

Delegates From Sixth District of State P. T. A. Will Attend Meeting at Baldwin

LOCAL COUNCIL HEARS OF PLANS FOR CONVENTION

Speaking at a recent meeting of the Birmingham Parent Teacher Association Council, Mrs. Walter T. Elliot announced that Baldwin High School will house the forthcoming convention of District Six of the State P. T. A. About 400 delegates will attend. The all-day meeting will begin at 9 a. m. on Friday, March 25. Luncheon will be served at the Community House at noon.

Mrs. John H. Rosso, Council president, appointed a nominating committee at the same meeting, which will present its report on candidates at the next council meeting, which will be held on Tuesday, March 8. Those who are serving on the committee are Mrs. Robert C. Peck, Peck school; Mrs. J. George F. Grenzenbach, Barnum school; Mrs. William E. Essery, Quanton school; Mrs. John P. Dunn, Holy Name school and Eugene Hubbard, Baldwin high school.

Other business conducted at the meeting included a report by Mrs. Thomas R. Navin, chairman of the Council's recreation work. Assisted by Mrs. Arthur L. Genung, Mrs. Navin's committee is making plans for a series of bake sales to be held during Lent and a large bridge party, to be held immediately following the Lenten period. Proceeds from the affairs will benefit the recreation fund.

Another report was presented by Mrs. Mahlon H. Stevens and Mrs. Roy B. McFadden, whose duty it has been to make minor revisions in the Council's by-laws.

If you, Madam Chairman, will kindly come into my office, the committee on tracking-kids-down will now present its report for the week. And doggone it, we don't think it's a mighty fine job of work you people are doing, keeping busy and happy, come what may in the line of weather, studies or spring colds.

Becham will overwhelm East Lansing this week, attending the formal dinner-n-dance of Alpha Phi sorority. Lots of the State Plus are from Becham, so we intelligently figured that that's why. Frank and Ginny Mosher are going up as guest of Eleanor Bishop, who will also be there, naturally. The kids will drive up Saturday-afternoon with Phi alum Sally Baker and Phi Delta's pride, Ted Fetter. The latter couple attended State, so there'll be lots of reunions going on, no doubt.

Peter Peabody and Harriet Brelsford are going, but their journey will take 'em through Ann Arbor, where they will, unless thwarted by free-flow-and-thunder, be met by Harry Brelsford and Fred Boynton, respectively. Carol Dwelley will go up with Jack Bracken for the fun of it, to sit at the same table with new-initiate sister Noel. The latter will be with Roger Ketcham, Gross Pointe number.

Cort Cromwell is fishing up for the weekend, and will boat Buzzy (Margaret) Buzard to the party. She's a Northside girl known to lots of yez, and a Corps

Career Gal
Betty Fytan's home from Ann Arbor. She finished the semester in ye traditional blaze of glory, came home for the mid-semester full gallop back for the Hloplop. Her home is home for good. Career is going to be her middle name from now on, according to all reports. But, in the intervals she's going to make up for all the time she's been away by seeing a lot of her pals who she's been missing. They've been missing her too, so all is rosy, napp-hah!

AND NOW—we arrive at a lot of strenuous effort by some of our worthy citizens who have just been rewarded for said effort. Member when Tommy Dorsey gave a swing concert at double-A. He held the guys in line raise funds for a girls' swimming pool? Well, whenever people wanna have something like that, they call on one Elizabeth White (remember)? So they called on her to aid the swimming pool committee. And it was a nelegant concert. As for L. Royal Frye, of Culbertson, he's the young fellow who recognized for scholastic achievement recently, winning a silver A. He held the guys in line raise funds for a girls' swimming pool? Well, whenever people wanna have something like that, they call on one Elizabeth White (remember)? So they called on her to aid the swimming pool committee. And it was a nelegant concert.

Tanned Menace
Sophie can hardly WAIT to see the tan acquired by Mary Jane Tippet, who's tall, tan, terrific at any time. She'll be especially so when she gets to the time vacation in Florida with her grand mother (and incidentally recover from her fatigues) to hand her with mean ole meesles—of all things! For something tells us that when she gets to Florida to poke up her cautious regard for two and a half months 'round, she'll be back in town. Well, it's almost ANY time now. Well, it's almost ANY time now.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop Three of Birmingham Girl Scouts is studying first aid. Members are also preparing for the Court of Awards, which will be held on Friday, March 15. At their last meeting the Scouts hiked to the shore of Quanton lake where they took a field-trip tests. A demonstration of 2nd-Class requirements is another Troop project.

A number of members in the Troop are writing letters to Ohio, to establish contact with a Girl Scout there who has no Troop. It is of interest that 19 girls have joined Troop 3 as Tenderfoot Scouts during the past month.

COMFORT

that costs little money... Good Lighting for every seeing task!

YOU OWE YOUR EYES the very best of lighting — to guard against eye-strain and fatigue. Because eyes are slow to adapt themselves to unsatisfactory conditions, we frequently abuse them without realizing it.

Good lighting is a comfort that costs little money. You can afford to give your eyes good lighting for every seeing task. In the living room, be sure that there is a reading lamp beside every easy chair and at each end of the sofa. In addition to the light furnished by the ceiling fixture or wall brackets, the shades on your reading lamps should be light-colored inside to reflect the maximum amount of light. A dark shade "soaks up" light. At a child's study desk one of the new I.E.S. study lamps will provide good illumination. In the kitchen, use a 100 or 150-watt lamp in the ceiling fixture, and a 60-watt lamp over the range. In the bathroom, use a 100-watt lamp in the ceiling fixture, and a 40 or 60-watt lamp on each side of the mirror.

If in doubt about any phase of your home lighting, please feel free to call in a Detroit Edison Home Lighting Advisor. He will give you helpful advice on your lighting problems. There is no charge for this service.
