Style Show to Be Luncheon Feature

A style show will feature the opening bridge-luncheon of the Oakland Hills Country club, which will be held next Wednesday afternoon. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock, and during the meal professional models will display the latest fashions in sports wear, bathing togs, especially appropriate in view of the club's new pool, formal gowns, etc. Bridge will follow.

There will be a musical program and spring flowers will comprise the decorations. Members may bring guests and already, many have made reservations.

The committee in charge of the party is as follows: Mrs. M. M. Burgess, chairman, Mrs. J. L. Dostal, Mrs. D. J. Hutchins, Mrs. C. R. Richardson and Mrs. T. B. Cookerly.

BOARD TO PLAN FALL DRIVE FOR GUILD MEMBERS

Members of the Needlework Guild of Birmingham are planning their next board meeting to be held next week at the home of the president, Mrs. Ferd M. Broock of Lone Pine Court. The fore-minded Guild members will discuss the membership drive, which they are planning for the week of October 9-14. It will precede the annual November ingathering.

Also at this board meeting, Mrs. Broock will present a report of the annual convention of the Needlework Guild, held last week in Indianapolis, which she attended as delegate from the Birmingham group.

Mrs. Fred Sanders, vice-president of the local Guild, will be at the meeting, as will the other Board members: Mrs. Navin G. Kirn, Mrs. H. J. Lauver, Mrs. Lawrence Howe, Mrs. Legler Paxton, Mrs. E. C. Seaholm, Mrs. L. K. Marshall and Mrs. Carleton C. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson served as the first president of the Birmingham Guild, an office which she held for six years. Mrs. Louis A. Farquhar, who is in charge of the Guild's junior girls' group, will also attend the meeting, in her official capacity.

MRS. MOORE IS APRIL BRIDE OF WARREN JEWELL

A wedding of considerable interest in Birmingham is that of Mrs. Margaret Moore, widow of Dr. Herbert E. Moore and Warren E. Jewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jewell, which was celebrated in Auburn, Ind., on April 18. The bride and bridegroom have returned from their honeymoon trip and are at home at Spring Valley, north of Clarkston.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Porter of Royal Oak, attended Mr. and Mrs. Jewell at their marriage. The bride wore for the occasion a traveling suit of gray wool crepe and a small grey hat and her flowers were lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell entertained 12 relatives and friends at a dinner at their home last Sunday, at which they announced their marriage. They will be honor guests at a family dinner of 16 covers on May 20, when Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jewell will be hosts at their home on East Maple avenue.

Club Notes

The Rotary Anns will meet Monday, May 16, for a one o'clock luncheon, at the home of Mrs. George R. Averill on Rivenoak avenue. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Walter L. Connelly, Mrs. Charles E. Jamus and Mrs. Elmer W. Haack. The meeting will consist of the reading of annual reports and the election of officers.

The Rebekah Lodge of Birmingham is sponsoring a 500 Party this evening at the K. of P. Hall, at 8:30 o'clock. The general public is invited to attend the affair.

The Ladies Society of the Emsbury Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Roy E. Smith on Humphrey street at two o'clock this afternoon.

On Friday evening at 6:30, the same Society will sponsor a Boston baked bean supper. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. John Sager, Mrs. C. B. Moorhead or Mrs. Victor Ogden.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald O. Nimmo, of Fairview avenue, announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Kate, on May 10. Mrs. Nimmo before her marriage was Barbara Ulrichsen of Beavertown, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Merow (Elizabeth Bray), of Brown street, announce the birth of a son, Thomas Edwin, on April 26.

FRIENDLY CLUB ENDS YEAR WITH DINNER DANCE

A dinner, gay with spring colors, preceded the final meeting for the season of the Friendly Dancing Club, held Friday evening at the Community House. The May motif was carried out in clever maypoles, constructed of varicolored tapers and streamers, and disposals of flowers in shades of yellow and blue further decorated the tables.

The members of the Club attended in full force, with the addition of a number of guests. During the evening those interested in subscribing to a similar assembly series for next year were asked to indicate the fact, a request which elicted an enthusiastic response, according to sponsors of the affair.

Among those who attended the pre-dance dinner were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin D. Merriam, Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Averill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. James, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Buschman, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wash of Pleasant Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaver, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Binkle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson of Detroit, Dr. and Mrs. A. Kenneth Stolpman, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Y. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, Mrs. Fred W. Johnson and Fred L. Johnson.

Change Of Plans Alters Wedding

A last-minute change in arrangements altered the wedding plans of Miss Patricia Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler of Forest avenue, and Jack Ogden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor R. Ogden of Smith avenue, who were to have been married in Cleveland last Thursday.

As a result, the young couple spoke their vows in New York city at ten o'clock Tuesday morning. The Rev. Father Randall Ray performed the ceremony in the Chapel of the Holy Family in New York's noted Little Church Around the Corner.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Edward Hoffman of Long Island. Following the service, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, an aunt of the bride, entertained the wedding party at a wedding breakfast in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden will return from the east early next week, and will be at home to their friends in their new residence in Huntington Woods.
