BIRMINGHAM GOLF TO HOLD DINNER DANCE

A number of informal affairs will precede a dinner and dance for members and their guests, to open the season at Birmingham Golf Club on Saturday evening, May 14. Dr. G. R. Norton, chairman of the club's program committee for the year and general chairman of the forthcoming affair, has announced that Jack Rosewall's orchestra will provide the music for dancing and the floor show that will be presented during it also.

Among the festivities which will be held prior to the party will be a gathering at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Norton on Riveroak avenue. Among their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sawyer, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kreidler.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren K. Lee of Southfield road will also entertain at a cocktail party, in their home. They will bring guests to the dance as will other members of the club. The advance list of reservations, while not complete, has indicated a capacity crowd, according to Dr. Norton.

Women Golfers Tell Plans

The women golfers will take advantage of the club's activities program when their season opens, May 6, with an all-day program. Nine holes of golf are the first item on the program, with play starting at nine o'clock in the morning. At 12:30 luncheon will be served. Platt Sawyer, pro professional at the club, will speak informally after lunch.

The first spring business meeting will follow, at two o'clock. New members are especially invited to attend, it is announced by Mrs. C. D. Wessels. Others interested in the W. S. Summers of Detroit heads the group for this year. Mrs. A. C. Flood is first vice-chairman, and Mrs. E. F. Rochadson, also of Detroit, is second vice-chairman. Mrs. Charles A. Kreidler is secretary and Mrs. C. D. Wessels, Detroit, is treasurer. Mrs. Lester P. Bell, Detroit, is chairman of the rules committee, and Mr. G. R. Norton heads the handicaps committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Booth will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Hitchcock and Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Gilman at dinner Friday evening, at their home on Lowell street. Afterward, the Hitchcocks will take the party to the Players' May Frolic in Detroit.

Mrs. Lorne T. McDonald and her infant son, Lorne T., Jr., will return Saturday to their home in South Hadley, Mass., after a three weeks' visit with Mrs. McDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Colden Murray, of Pilgrim road.

Weds Today

Miss Chandler

Miss Patricia Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler of Forest avenue, joins the ranks of the spring brides today, when she speaks her vows with Jack Ogden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor R. Ogden of South avenue. The ceremony will be performed in Cleveland, O.

Following a fortnight's motor trip through the New England states and Nova Scotia, the young couple will be at home in their newly-completed residence on Lakepointe in Huntington Woods.

The bride is a graduate of Michigan State Normal college, and has since been employed as a public kindergartner in Detroit. Mr. Ogden, who received his degree from the University of Detroit, is an electrical engineer. Both were graduated from Baldwin high school in the class of 1929.

FRANKLIN PTA TO HOLD PICNIC AND MEETING

A picnic luncheon, to be held on the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Washington Smith, on Franklin, will be given by members of the Franklin Parent Teacher Association on Monday, May 9. The affairs, at which attendance will be limited to members, will precede the installation of new officers. Yearly reports will also be read. Mrs. William B. Hoey and Mrs. Wendell Swoyer, chairmen of the present program and social committees respectively, are in charge.

New committee chairmen have also been appointed by the Association. They include Mrs. John Ross, programs; Mrs. P. R. Shaefer, hostesses; Mrs. George Welling, membership; Mrs. Sterling Frank W. Loeffler, publications and library; Mrs. Richard S. Orchard, ways and means; Mrs. Edward B. Housel, publicity and Mrs. A. W. Gingg, character education.

Mrs. Truman F. Campbell and Mrs. R. Douglas Sewell, two of the Association delegates, returned to their home today after spending three days in Battle Creek. While there they attended the State Convention of the P. T. A.

Mrs. Edward Smart of Milwaukee, who departed Tuesday following a 10-day visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Smart, at Wing Lake, was the inspiration for a number of parties during her stay. Among those honoring her were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart W. Kelley, who had a dinner Friday evening at their Willetts street home and Mrs. Ralph L. Yonker, of Pine Lake, who entertained at a small luncheon Saturday. Mrs. Clare Roy Austin complimented Mrs. Smart with a small luncheon Monday, at her home on Westwood drive, and Mrs. George W. Akers, of Crooks road, was hostess at luncheon and bridge on Tuesday.

OAKLAND HILLS PLANS INCLUDE FORMAL AFFAIR

Oakland Hills country club will yield to the call of spring with a week-end of activities, which will formally open the club for the coming season. Sports enthusiasts will reign on Friday, and on Saturday evening, a dinner and dance will inaugurate the formal side of the club's social life.

All women members and wives of members are to be complimented at an annual luncheon, to be held Friday at 12:30, at the club. An afternoon of bridge will follow the affair. All women who have come into the club since the close of the last season are especially invited to be present, and receive the welcome of the acquaintance committee, whose chairman is Mrs. J. L. Dostal. She is being assisted by Mrs. M. M. Burgess, Mrs. Ted Coleman, Mrs. George King and Mrs. Damon F. Goll.

Spring will literally be in the air and the formal dinner-dance on Saturday, with the motif carried out in the decorations, Jules Klein and his orchestra will provide music, and a floor show will be presented at the dinner hour. E. B. Rogers, chairman of the entertainment committee, is general chairman of the party.

Pine Lake To Open With All-Day Party

The season at Pine Lae Country Club will open on Saturday, May 21, with an all-day celebration. Stag day will occupy the daylight hours, with golf as the main diversion. A special handicap will add to the hazards of the game, in the form of a children's hand, which has been instructed to play its worst as each golfer tees off.

The first formal dinner dance will be held that evening, with a special orchestra. Movies will be taken throughout the day, and the policy will continue during the season. These will be shown whenever there are enough to warrant it, at the family night dinners.

Thursday has again been chosen as family day, with music to be featured during dinner and entertainment, besides the movies, as well as dancing, for diversion afterwards.

FEDERATION TO HOLD ITS FINAL MEETING FRIDAY

The Oakland County Federation of Woman's Clubs will become inactive for the summer, following its annual election of officers and business meeting, to be held at the Community House on Friday, May 6. Presidents of all the organizations in the Federation and chairmen of all department will present their annual reports at this meeting.

The business meeting will open promptly at 10 o'clock, followed by luncheon at noon. In the afternoon a program will be presented. Ross Tinney, superintendent of the Oakland County Juvenile Home, will be the principal speaker. His subject will be "The New Program of Child Guidance." Following the talk, there will be music, provided by members of the Pontiac Woman's Club.

Mrs. Warren C. Pratt of Strathmore road, president of the Birmingham Woman's Club, will present her report on the activities of the local organization during the morning session.

OPENING FETE IS ARRANGED AT FOREST LAKE

All departments of Forest Lake Country Club will function after Saturday, May 7, the date selected for the traditional dinner and dance which opens the season at the club. Jules Klein and his orchestra will provide music for dancing, and will also bring a feminine accordionist, who will present specialty numbers during dinner.

Decorations, in keeping with the season and the newly-completed interior of the club will be used throughout the rooms. A large number of reservations have been made for the affair according to the entertainment committee. Many of the members will entertain guests.

A partial list of those who have indicated their intentions of attending the party includes the names of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. LaDuere, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Fenerty, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Baeder, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gougeon, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon R. Craven.

DeMOLAY WILL FETE MOTHERS AT BANQUET

The Birmingham DeMolay will hold a mother and son banquet Tuesday, May 10, at 6:30 p. m., at the Community House, in observance of Mother's Day, which is next Sunday. All boys wishing to bring their mothers are invited to attend.

In the absence of Jay Lowman, president, Max Horton will be toastmaster. Mrs. Ford Peabody will make the mother's day address to the boys and William Timm will make the response. Miss Sally Woodward, of Detroit, will speak. A girls' band will provide entertainment and flowers will be presented to all mothers.

Max Horton is general chairman, assisted by William Timm.
