PLAY COMMITTEE READY TO DISCUSS FINANCING PLANS

Birmingham organizations cooperating in the campaign to provide recreation facilities for the coming summer, have set Wednesday, April 6, as the date for the next meeting when arrangements will be discussed for financing the program for 1938, and for the appointment of committees.

At a recent meeting sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association Council, representatives from organizations participating pledged the support of their respective groups. They are to report back at the April meeting with the amount each is able to contribute.

Organizations cooperating include the Y. M. C. A., the Board of Education, the Y. W. C. A., the Community House, the Rotary, Exchange and Lions Clubs; the Teacners' Club, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary, the American Association of University Women and the Wabeek State Bank.

Mrs. Thomas R. Navin is chairman of the recreation committee for the P. T. A. Council. Miles W. Robinson, in charge of the recreation program for 1937, gave a report of the costs and activities of the first year.

"The Birmingham Recreation Association was organized in the spring of 1937. Its aim is to foster and provide wholesome leisure time activities for the youth and adults of the community. The ultimate objective was to minimize the juvenile delinquency in Birmingham, and to assist youth with their leisure-time activities," Mr. Rabinson said.

During the summer, supervised play on school grounds resulted in 1169 pupil periods on the Adams playground, 3604 pupil periods at Barnum, 615 at Pierce, 645 at Quarton, 158 at Springdale Park, 1,153 pupil periods for twilight softball, and 15,821 for the swimming pool, with a total of 23,105 pupil periods.

Operation of the swimming pool for the summer cost $994.28, Mr. Robinson reported. Salaries amounted to $790.25, playground and art supplies, $87.80, office expenses, $8.95. The total budget amounted to $1881.28.

"This means that all supplies, equipment and supervision were furnished at a cost of approximately 8 cents per pupil period. Most pupil periods were one and one-half hours in length," Mr. Robinson explained.

EDUCATIONAL FILMS TO BE SHOWN HERE

At the request of Birmingham's City Commission, Howard Holah, manager of the Birmingham theatre, has secured for early showing the two pictures "America Marching On", and "Frontiers of the Future." These pictures are being shown in every large city in the country and are creating much favorable comment. "America Marches On" will be shown this coming week for four days, March 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th. The "Frontiers of the Future" is booked for the following week and announcement will be made later of the particular days.

"As Mr. Holah has gone to considerable effort to secure these two films and they have to do with the welfare of each of us, also the nation at large, it is the hope of each of the Commissioners that every one will make an effort to see both of them. They should be intensely interesting to our younger group," said Commissioner Lawrence Hulbert.

▲ Well folks, the first robin has arrived and has been reported. Mrs. Wm. B. Livingston, 780 Greenwood, called last Friday and said that just as she was reading about the first robin in the Eccentric, she looked out of the window and, low and behold, there sat the harbinger of Spring, right outside of her window. 'Twas nice of Mrs. Livingston to call and lend encouragement to our idea about Spring being near at hand.

▲ Miss Esther Eder, who holds forth over at the Twin Shop, is spending a month down in Miami, Florida. Last week her side-kick, Dolly, received a Coconut in its original form, with a post card tacked on to the shell. Mrs. Irv Lippett, wife of the proprietor of the shop, was out for the day and tried to persuade Dolly to crack the shell and pass out the delicacy, but . . . her powers of persuasion were not quite strong enough. We did not get any coconut.

▲ At the farewell service of Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach last Sunday at Christ Church Cranbrook, thirty-five members of the Metropolitan Preceptory of DeMolay Legion of Honor were in attendance. They also supplied the flowers for the altar in token of their appreciation of the many fine things which the Reverend Aulenbach had done for them during the past few years.

▲ We noticed an advertisement in the Sunday Edition of one of the Detroit papers concerning the Farewell Service held in Detroit last Sunday evening for "The Parson of The Hills." The magnitude of the popularity in Detroit of Rev. Aulenbach was revealed by the list of sponsors of the meeting. In case you did not happen to see the announcement, we'll just list them for you: Central Woodward Christian Church, North Woodward Congregational Church, First Congregational Church, St. Paul's Cathedral, Central Methodist Church, First Presbyterian Church, Woodward Ave. Baptist Church, Y. M. C. A., Girl Reserves, Boy Scouts, Allied Youth, Community Fund, Nancy Brown's Column and the Detroit Teachers' Ass'n. We would say that "Ham" really WAS appreciated. We would like to look forward to a Sunday some ten years hence, when we might have the pleasure of dropping in on W. H. A. and listening to his sermon of the day. Those added years will surely add, we think, to an already brilliant career that "something" which only experience can give. "Ham" will be "SOME PARSON" . . . well 'nuf sed.

▲ Speaking of ministers, we can't help remarking that the new Presbyterian Pastor, recently called by the church down on Woodward Avenue, is likely to be quite a fellow, too! We have been told that he was selected out of a field of over 125 candidates, from all parts of the country. Local Presbyterians are all enthused about him and are eagerly awaiting his arrival. He is due here along about the 15th of the month. We hope the Rev. Harris will not mind our chattering about him after he settles down here among us. His predecessor, Clarence Wright, was a peach, and took all our hunter with a smile and on a few occasions, with a genial rebuttal.

▲ Jess McNeal, head man down at the Packard Sales and Service, is, we just found out, a former District Governor of Exchange Clubs in this part of Michigan. To date he has not made himself known to local Exchangeites (he has been located in Birmingham but a short time) so we would think that the local boys might drop down and call on the gentleman.

▲ Two four-man bowling teams and their manager (Hans Machus) attended the State Bowling Meet of Michigan Lions last Saturday and Sunday over at Battle Creek. Due to the fact that they neglected to take along their bowling balls and shoes, they failed to bring back any prizes. (They didn't even see the Recreation Building where the Meet was held.) They reported a good time, however, which was really what they were seeking. On the way down to Battle Creek, the boys stopped off to see Walter Huffman, formerly with Cy Osborne at the local Ford Sales, and found him in fine fettle. He and Doc Lowe have a fine Ford Agency down there and are doing "fairly well," considering the recession. All was going along nicely, we've been told, until the boys started ordering sirloin steaks, over at the restaurant where the party had gathered with Walter. Remarks were made which led Walt to believe that he was being the host, and finally, when the fair waitress handed him the bill for about nine dollars, he really DID turn red behind the ears. He started digging down for the cash to pay the bill when D. A. came to his rescue and told him that the bill had been taken care of and that the Bowling Teams were acting as host at the gathering.

▲ Dr. George (Curly) Norton and his fair wife, Dorothy, are enjoying their stay down in Sunny Florida—so we've been told. Where there's golf and sunshine, the Nortons WILL have a good time . . . and they both play a pretty fair game of golf.

▲ Another local healer, Dr. Jack Hassberger, is away on vacation, but Jack has gone "away out west" in Arizona. And—he is putting up at one of those Dude Ranches. Imagine him finding any act rs at such a place. Before he left, he was discussing his coming adventure with a group of the boys and the matter of "unpaid bills" was brought up, (by one of the boys). It seems that a couple of them owed the Doctor for a few calls on their ailing children and had not sent in their checks when the "statement" came around. One of the boys asked Doc when he would rather be paid—before he left or after he returned. After a short bit of consideration, Jack told them that he thought it would be fine if half of his "accounts" would pay before he left and the other half while he was gone. That way, the Doctor figured, he'd have money a plenty when he left—AND—would also have some when he returned. Not bad figuring!

▲ And now, while figuring, etc., we figure it's about time to slip in a "30" . . . which to us newspaper folks (we'll soon be figuring we are one of them) means . . . . no more——or—THE END.
