CRANE THINCLAD BREAKS RECORD IN BROAD JUMP

Carl Halden of the Cranbrook School track team broke the school's broad jump record Saturday, and twice shattered his own record in a close contest with the University School of Cleveland.

Cranbrook led to the tune of 60-57, until the 880 yard relay, which decided the score in favor of the Cleveland thinclads.

Frank Floyd of University was the outstanding performer of the meet, chalking up 194 points. He won the 100 and 220-yard dashes and the javelin throw.

In the single tank's Art Neff defeated Bill Gregory, 10-8. 6-2 Dick Sayre also won over his Ohio opponent, 1-3 and 1-0.

The athletes were witnessed by approximately 800 persons, 600 of whom remained for the school's Guest Day supper, followed by a program.

The Cranbrook Band appeared in the evening, playing Wagner's "Polska" from the third act of Wagner's "Lohengrin."

Wylie Hitchcock also played the finale of Rubenstein's "Concerto."

The Piper, official publication of the Baldwin High School, was released to the student body last Thursday.

The Piper, largely photographed in line with the trend toward picture publications. The theme of the pictorial section dealt with the life of the average Baldwin student.

The Piper's official editor, W. J. Pease, and the music staff as the design. A paste liner, inside the cover, carries the name of every student in Baldwin.

SPORTS AFIELD

When the final standings in the first three events in the Regional meet at Ypsilanti last Saturday were posted, Wayne was only one point behind the local lads.

From that moment on, it was evident that the Maples were going to return home with the crown.

The final four in the 100-yard dash, which was the last race to be run, was a little slower than Mac's and had to take second.

AMATEUR DAY IS OBSERVED AT BALDWIN

An amateur show, sponsored by H. V. will be held at Baldwin High School today. Rodney Gramboch, master of ceremonies, is general chairman of the affair.

The program will be made up of talented students who will compete for a cash prize. Don Erickson will offer a clarinet solo and Roger Erickson a piano solo.

Four singers, Elaine Seelye, Marjorie Kingsbury, Betty Dick and Herbert Finington will try their luck. Don Bottomley, Charles Allen and Dean Yocom compose a trio with a harmonica accompanist.

Norman Lely will deliver a bit of oratory and Genevieve Gay will tap dance and play a selection on the violin.

The show will not be without its own swing band. Ed Platt, Bill Kendall, Jim Furlong and Gordon Eise play to entertain the audience by singing a few popular selections.

Bob Stanger was responsible for the posters advertising the story of wheat.

The first and seventh hour food classes directed by Miss Eleanor Miller gave a movie of education.
