

Graduating Class at Kingswood To End School Career with Festive Week

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR FRANKLIN FAIR

The first week-end in June will also mark the first antique fair to be given by the Franklin Antique Association, at the Town Hall in Franklin. Opening at noon on Friday, June 3, the affair will continue through Sunday evening, June 5. The Association plans to make the fairs a semi-annual occurrence. The Friendly Club of Franklin will join forces with the Association, to make sure that the fair is a really festive occasion. Members will be present all three days, to serve refreshments. Proceeds will go into the Club's fund for civic improvement.

NAME HOSTESSES FOR ROOSEVELT PIANO RECITAL

At her piano recital Saturday evening at her home on Charing Cross road, Mrs. Dorothy Kemp Roosevelt will have assisting her, her mother, Mrs. Francis P. Kemp, Mrs. L. A. Morgan, Mrs. E. J. Bemis, Mrs. D. Fraser McDonald, Mrs. Harry L. Winston and Mrs. Helen Wagner Neff. Mrs. Roosevelt's program will be as follows: Adagio, Sarabande and Gigue, by Corelli; Prelude in Fugue in E Minor, by Mendelssohn; Toccata, by Honegger; La Vallée des Cloches, by Ravel; Allegro Barbaro, by Bartok; Burleske in D Minor, by Richard Strauss. In the last number, Edwidge Bredshill, of Detroit, will accompany Mrs. Roosevelt on a second piano.

Country Clubs Will Offer A Variety Of Entertainment During Week-End

Social activities at the country clubs over Memorial Day week-end have been planned with the tastes of the whole family in mind. There will be a variety of social events at almost all the clubs and many of them will have dinner dances Saturday evening. Orchard Lake Country Club will be a gay place for the coming week-end marks the formal opening of the club. On Saturday evening, May 28, there will be a dinner and dance, with music by Max Gail's orchestra and entertainment during dinner by Dorothy Berlin. The entire three days will be devoted to the qualifying round for the club championship in men's golf. Men sailors will also hold their first races of the season on Saturday and Sunday. On Monday, May 30, there will be a Kicker's Handicap and putting contest for women golfers. The children will also be specially entertained on Monday, with a puppet show at 3 p. m., followed by ice cream on the lawn. A buffet dinner will be served all day. Oakland Hills Country Club is going to have a varied list of special entertainment, starting with a dinner dance Saturday evening. On Sunday a two-day competition for men golfers will start, and there will be a buffet dinner in the evening. Memorial Day will find women golfers out in full force as well as the men.

Parties Will Continue For Several Days

It will actually be fun to go to school for Kingswood students during the month of June, as the list of pre-graduation activities is completed. A varied list of festivities, many of them involving the entire student body, is on store for June, beginning with the Senior Faculty Breakfast, which will be held at nine o'clock on the morning of Thursday, June 2, at the Faculty Club. The affair will precede the activities of Class Day, which start at 10:30 on the same morning. During the exercises, awards will be presented for achievements in all departments, including athletics. Following the exercises will be the giving of a banquet to students at a dance. On Friday, June 3, the Junior-Senior banquet will be held at 7 p. m. at the school. This will be followed later in the evening by the annual Kingswood Festival dance. The list of students working for their degree this year includes the names of Marjorie Metam, Jane Biggers, Charlotte Davidson, Marjorie Casanova, Barbara Shull, Jane Dinsley, Helen Johnson, Johanna Suttin, Helen Davidson and Joanne Murray. Parents and passers-by are invited to the affair will include Mrs. Joseph H. Hunter, Mrs. J. H. Fitch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar P. Adams and Mrs. Joseph Davidson of Bay City; Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Smith and Mrs. H. H. Gray; Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dapley. The big day, Commencement, will fall on Saturday, June 4. The school will entertain the families of the graduates at a buffet supper preceding the ceremony, which will be held at 7:30 p. m. at the University of Michigan. Marjorie Nicholson of Smith College will appear as the principal speaker.

Younger Set Plans 'Cotton Ball' For June

A final reunion for the prep school set and an initial one for the returning collegians, if plans materialize will be embodied in "The Cotton Ball." Members of the Alumnae Association of the Country Club are sponsoring the affair, which will be held at the Community House on Friday evening, June 10. Miss Louise Cobb is general chairman of the ball. Ralph Bowen and his orchestra, who will provide music, are said by members of the younger set to be apt imitators of the Goodman style of music. The general dance is open to the public.

GIRL SCOUTS
Troop members will take a hike and treasure hunt during weather permitting. They will cook chili con carne for an outdoor dinner. The group will visit the Community House at 7 o'clock and hike to the "Green House," the Girl Scout cabin. Picnic centers will have the picnic and write clues for finding it.
Troop Two hiked to Springhill Park on Thursday, following the directions of a few members who went ahead and laid the trail. About 30 girls participated, having a treasure hunt and later making soups and hamburger balls for supper. Mrs. C. Crockett, Mrs. A. W. White and Miss Thelma Platt were the leaders. The girls also learned how to build a fire.
Troop Two is also giving a tea at 4 o'clock this afternoon, in the Scout room at the Community House. The members of the troop will be honored guests at the affair.
Troop Seven girls treated to a sale of 265 boxes of cookies at their recent movie making drive.
