

League of St. James Women Sets the Date for Its Spring Flower Festival

LOCAL MATRONS ARE APPOINTED TO COMMITTEES

The date of the annual spring flowers festival of the League of St. James Women, always a highlight on the calendar of spring activities, has been set for Saturday, June 4. Mrs. Spencer C. Stanley, who has been named as general chairman for the affair, is announcing a general outline of exciting plans for it, along with the names of her committee chairman.

The festival will be an all-day affair, held on the grounds of the church and parish house. The booths will open at ten o'clock Saturday morning, and there will be a pet parade for the children at one. The climax of the afternoon will be a fashion show and tea, featuring summer styles for the sub-deb. Models, who will be announced later, will be taken from the ranks of the teenage set.

Mrs. Franklin Fricker and Mrs. Richard E. Kearns are co-chairmen of the fashion show. The tea is under the chairmanship of Mrs. William M. Merrill. She is being assisted by a committee which includes the names of Mrs. G. W. Howard, Mrs. James E. Bullock, Mrs. John H. Gordon and Mrs. C. Allen Valpey.

Mrs. Downing S. Hatterick is taking charge of the always-popular novelties booth. Mrs. Fred S. Cole's booth will cater especially to the very young, with its stock of pop corn, peanuts, soft drinks, and everything that makes a party in the estimation of the children. There will be a booth of handkerchiefs and a booth of the chairmanship of Mrs. D. M. Spencer. The plant booth will enlist the aid of four League members: Mrs. George T. Hendrie will take charge of perennials, and Mrs. William A. H. of the annual assisting them will be Mrs. Clarence G. Heinmiller and Mrs. Perry C. Hill. Mrs. Heinmiller may also be called by those desiring plants before the date of the sale.

Publicity for the affair will be directed by Mrs. Keating. To assist her, she has enlisted the aid of Mrs. W. A. P. John and Mrs. Graham John Graham.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Miss Margaret DeWald of Ross county is spending the week at the house guest of Miss Eleanor Bishop and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Bishop of Poplarville, avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Johnson of North Adams road had as their guest for the week-end, their daughter, Mrs. Eric C. Somer of Buffalo.

Mrs. Roland H. Mann will open her home on Greenwood on Monday. A luncheon will precede the informal program.

Dr. J. H. Hinkins of Chicago, who has been spending the winter in California, spent the week-end in Birmingham. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Farrar of Greenwood avenue.

Miss Katherine Kleutsch of Chicago, who has been the house guest during the week of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. F. Ingram of Yorkshire road, will leave today for Westboro, Wis. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Ingram's mother, Mrs. Edw. Alger Allen. Mrs. Allen was honor guest at a luncheon, given by members of the Manuscript Club at the home of Mrs. E. F. Painter of Watkins street, Friday. Later she was presented with a gift by the members, who accompanied it with impromptu verses. She will be gone all summer, returning to Birmingham in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen of West Maple avenue will spend Sunday in Ann Arbor. They will be the dinner guests of their daughter, Eleanor, at the Parents' Day dinner to be given at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house, where Miss Allen is living while a student at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. John P. Wood returned Tuesday to her home on Larchdale drive after spending the week-end at Saginaw. She was the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Schurr of Saginaw.

Collegians Will Entertain Mothers At Celebrations On Various Dates

Mothers' Day is given more an occasion for celebration of this is a son or daughter in college, if the week-end plans of a number of local matrons are any indication. Festivities of an elaborate or simple nature, depending on the traditions of the college or organization, have been planned throughout the month of May, and Birmingham mothers will be present for their share of the fun.

Mrs. Charles S. Kinnison of Hawthorne drive, is one of the first to have been honored. She was the guest of her daughter, Miss Mary Jane, at the 13th annual Mothers' Week End, held at Ohio University May second. The program included the first collegiate March Day celebration.

The approaching week-end will see a large contingent of Birmingham mothers at Michigan State college. The Y. W. C. A. will open the week-end with its traditional May breakfast and Michigan Members of Chi Omega sorority will entertain their mothers at tea Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Clinton

E. Sears of Ridgedale avenue will be the guest of her daughters, Miss Betty and Miss Barbara, at the latter affair. Alpha Phi sorority will honor the mothers of members at a luncheon Saturday. Among those present will be Mrs. Ruffe C. Spinning and Miss Betty Sunday, as well as special church services. Alpha Chi Omega has set Saturday, May 21, as the date of its celebration. Mrs. Harry B. Denman will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Sara, at a bridge and tea on that occasion.

One of the most elaborate affairs of the annual Beta Mother's house-party, scheduled this year for the week-end of May 14. Members of Beta Theta Pi fraternity at the University of Michigan will play hosts to their mothers at a three-day affair. Last year's program included an informal dinner Friday evening, a picnic Saturday noon, followed by a formal banquet that evening and attendance at that evening's performance of the Ann Arbor music festival, and another dinner Sunday. Those who will attend this year are Mrs. W. T. Cushing, who will be the guest of Fred, Mrs. Frank L. Cavan and Frank Jr.; Robert P. Watt and Robert Jr.; and Mrs. Harry Allen and James.

CHRIST CHURCH TO BE SCENE OF JOINT MEET

The Women's auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook has invited the women of St. James church to attend its monthly meeting next Tuesday. The business session will take place at 11 a. m., to be followed by communion service, acquittal, and luncheon will be served at 1 p. m. Mrs. Oscar Starrett of Detroit, who formerly lived in China for many years and is writing a book on women of the Orient, and the western world, will be the speaker.

your mother

Is she a gay, modern Mother or is she a quaint, old-fashioned one? Does she remember Dewey at Manila or was she a girl when the World War started its rumblings? ... Regardless of which she is, she'll appreciate being remembered on Mother's Day in a thoughtful, appropriate manner. For YOUR Mother's Day offering for this coming Sunday, select something to fit well with the personality of the Mother you plan to honor. Choose a gift that best expresses your affection as well as a gift that will be most aptly received. You'll find that type of gift here.
