FOUR SONGS ARE ADDED TO BILL FOR GUILD SHOW

Making it one of the most attractive evenings of the year for St. Dunstan's Guild, members are adding still another feature of entertainment to the March show, which will be held at the Brookside auditorium on the evening of the 16th. The addition of this item will augment an already instructing program of plays written by Guild members and a group of dances, also arranged and performed by them.

The addition consists of a group of four songs, directed by Edwin M. Mulock. In the chorus of 12 voices will be Mrs. Pat Eden, Miss Mary De Wolfe, Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, Mrs. David Lee, Mrs. Hubert B. Davis, Mrs. Ferd M. Brock, Hubert B. Davis, Maurice W. Cochran, John Mulock, Temple Licklider, Benjamin Brewster and David Lee. Many of the singers will prove their versatility by appearing on the program in one or more other capacities as well.

Mr. Mulock adds to the attractions of the idea with his own explanations of the songs to be offered. The first, he describes as a "chestnut." It will be Ben Johnson's beloved "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." Next will come John Morley's "April is My Mistress' Face," which Mr. Mulock calls "a madrigal for the musician in the audience." To make it even more varied, the program will next offer a negro spiritual, "Dig My Grave." The concluding number, in sharp contrast to the other three, will be "Star Dust," by Hoagy Carmichael.

Plenty of Fruit Is Required In Regular Diet For Those Who Would Be Healthy

If you would lay the formation for perfect health, see that plenty of fruit is included in the diet. Fruit is needed at least twice a day in liberal quantities. Take a little time and serve your fruit attractively. These recipes will help you serve fresh fruits in different ways.

Grapefruit Stars
Section the grapefruit by peeling the fruit until the pulp is exposed and then cutting with a very sharp knife on each side of the dividing membrane. Arrange these in a star shape on a becoming plate with a mound of powdered sugar in the center.

Minted Grapefruit
To 2 cups of grapefruit sections add 1 package of after dinner mints. Put in refrigerator until mints have dissolved. Serve in compotes.

Fried Bananas
Peel bananas, cut in halves crosswise or in quarters. Roll in sifted bread crumbs or in rolled cornflakes crumbs. Fry in deep fat until light brown. Drain on paper and serve very hot.

Apple Doughnuts
5 medium sized ripe apples.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
1 cup flour.
1 egg.
1-2 cup milk.
2 tablespoons sugar.
Salt.
Sift dry ingredients together, add beaten egg and milk. Beat to a smooth batter. Peel and core apples, slice in rings 1-4 inch thick. Dip each ring in batter until well covered. Fry in deep hot fat, turning rings gently until they are golden brown. Sprinkle with white sugar and a little cinnamon.

Grapefruit, Cherry and Pecan Salad
Drain a can of white cherries; remove the pits. Fill cavity with plain nut meats. Separate a large grapefruit into sections. Remove membrane and seeds. Mix with the cherries and serve on lettuce with French dressing.

Broiled Canned Peaches
Drain canned peaches and put on broiler covered with moistened parchment paper to prevent them from slipping through the grids. Turn when hot and cook other side. Broil bacon until crisp and garnish steak or other meat with peaches around and bacon on top.

Apple Crunch
Fill a baking dish with peeled, sliced apples. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon of cinnamon and the grated rind of 1 lemon. Add 2-cup of water and cover with the following mixture: 1 cup of flour and 1 cup of sugar blended with 1-2 cup of butter to a crumbly consistency. Bake uncovered. Serve with hard sauce made by blending until light, 1-4 cup of butter, 1 cup of fine sugar and 1 tablespoon of lemon juice.

Appetizers
Roll pintapple sections in chopped nuts.
Remove all membranes from orange segments, roll in toasted coconut.

Pear Cakes
Put into a baking dish a layer

GARDEN CLUBS WILL JOIN IN FLOWER SHOW

The appeal of the annual Michigan Flower and Garden Exhibition, which will be staged at Convention Hall for the week starting Saturday, March 19, promises to hold a special appeal for residents of Birmingham and the Hills. The Michigan Horticultural Society, which is staging the show, has invited members of the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills branches of the Women's National Garden and Garden Association to participate in various ways, and many of the local matrons have interested themselves in the work.

"Birmingham Day" will be held at the show on Monday, March 21, and it will find the garden lovers from this vicinity out in full force. Mrs. Harry R. Cooley heads the local ticket committee. Six hostesses from the ranks of local garden enthusiasts, will also assist on that day. They include Mrs. Sam Garber, Mrs. M. S. Kice, Jr., Mrs. Aaron H. Webster, Mrs. Henry Forster, Mrs. Atwood B. Oatman and Mrs. Donald G. Eadie. In charge of the hobby show, which will be run in conjunction with the exhibition on that day will be Mrs. E. W. Brehm.

Individual exhibits at the show will range all the way from the largest indoor garden ever constructed, measuring 34,000 square feet, to table arrangements suitable for private homes. A partial list of members of the Birmingham and Bloomfield women who will be represented by displays includes the names of Mrs. Garber, Mrs. Harold H. Shuart, Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman, Mrs. Kice, Mrs.

D. A. R. LISTENS TO ADDRESS BY GUEST SPEAKER

Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall was principal speaker before the D. A. R. group met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George D. Miller, on Fairfax drive. Mrs. Hascall based her talk upon excerpts from an address by Rev. M. S. Rice of Detroit, entitled "What's Right With America."

In part the address stated: "Out of the turmoil that has arisen from the strife of ideals among our people many of our best thinkers have been asking if the characteristic democratic impulses which have long sustained America have not begun to wane in the appreciation of the masses, for whom democracy was born."

Those Big Little Things

In casual rooms where people read, and talk, and play bridge, are to be found things which promote the feeling of luxury, of livability.

Book-bends, ash trays, lamps, shades, photograph frames, cigarette boxes are little things, but big in importance, for they are useful, decorative, always in evidence.

They seem to have a personality all their own, too, and so must be definitely chosen to go with the type of room where they are to be used.

From the four corners of the earth we have assembled the newest of "those big little things" for the home. Plan now to put some in your home this Spring.

Girl in Glass

People who live in glass houses will attract no more attention than women who appear in glass dresses like the one Anny Blain above is wearing. Her exquisite gown was crocheted from spun glass yarn of a natural color. A bright red kid belt with silver encrustations provides contrast.
