ANARCHY IN MICHIGAN

(One of the calmest, yet finest, editorial minds in Michigan is that of Stuart H. Perry of The Adrian Daily Telegram. When Mr. Perry writes, you may rest assured that he has thought his case through)—with equity for both sides. This is what makes the following editorial, published by him recently, worth reading.)

ANARCHY IN MICHIGAN Editor, Adrian (Mich.) Telegram When organized bodies openly and deliberately violate personal and property rights, flout the law, and defy the officers of the law, it is anarchy. It may be temporary and it may be local, but it is anarchy, wherever such conditions exist.

Young Lawyer at Age of 87

ST. JOHNS—Two local young men, out to pilfer some gasoline, stole a syphoning can full from a parked car and drove away with out being caught. However, a short time later, some of the gas spilled out of the can into the flow of traffic, tracked through to the motor and caught fire. The theft was discovered.

WATER TURNS TO GAS STANDISH—After a Clayton township man had some pipe pulled and replaced in a well, the color of gas was detected from the flow of liquid coming out of the well. A lighted match held to the outlet set the flow ablaze, thus turning a water well into a gas well. Just how the gas found its way into the shallow depth of 35 feet is unknown.

Meet Old Friends

This Newspaper

For More Than Half A Century Birmingham Folks Have Been Meeting Old Friends And Making New Ones Through The Columns Of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Each week subscribers of the activities of many people, whose names are mentioned in these columns. Some of them your neighbors and close friends. Others are well known by reputation through reading about them in this newspaper.

The Eccentric is a welcome visitor in thousands of homes. It pushes no doorbell to gain entry; it brings no sigh from the busy housewife: "Well, there is another agent." It is no handbill cluttering up automobiles, nor blowing around from dooryard to dooryard.
