Pine Lake Will Formally Open Summer Program With Dinner and Dance

COUNTRY CLUB COMMITTEES PLANSEASON

With the first dinner and dance of the year scheduled for Saturday, May 21, Pine Lake Country Club will be formally opened for the season. Jack Revere's orchestra, featuring the vocalizing of Don Hughes, will furnish music for the affair, to which members may bring guests. The children of members and their dancing partners will be the guests of the club following dinner, and members are also welcome to come and dance if they are unable to dine as well.

The various social committees which assist each year in the club functions, are gradually organizing their programs for the coming season. Mrs. Erwin F. Coveney is chairman of the Women's House Committee, and her assistants are Mrs. L. H. Cole of Pontiac and Mrs. Harvey Kuykendall. Mrs. Coveney announces that her plans for the year are virtually completed.

The Women's Golf Committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert S. Crawford of Detroit, met Thursday for an opening breakfast, at which plans were discussed. Mrs. Harry D. Vaughan is vice-chairman; Mrs. C. J. Wright is handicap chairman; and assisting generally on the committee are Mrs. E. T. Erdman of Detroit and Mrs. P. H. Popa of Pleasant Ridge. The first match scheduled for women golfers will be played on Thursday, June 2, with the first Thursdays of the subsequent months designated as Ladies' Guest Days.

The Women's Bridge Committee, whose chairman is Mrs. Barney Habel of Pontiac, is planning the annual bridge luncheon and fashion show for Friday, June 3. After that, the bridge luncheons will be held on the first and third Wednesdays of every month. The list of committee members will be announced next week according to Mrs. Benjamin H. Anibal, who is assisting Mrs. Habel.

Enthusiasm Greets Musicians At First Community Concert In Series

By Carol Dwelley

Judging from the amount of applause, it would seem that Birmingham music lovers wholeheartedly concurred with the idea of community concerts Friday evening, at the Community House. The affair was the first in a series to be sponsored by the Community House Association, from which the proceeds will form part of the House pledge to the Recreation Commission.

The program was presented by the Birmingham Men's Glee Club, under the direction of A. Shanley Rosso. Piano selections by Mr. Rosso, Robert Slusser, Glee Club accompanist; and Gordon Eiss, talented Baldwin high school student; and vocal selections by W. Carleton Scott, a member of the Glee Club, were also included in the program.

The entire Glee Club opened the concert, singing "Dear Land of Home," by Sibelius. They treated the selection with dignity and expression. Martin's popular "Come to the Fair" struck a festive note as the second song. In direct contrast was Parks' "Pale in the Amber West," which followed. The song was sung with harmonious ease, so well did the voices blend.

"Stout Hearted Men" concluded the first group. This robust, rollicking chant brought out the full strength of the chorus most effectively, and won enthusiastic applause. As an encore, the singers offered the beloved Scotch air, "John Peel," which they presented with unusual effects.

Mr. Slusser appeared in a group of piano solos, next. His first, Schubert's "Impromptu-Opus 142" was played with assurance worthy of a more mature artist. That favorite of many pianists, Mendelssohn's "Andante and Rondo Capriccioso," followed. As an encore he presented "Two Springs," by Grieg, thus concluding a charming and convincing group.

Mr. Scott, as tenor soloist, sang first "Thoughts of You," by Brown, a selection which seemed particularly adapted to his voice. His second song, "The Spirit Flower," by Brown, was also a happy choice.

A two-piano duet, always a novelty, followed, with Mr. Rosso and Gordon Eiss performing. "Whimsical Charms," a graceful composition by Fresco, was their first selection, followed with the classic "Nola," by Arndt. Mr. Rosso has long been established as a musician, but Mr. Eiss was a revelation to most of the audience. His amazing adaptability was shown when he not only held his own against his more experienced partner, but achieved a creditable performance on his own behalf. Their performance reached a climax with Zez Confrey's "Dizzy Fingers," which they offered as an encore.

The Glee Club returned to the stage to sing "I Love Life," Mana-Zucca, with assurance and spirit. Their second song, a favorite everywhere, was Ben Johnson's "Drink to Me Only." Another classic of many years sung by them was Barri's "The Old Brigade." The audience responded in a body to the catchy rhythm of this military air. The popularity of Reichart's "When the Roses Bloom" lies in its mellow qualities, which were emphasized without too much sentimentality. "Oh Lord Most Holy," by Franck, brought the program to a close. Mr. Scott sang the tenor solo, receiving excellent support from the chorus.

FOREST LAKE PLANS UNIQUE SPRING DANCE

An unusual combination of entertainment is in store for members of Forest Lake Country Club on the evening of Saturday, June 4. There will be a dance, and for entertainment, a fashion show of the latest things in summer apparel. Jules Klein's orchestra will provide music for the event, and members may bring their guests. Dinner will be served preceding the dance.

On Saturday, many members, including a large contingent from Birmingham, attended the opening dinner-dance of the club. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dewey, Mrs. Dewey in a black net gown, were among those who attended, as did Mr. and Mrs. Malcom McMillian, Mrs. McMillian chose a sheath frock of white crepe. Mrs. Sidney A. Wells, who attended with Mr. Wells, was attractive in aquamarine taffeta, with violet ribbon edging the full skirt.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. LaDriere were there also, with Mrs. La Driere clad in black net, with which she wore a white lace bolero. Mrs. Cloud L. Cray, who was escorted by Mr. Cray, chose a dark blue satin gown with a full skirt and fitted jacket. Another attractive couple were Mr. and Mrs. Barton M. Pheatt. Mrs. Pheatt wore a crepe frock in a flower print, accenting the motif with spring flowers at the neck-line. Carl W. Hauser, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wells, attended with another house guest, Miss Mary Kilbane. Miss Kilbane who, like Mr. Hauser, is a resident of Cleveland was charming in printed chiffon, with a shoulder corsage of cornflowers and roses.

Miss Elise Taylor will return to her home on Madison avenue at the end of the week. She spent the past week in St. Louis, Mo., as the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Roeder.

ELEANOR WASEY TELLS OF TROTH WITH CORSAGES

A luncheon complimenting one betrothal revealed another Saturday, when Mrs. Edward Gay Wasey of Harmon avenue announced the engagement of her daughter, Eleanor, to Donald Thomas Maentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Maentz of Allegan, Mich. No date has been set for the wedding.

Guests at the affair had supposed that it was given solely to honor Miss Janet Miller of Grosse Ile, who will marry Fred Hall of Detroit on Saturday, May 21. Miss Wasey's betrothal was announced in tiny scrolls, attached to corsages which formed favors for the guests. Disposals of lilacs were used as decorations about the rooms.

Miss Wasey is a graduate of the University of Michigan. She was an active participant in collegiate affairs. While an undergraduate she was affiliated with Collegiate Sorosis. Mr. Maentz was graduated from Leland Stanford University, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Besides the honorees, the list of guests at the luncheon included the names of the Misses Betty and Gayno Laub, Miss Jane O'Ferrall, Mrs. Robert Voss, Miss Mary Leonard, Miss Betsy O'Dell, Mrs. Melish Acker Thompson, Miss Mary Ellen Menard, Mrs. William Plumber Drake, Mrs. Shirley C. Snow, Miss Julie Kane, Miss Mary Lou Miller, Miss Josephine Wilcox, Miss Mary Widenmann, Mrs. Betty Devine, Miss Lillian Thompson, Miss Marian Donaldson, Miss Lillian Vaughan, Miss Betty Lou Myers, Miss Mary Starr, Mrs. Sam Potter and Mrs. Gilbert Haddas.

PARENTS TELL BETROTHAL OF LOCAL COUPLE

Of interest to her many friends in Birmingham is the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hutchinson of Knox street of the engagement of their daughter, Josephine M., to Herman C. Cuskie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Cuskie of Monier road. The wedding will be an event of August, with additional details to be announced later.

The bride elect is a graduate of Baldwin high school and the Business Institute at Pontiac. She has been employed as librarian and clerk at Adams school since her graduation from the Institute.

Mr. Cuskie was graduated from the Michigan College of Mines and Technology, where he was active in undergraduate affairs. He is a member of Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering society, and Tau Nu Tau, honorary military fraternity. He will receive his Master's Degree in June from the Chrysler Institute of Engineering. He is employed in the engineering department of the Chrysler motor company.

Spring Festival of St. James League Will Feature Traditional Pet Parade

If you attend the angual spring flower festival which the League of St. James' Women has scheduled this year for Saturday, June 4, you may be confronted by almost any kind of animal, from a snail to an elephant! The reason, of course, is the traditional Pet Parade, to be held at 2 p. m., in which members of the younger set are invited to enter their fury, feathery or scaly animal friends. Mrs. Graham John Graham and Edward L. Bryant of Ann Arbor, who will act as judges, announce that every entrant will be given a prize, and there will be special prizes for the funniest, smallest, largest and other classifications.

Mrs. George D. Clark and Mrs. Richard E. Kearns are in charge of arrangements for the Pet Parade. They will be assisted by L. M. Baker, George T. Hendrie, Mr. Clark and Mr. Kearns, as well as a contingent from the ranks of the school set. Arrangements for the pets and their exhibitors to march to band music are being completed.

The plant booth will not officially open for business until 9 a. m. on the morning of June 4, but Mrs. Clarence G. Heinmiller can fill the orders of gardeners who do not want to wait. Mrs. William Alfs is in charge of annuals and Mrs. George T. Hendrie of perennials. Mrs. Perry C. Hill, Mrs. Peggy Hadjiskey and Miss Helen Woodson will also assist.

Mrs. William M. Merrill, tea chairman, and Mrs. Franklin Fricker, fashion show chairman, will make arrangements for the entertainment which will be a high spot of the afternoon. Mrs. Fricker will enlist the aid of members of the school set to act as models, and assisting Mrs. Merrill will be Mrs. Charles F. Dye, Mrs. Marvin G. Kirn, Mrs. Edwin Hart Strunk, Mrs. C. Allen Valpey, Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mrs. Otis W. Howard and Mrs. James E. Bullock.

All kinds of accessories for outdoor living; painted porch trays, garden accessories and equipment and baskets, as well as colorful knitting bags and other novelties, may be found in the booth directed by Mrs. Dominic S. Hastreiter. Assisting her will be Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman, Mrs. Donald Vinton, Mrs. Harold A. Dick, Mrs. A. Fletcher Plant, Mrs. Howard Farrell and Mrs. R. E. Anderson.

Mrs. J. Nicholas Hadjiskey, who is chairman of the young people's booth, is planning an ample stock of the traditional wares of fairs and entertainments, everything from "hot dogs" to peanuts and pink lemonade. The more adult tastes will be catered to at the baked goods booth, in charge of Mrs. D. M. Spencer. Mrs. Spencer has asked to serve on her committee, Mrs. Garrett W. Arnold, Mrs. Clarence R. Vliet Jr., Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy and Mrs. J. B. Kendall.

Mrs. Spencer C. Stanley is general chairman of the entire festival. On the publicity committee are found the names of Mrs. Kearns, chairman; Mrs. Graham and Mrs. W. A. P. John.

OAKLAND HILLS MATRONS PLAN FULL SCHEDULE

Activities of every sort continue to fill the days at Oakland Hills Country Club. On Wednesday a bridge luncheon and fashion show, featuring summer styles, was held for women members and their guests. In charge of arrangements was a committee which included the names of Mrs. M. M. Burgess, Mrs. D. J. Hutchins, Mrs. C. P. Richardson, Mrs. J. L. Dostal and Mrs. T. B. Cookerly.

Others from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills who attended the affair include Mrs. Gould Allen, Mrs. E. A. Thompson, Mrs. Barton M. Pheatt, Mrs. John H. Busby, Mrs. John F. Hollister and Mrs. J. R. Mosby, as well as the entire membership of the committee in charge.

Women golfers played a match Friday for the best nine holes, with several local sportswomen in the top ranks. Mrs. J. H. DeVisser and Miss Mary Russell tied for the championship flight with a score of 42. Mrs. P. C. McDonald and Mrs. Fred Rollins tied in class A with 53. Mrs. George King, who has taken rooms at the Club for the summer, topped Class B with 55. Women in Class C was Mrs. J. N. Daley, with 60.

Hollywood Hit

The lightweight frock of green wool which Glenda Farrell is wearing above is a box office sensation with this young film star. Designed for spectator sports during semi-warm months, the frock features a wrap-around skirt and a jacket fastened with matching green buttons. The antelope hat which Glenda carries is topped with a black quill.

FRIENDS HONOR COUPLE ON EVE OF DEPARTURE

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Wells, of Mohegan avenue, who will go to Chicago early in June to make their future home, are furnishing the inspiration for a round of social festivities. They themselves started the ball rolling last Saturday, when they gave a dinner at the Forest Lake Country club before the opening dance of the season. On this occasion they honored their week-end house guests, Miss Mary Kilbane and Carl Hauser, of Cleveland. Invited to meet the visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Cloud L. Cray, Mr. and Mrs. Barton M. Pheatt, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. LaDriere and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rolph, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Raeder.

Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer C. Stanley complimented the Wells and their guests with a supper party at their home on Kennesaw avenue. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Middleton.

Mr. and Mrs. LaDriere honored Mr. and Mrs. Wells with a small dinner at their Detroit home on Tuesday evening. Friday afternoon, members of the Piety Hill chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will have a subscription luncheon at Mrs. Wells' home for her pleasure, and Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Wells will go to Cleveland to spend the week-end with Mrs. Wells' mother, Mrs. Fanny Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Carey will give a dinner next Tuesday evening for the Wells at their home in Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Cray and Mr. and Mrs. W. Carleton Scott will be co-hosts at a supper party at the Scotts' residence on Brookwood avenue, May 29.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gilbreath, Jr., were hosts last evening, at a small dinner, at their home on Puritan road, honoring Mrs. Sam M. Garber, who is moving to New York next week.

Mrs. Fred W. Johnson, of Adams road, and her mother, Mrs. H. Lakemond, of Detroit, plan to go to Buffalo the first of June, to visit Mrs. Johnson's daughter, Mrs. E. E. Sommer.

Mrs. Carl A. Strand will entertain her book club at luncheon next Monday, at her home on Adams road. Attending will be: Mrs. Geo. W. Jemsen, Mrs. Louis Hascall, Mrs. Marshall M. Morgan, Mrs. A. T. Schooley, Mrs. John S. Lambie, Mrs. Roland H. Mann, Mrs. Francis N. DeBois, Mrs. Robert W. Chessus, Mrs. Fred W. Johnson, Mrs. H. T. Ellerby and Mrs. R. K. White.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stuart will be among those entertaining at the opening dinner-dance at the Pine Lake Country club on Saturday night. Their guests will be: Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sessoms, of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy G. Vandeveer, and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Sisney.
