Humane Society To Entertain At Bridge

The Michigan Humane Society will entertain its members and friends Saturday afternoon, March 24, at two o'clock. Miss Myrtle Everett Babcock of Detroit, head of the society, has issued invitations for a benefit bridge party to be held at that time in the Wayne County Medical Building.

The sewing and knitting classes sponsored by the Community College and attended by women from Birmingham, Clawson, Royal Oak, Three Beach and other nearby towns, is conducted by Mrs. Elma Akeley and Phyllis Bause. It is open without charge to residents of this area who are interested in sewing and knitting.
