Souffles Are Composed Of Left-Overs But They Can Make A Welcome Main Dish

Souffles are a combination of a thick white sauce and eggs, with variations of flavor. They may be made sweet or savory as the occasion demands. The souffle is a good way to use left-overs. A little left-over meat, a little bit of vegetables, a little canned fruit, all of these may be the beginning of a royal dish.

Spinach Souffle

2 tablespoons butter or butter substitute
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 cup finely chopped cooked spinach
3 eggs

Melt fat, add flour and salt and mix well. Add milk gradually and bring to the boiling point, stirring constantly. Add well-beaten egg yolks and the chopped cooked spinach. Remove from stove and cool. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into a greased baking dish and bake 50 minutes in an oven 350 degrees. Serve immediately.

Chicken Mushroom Souffle

3 tablespoons butter or butter substitute
4 tablespoons flour
½ cup condensed mushroom soup
½ cup milk
3 eggs
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 cup cooked chicken, chopped fine

Melt fat, add flour, mix well and cook until it bubbles. Then add the mushroom soup diluted with the milk. Cook until smooth and thick, stirring constantly. Cool. Add the well-beaten egg yolks, the parsley, Worcestershire sauce and the chicken. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into a well-greased baking dish and bake 50 to 60 minutes in oven 350 degrees. Serve at once.

Carrot Souffle

4 tablespoons fat
4 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt—pepper
½ cut water
½ cup evaporated milk
1¼ cups carrot pulp
3 eggs

Melt fat, add flour, salt and pepper and mix well. Gradually add water (in which carrots were cooked) and milk. Add carrot pulp which has been rubbed through a sieve and bring to boiling point, stirring constantly. Beat egg yolks and add sauce. Cool. Fold in well-beaten egg whites. Pour into a well greased baking dish and bake in an oven 350 degrees for 50 minutes. Serve at once.

Cheese Souffle

3 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1¼ cups grated cheese
½ teaspoon salt—pepper
3 eggs

Melt butter, add flour, salt and pepper, mix well, add milk gradually, add cheese. Cook in double boiler until cheese is well blended and the sauce is smooth. Cool. Add the well-beaten egg yolks. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into a well-greased baking dish and bake 50 minutes in an oven 350 degrees. Serve at once.

Custard Souffle

3 tablespoons butter
¼ tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
4 eggs
4 tablespoons sugar
1-3 teaspoon salt
1-2 teaspoon vanilla

Melt butter, add flour and mix until smooth. Add milk gradually and bring to boiling point, stirring constantly. Beat egg yolks until thick and add sugar and salt. Add to the hot mixture, stirring until blended. Cool slightly. Add vanilla and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into a well-greased baking dish and bake in an oven 350 degrees for 50 minutes. Serve at once.

Chocolate Souffle

Use the recipe for custard souffle. Melt 2 squares of unsweetened chocolate over hot water, add 2 tablespoons of sugar and 2 tablespoons of hot water. Stir until smooth and add to the hot milk mixture just before adding the egg yolks. Serve with whipped cream.

Coconut Souffle

2 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoons sugar
3-4 cup milk—salt
3 eggs—1 teaspoon vanilla
1-2 cup shredded coconut

Melt butter, add flour and mix until smooth. Add milk and sugar gradually and cook in double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Cool slightly and add well-beaten egg yolks. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites, then add coconut, salt and vanilla. Turn into a well greased baking dish and bake 50 minutes in an oven 350 degrees. Serve with lemon sauce immediately.

Fashion Tips

Shops are beginning to be beach clothes conscious. And the beach things this season are varied and attractive in style and material.

N

One of the outstanding fashions is that of wearing the shirt outside the slacks and shirts may be of any material from hop sacking to satin.

By the way, black satin is very smart for shorts or slacks for the woman who goes in for elegance at the beach. Sharkskin is also very effective—particularly in white.

Dirndl ensembles are very smart—one wears such a frock over a matching play suit and she is fixed for a day of sports at the club.

Coats are definitely not long—the favorite length being just about the knees.

College Knowledge

By SOPHIE MORE

Well, as Sophie's dear old colored mammy often used to say, there's nothing like ending the school year in a blaze of glory. That's what at least 99 per cent of you chillun are doing. Parties to the left, right and middle of us, and simply BREATH-taking awards being handed out all over the shop . . . WOW! It's a chore just keeping up with y'all.

Climber-Upper

If you wanna hear some REAL tough-stuff, just gather 'round and be told. Ed Watkins, pride of the Trash at Oberlin, has just done sump'n colossal, no less. He's been named Men's Sports Editor of Hi-O-Hi, which of course is the student yearbook, and a very good one, too. Just to make it even MORE exciting, usually the key positions are held only by juniors! And Ed isn't too darned bad athletically, either. He has his frosh numerals for football already, just as though this other weren't enough.

Feminine Ditto

Now we would rave of one of our blonde lovlies at Harcum Junior collitch, in far-off Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania. Millie Lynch is the gal. She's in her first year there, but is in the Glee Club ANYway. The Glee-ers and the Studio Club gave a recital Saturday, with the former warbling smoothly from the works of Brahms, Strauss and Schubert, and the latter giving Bach and Debussy the works at the piano. All of which is enough to make us all even prouder of Missy Lynch, being in such high circles n'all.

Weed-End Wanderers

What fun it is to have a week-end pop up and surprise you! Several Becham notables surprised us all by being at Michigan State over the week-end just passed, for various and sundry reasons. And one of the best reasons Sophie can imagine for ANY trip, is a party. Dick Phillips for one and Tom Stolberg for two, thought the same thing. So did Jan Peabody and sister Betty. So the four of 'em whipped up a gala, which included the Alpha Phi party of which we have already raved. Court Cromwell trucked on back a night early, escorting the beauteous Pussy Wygant. This pair attended the noble spring fete at the Hesperian fraternity house, of which Cort was a stellar member until his graduation a year ago.

Senior Statistics

The pictures which brighten up our lives this week are, as you can see, of four of our college pals who will be graduated at State starting at 10:30 Monday morning, June 13. An elegant week of doings will wind things up with a gala for them. There are three or more dances for one thing, to which ONLY the seniors are invited. And then there's the senior play, held last night. The water carnival will be held on the river Friday and Saturday nights, with floats for every fraternity, sorority and organization, built around the theme of "A Night in Fairyland." There's baccalaureate on Sunday, and Monday is the BIG DAY. We all wish 'em luck, of course.

More O' The Same

Well, from now on you can just jolly well take off your hat and act respectful before friend George Greene. Th'lad is a full-fledged Bachelor of Laws now, on account a receiving his degree from the Law School at U. of D. Tuesday evening. The commencement ceremonies were simply terRIFIC. The Masonic Temple housed 'em, and the Rev. Mr. Edmund A. Walsh, S. S., vice-president of Georgetown University, delivered the address. Just to return the compliment, they bestowed an honorary Doctor of Laws on him.

Getting back to Georgie, we might add (as though y'all didn't know!) that he graduated from Baldwin a few years ago. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Greene of East Lincoln, and they're probably as proud of him as we are. At any rate, he'll be whipping up a career so SOON that if you wanna congratulate him it'll be well to have to catch him while you CAN.

The Conquerors' Return

Things are going to be simply KEEN 'round these parts when Jeanne MacDonald and her brother, Dick MacDonald, come home. Said event oughta be at the end of the week, and it really IS an event, because these two are TOPS at Duke. Jeannie's a singer, and a good one, too. She's a member of the choir and the wimmin's glee club at collitch. She led her sorority in the Inter-Sorority Sing recently, and the Kappa Alpha Theta gals walked off with the silver cup easy like pie, under her leadership. PLUS that, she's business manager of the Duke Players, and PREsident of the national dramatics group at Duke. Swell?

Brother Dick is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta, which is tops ANYwhere. Besides rooting for said royal crew, he's an athlete of no mean ability. Following the family habit of bigger n'better victories, Dick pitched the championship game in the recent inter-fraternity baseball finals as EASily as rolling off a log.

Maker-Gooder

Summer spells vacation to most of us, but Earle Wilson goes and does exactly the opposite, an accounta he's a smart lad. He's the brand new filler of an architectural position in Detroit now, and DEFinitely on the way up. And don't we-uns think it's smooth though?

Another Prize-Winner

Not that it makes any difference, but Sophie's in a tizzy again! This time it's a tizzy of admiration, for that noble gent Bob Watt. He crashes through this time by being one of three at the Beta Theta Pi house to win an Interfraternity Award in Athletics?!! He's a whiz at hockey n'baseball y'see, besides all his other accomplishments. What makes it nicer still is that that ain't ALL. Remember Al Conrath, Hamilton, Ont., flash who was Marse Bob's house guest long about Thanksgiving time? Well, the two smarties have just been elected Stewards for the Beth house next year. Leave it to our native sons to keep the act moving in said royal fashion.

GIRL SCOUTS

A representative group from Lansing, Jackson, Flint, Mt. Clemens, Detroit and vicinity, Traverse City, Ypsilanti, Royal Oak and Pontiac attended the Girl Scout Field Institute, at which the Birmingham Council was hostess.

Troop Two members have invited those of Troop Six to join them in a Court of Awards. The ceremony will be held at the regular meeting time this afternoon, in the Troop room at Adams school. Mrs. Craig Richey will present the badges and several Council members will be present as guests.

The Second Class badge will be bestowed upon Annie Halliday, Adrianne Velberding, Betty Ruth Middleton, Jane Hardie, Patty Wells and Martha Gruber. The group which will receive the Hostess Badge includes Jane White, Constance Coulter, Phyliss Chapel, Dorothy Hecock, Jane Hardin, Jane Ray, Betty Ruth Middleton, Patty Williams, Eleane Stutte and Ruth Marie Potter. The same group, with the addition of Patty Wells, will receive its Health-Winner badges. Attendance stars will be given to seven girls.

Troop Three had a tea Monday, honoring mothers and Council members, about 150 of which attended. The mothers' table was decorated in green and white, with green candles in brass holders and disposals of white iris. A separate table was laid for the girls, with four girls serving at each. The affair completed work on the Hostess badge for the Scouts.

Troop Five hiked during its Scout hour and observed birds. Mrs. Thomas R. Navin and Mrs. Frank L. Main were the leaders.

Troop Seven is putting on its Minstrel Show on Tuesday, June 14, at 3:45 p. m., in the Barnum school auditorium. Mrs. A. S. Watson trained the performers. Tickets for the show, which is open to the public, are being sold by the Scouts. They hope to complete proceeds with those from their cookie sales and send two girls to Girl Scout Camp. This same troop sent three members to sell cookies at the benefit bridge party of the Red Cross. The three were Harriet Heinmiller, Betty Adams and Ruth Watts.

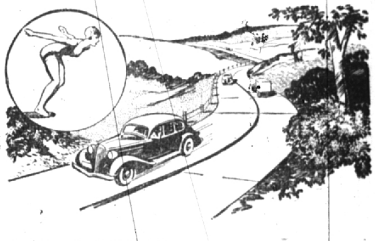
VACATIONISTS BRING MONEY
but what brings vacationists?



a sure answer—
CONCRETE ROADS

No matter what they like when they get there, vacationists never enjoy "roughing it" on the way. Of two attractive vacation centers, tourists choose the one that's on their favorite kind of road—concrete.

Everybody profits—directly or indirectly—from tourist trade. And everybody profits directly from concrete.

Concrete highways are always ready for travel. They cost less than other pavements of equal load-strength. Save a big share of road maintenance funds. Save on car operating costs. Reap these benefits—pave with concrete.

CONCRETE IS THE REAL LOW-COST ROAD

You'll want to FISH AGAIN in MICHIGAN!

To be free from care . . . drive with care!

NATURE and man, together, have made Michigan a superb fishing State. Nature contributed 2000 streams and 5000 lakes. Man adds wise conservation, 16 fish hatcheries—and plants about 300 million little fish every year.

That's why Michigan abounds in fish that are waiting for your hook and line: Brook trout, brown trout, rainbow trout; bass, perch, pickerel; blue gills, sunfish, muskellunge.

To supplement perfect angling, you have fine highways and other transportation facilities . . . canoes, power boats and sailing craft for hire . . . bathing beaches . . . overnight cabins . . . and camping sites galore.

Choose Michigan—the perfect State for a perfect vacation!
