

SCOUT COUNCIL TO BE HOSTESS AT INSTITUTE

The Birmingham Girl Scout Council will entertain Council members from neighboring communities at a Field Institute, to be held at the Community House on Friday, June 3. Approximately 60 guests are expected to attend the all-day affair.

Mrs. Craig H. Richey is in charge of invitations to the Institute. Joining forces to aid in registration will be Mrs. Robert Hulbert, Mrs. Frank Macaskill and Mrs. Orren L. Andrews. Mrs. Clarence C. Heimiller is in charge of luncheon arrangements, and Mrs. Lee A. White heads the hospitality committee.

The program will include an out-door exhibition of Girl Scouting, conducted by representatives from the National Field Staff and others from regional headquarters, in Chicago. A special meeting has been called for Tuesday, May 31, at the home of Mrs. Richey on Arlington drive, to settle last-minute details.

Council members from Detroit, Royal Oak, Mr. Clemens, Pontiac and Ypsilanti will be in attendance. Also invited are members of "hone troop" communities, where there are not enough Girl Scout troops to make a Council necessary. These towns include Ann Arbor, East Detroit, Ann Arbor, Farmington, Dexter, Flat Rock, Garden City, Plymouth, Northville, Warren, Wayne, Rosselle, St. Clair Shores, St. Clair, Southfield and Waukegan.

College Knowledge

By SOPHIE MORE

Well kids, there's more to be done every minute it seems, and you'll see just the ones to do it. Bob Lieve Sophie—if she'd ever realized how much of a storm you kids are perpetually in, she's have been goggle-eyed with admiration and stuff long before this. Even the most confirmed cynics couldn't help cheering about all the STUFF you know about 'em.

Weyvern Elects
First crack one of the box, let's set of a few skyrockets and give a cheer or three for Jean Rutherford. She's really DONE it this time, on accounts, guess what? She's this year's Bohem representative in WYVERN at A. A.!! Of course you know all about how the candidates are chosen—on a basis of scholarship, extra-curricular activities and personality, and to say that Weyvern is tops in honors for Junior vinnies is putting it mild. You know her.

Elisabeth White is a Weyvern member from last year, as you remember. And did you know that our smart pal Missy White won the Chi Omega sorority prize in sociology again this year? Wasn't the way she whips right into the most important places is a caution, as well as the envy and admiration of all who know her.

Big Reunion Act
Before you can say "Boo!" to a group of you care for that sort of thing... before Sophie can even return again with the weekly score sheet, the White kids will again be living in town. And a more charming or swell trip would be hard to find. Wayne is a S'know no less, and will graduate from U. of M. with due pomp and ceremony in June. That same old month will see sister Millie back from Denison, where she's a junior, a Theta and TONS of other exciting things. And Dave, as you no doubt know, is keeping the act moving at Calver in excellent fashion. Wouldn't it be NICE to see them 'round once more?

Another Honor
Here's news of another let gal who keeps right on piling up honors without ever turning one of her lovely eye-lashes. She's the pride of the student body at Cornell, says off in Ithaca, and of COURSE we're raving over Ellen Ford. She was among the guests at a so-so(ish) tea, given recently by Mortar Board, too, in honoraries for senior women. And just imagine, all the gals there were those with the very highest in scholastic averages for every class. Which is wonderful for us to even THINK about, but not as easy as PIE for our girl Ellen.

Coming Attractions
Here's some good news about returning collegians. From William and Mary will come the beautiful Dorothy Herbat, on the 9th of June. Dorothy is practical in our midst right now. Just THINK of summer vacation beginning! We'll be especially glad to see her, since she passed us up in favor of New York for Easter. Bud Herbat will be home almost as soon, but has a few small matters such as a SLEW of graduating parties to be attended. Incidentally, didja know he was next thing to ROYALTY? It was our Bud no less, who escorted the May Queen of the whole colich to ALL the affairs in his honor!! And of course he's one of the B. M. O. C. set, and a M. anyway. Must've made a right nice couple, eh?

Doris Vehmeier'll be home about the same time, a full-fledged graduate of Willifield College. Colich, the Hart lovely, Ginny and Betty, are also practically on route, from Monticello. And such that claim about: HALF THE TOWN, all we can do is hope Alvin will track home SOON!!

Poor Senior
Here's a come-down for you. Naturally, the seniors at the BIG frogs in the puddle, no matter what the school. And Betty Sears, being a Chi O off of one of the members of Phi Kappa Phi, Omicron Nu and about a MILLION other wonderful things, sought her one of the topogals at State. Instead, she's in practice house, along with a dozen or more kindred soul-making beds with a slide rule and making sure the nose of the coffee pot points toward the medical, at all the other details home economics majors hafta worry about. But those who hafta worried through it say that it's fun anyway, which is SOMETHING.

Killer-Diller
Speaking of "Boo!" wouldn't it be fun to be Jane Brede? She's been setting Ann Arbor on its ear for some time now, with the greatest of ease. And one of her latest chapters to her success story is that she has just been elected secretary of Alpha Phi, which noble crew she found first crack out of the box. Isn't she marvelous?
