will start early in the day, with an 11 o'clock breakfast for 75, at which Mrs. Grace G. Newton and Mrs. Peter K. Boyne will be joint hostesses at Mrs. Newton's home on the Thirteen Mile road. Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Shnell will have a large cocktail party Friday evening, at "Brook Knoll," their home on Lone Pine road.

Highlight of Saturday, of course will be the horse show ball, to be held at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, after the evening program of events. It is to be a supper-and-dance and will be preceded by a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Pierce on Tiverton road. The Graham John Grahams will be hosts on Sunday evening following the closing of the show, at a big party at their Hills estate, "Valhalla."

Mrs. Francis P. Kemp, of Charleston, S. C., rode left Saturday for Reading, Pa., to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Stannard, for a month. Mr. Stannard and her two daughters will accompany Mrs. Kemp back to Birmingham in July.
