

Team Captains Are Entertaining Assistants at Series of Informal Gatherings

NURSE TO SPEAK TO BALDWINITES UNDER A. A. U. W.

Miss Frances Anderson, assistant director of nursing at the Woman's Hospital, Detroit, will be the next speaker in the series of talks on vocational guidance for high school students, being sponsored by the American Association of University Women. Miss Anderson, who is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and who holds her Bachelor's and Graduate Nursing degrees at the same school, will speak today at 1 p. m. at Baldwin High school and all high school students are invited to attend. The A. A. U. W. committee on vocational guidance, in charge of the talk series, is composed of Mrs. Merle P. Bailey, Mrs. Lee A. White, Miss Adeline Cooke and Mrs. Franklin Stricker.

The next regular meeting of the Birmingham branch of the A. A. U. W. will be held April 12, when Alden Dow of Midland, well-known architect, will be the speaker.

The creative writing group will meet April 4 at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. J. N. Hadjisky, 744 Bates street, and the book review group will meet the same day, at the home of Mrs. C. K. McCracken, 212 Lincoln road. At the latter session, Mrs. William H. Buchanan will review the book, "Tyranny of Words" by Stuart Chase, and tea will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Will Address Club

Mr. Taysman of Bloomfield Hills will address members of the Birmingham Woman's Club on Tuesday, April 5, when the group meets at the Community House. Under the chairmanship of Mr. Taysman will speak of the recent work of Carl Miles, renowned sculptor.

"Father's Night" To Be Pierce P.T.A. Event

The regular meeting of the Pierce School Parent-Teacher association will be held Thursday, April 7, at 7 p. m., at the school. It will be the annual "father's night" and Robert Peck, vice-president, will preside. Mrs. William A. Damerel will give a reading and there will be music by a male quartet, under the direction of A. Shanley Ross.

Following the program, there will be a card party. Table prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. Tickets may be obtained from members of the executive committee.

50-50 CLUB MEMBERS HOLD SOCIAL MEETING

Members of the 50-50 Club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bernard S. Janetta of Smith street. Refreshments concluded the social evening.

From Bloomfield Hills, those in attendance included Virginia Richardson, president; and Jean Right, from Pontiac came Mrs. Kenneth S. Miller, treasurer; Dorothy Sweet, secretary; Mrs. Charles V. Irwin, Ethel Campau, Francis Green, Thelma May, Alice Mitchell and Edith Frezza.

SIGMA LAMBDA SETS DATE FOR POST-LENT DANCE

April 23 has been set by the Sigma Lambda club as the date for its dance at the Community House. Miss Peg Bailey is general chairman and she has announced that the "Sophisto-Kats" will provide the music. The affair will be an important one on the post- Lent calendar for the high school set.

Assisting Miss Bailey in charge of arrangements are the following committees: Tickets and publicity—Miss Virginia Ford, chairman, Miss Carol Dwyelle, Miss Mary Ellock Robinson, orchestra—Miss Mary DeMong, chairman, Miss Esther Beckley; arrangements—Miss Edith Babcock, Miss Betty Miller, Miss Barbara Pratt; decorations—Miss Beulah Martin, Miss Mary Elizabeth Haley, Miss Jewel Jacobs.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mrs. Howard D. Crull entertained at luncheon and bridge on Tuesday, at her home on Pine drive. A bouquet of yellow tulips, white lilies and gerberas decorated the table, at which covers were laid for Mrs. Carl Binkbe, Mrs. Eicher Graham, Mrs. Robert Ford, Miss Betty Waggoner, Jack Irwin, Ed Middlebrook, Diane Roy and Philip McCullough.

Community House Drive Workers Imbibe Instructions With Tea

As a forerunner to the annual membership drive of the Birmingham Community House, which starts Saturday, Mrs. J. B. Marley and her assistants are giving tea and instructions along with the tea. Rufus B. Jones spoke at several of the meetings, telling of the real needs of the Community House and stressing the importance of putting over the campaign.

Monday was the occasion of seven teas, among the largest being the one given by Mrs. J. B. Marley at her home on Pine drive. Attending this affair were Mrs. David W. Lee, Mrs. E. A. Schirmer, Mrs. Donald Calhoun, Mrs. E. C. Herges, Mrs. C. H. Averill, Mrs. David G. Nethercott, Mrs. Milton E. Chandler, Mrs. H. W. Murphy, Mrs. H. L. Woods, Mrs. Mrs. Robert F. G. Cleveland, Mrs. M. D. Archangei, Mrs. John R. Earle, Mrs. W. C. Sproule, Mrs. Jonathan M. Ball, Mrs. Herbert A. Carlborg, Mrs. Julian Fry, Mrs. Dwight P. Allen, Mrs. E. M. Chamberlain, Mrs. Roy B. Cobb, Mrs. Louis J. Giffels, Mrs. Richard H. Fleming, Mrs. W. Carleton Scott, Mrs. D. B. Burleigh, Mrs. James E. Bullock, Mrs. W. D. Fitzman, Jr., and Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr.

REHEARSAL IS HELD AT DINNER BEFORE WEDDING

Both Mrs. Howard D. Crull, of Lincoln road, and Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, of Fernside avenue, chose today for their teas for team members. At Mrs. Hascall's those present are to be: Mrs. Lee A. White, Mrs. Cleveland Walcott, Mrs. William H. Jackson, Mrs. O. F. Pearson, Mrs. Ray H. Bechtold, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. C. H. Howe, Mrs. R. J. Waterbury, Mrs. J. J. Boura, Mrs. Edwin D. Morrison, Mrs. L. S. Pyle and Mrs. Julia K. Lally. Mrs. Pyle and Mrs. Lally are guests.

The next meeting of the Birmingham Garden Club will be held April 15 at the Community House. Mrs. W. Whitney Raymond will have charge of the program and Mrs. Roy C. Hansen will be chairman of the tea.

HAY RIDE WILL OCCUPY YOUNG PEOPLE'S GROUP

The young people who meet at the Community House each week for informal entertainment, are hoping for fair weather, especially for Friday night, when their next assembly is due. They will gather at the House some time before eight o'clock and go for a hay ride—weather permitting. Upon their return to the House there will be refreshments and games and whatever else strikes the fancy of the members. The gathering is open to everyone, and the only stipulation is a plea to the prospective guests to be at the House by 8 p. m. in order to start the hay ride on time.

Last week's gathering was such a success that the Fellowship Club, who dropped in in the middle of the evening for bridge, dancing, ping-pong and community singing, Peggy Phillips and Evelyn Phillips (they aren't related) are responsible for the latter item, and spelled one another at the piano until reason prevailed and the singing ceased. Bill Torrence, Erin Andrews and Fred Johnson took care of arrangements for the refreshments.

Easter Seals Help Crippled Children

William A. Alfs and his daughter, Miss Laura Alfs, of West Long Lake road, are leaving today to motor through Pennsylvania. They are going to inspect several boarding schools during their trip.

Bride-Elect

REHEARSAL IS HELD AT DINNER BEFORE WEDDING

Miss Gruber of the bride-elect, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henry Gruber, of Raleigh avenue, will become Mrs. MacDonald's bride at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at Christ Church Cranbrook, which will be decorated for the occasion with groupings of white flowers and greenery and white tapers. A reception will be held after the ceremony at the Bloomfield Hills Country club, where the wedding party will receive before a background of white flowers and ferns. The bridal table will bear a centerpiece of white flowers and candles, in addition to the decorative wedding cake.

Among the guests coming from out of town for the marriage are Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Lebelier and daughter, Dorothy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Gantz of Grand Rapids.

PROCEEDS WILL AID SCHOLARSHIP FUND

A Birmingham student will reap the benefit of the fashion show and tea sponsored by the Birmingham and Pontiac branches of the University of Michigan League on Friday, March 18. The proceeds have been turned over to the scholarship fund maintained by the League and open to both men and women students at the University. Several local students already hold League scholarships according to Mrs. Lee A. White, who served as publicity chairman for the fashion show.

Barbara Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Meyer of Southfield road and a student at Monticello college, is spending the spring holidays as the guest of her parents. She brought with her as her house guest, Marilyn Groves of Lynn, Mass. Both girls are freshmen in the preparatory school of the college.
