

Local Matrons Join Armistice Day Plans

A trio of local matrons are assisting with plans for the program which the Women's International Education Council will present on Friday, Nov. 11, in cooperation with other peace groups. The event will be held at eight o'clock in the evening at the Detroit Institute of Arts and will be open to the general public.

Mrs. Donald T. Stanton and Mrs. W. A. P. John are Birmingham representatives on the Council and Mrs. Charles J. Shain is a member of the board of directors.

Dr. Quincy Wright of the faculty of the University of Chicago, will appear as one of the main speakers of the evening, with "Collective Security" as his subject. There will be other speakers. Also appearing on the program will be the Ukrainian Choir, with a program of songs, and dances by the senior dance group of Wayne University.

No. 3 In a Series of Advertisements on How to Write A GOOD Want Ad

SQUIRREL COAT—Excellent condition, size 34 or 36, reasonable. 61 Avenue Street.

All kinds of merchandise can be sold through the Want Ad Section.

DINING SUITE—77 pieces, including table, chairs, etc. Must be offered.

Many families furnish their homes with furniture advertised in the Want Ad Section.

SIX RESULT-PRODUCING SUGGESTIONS

Always start your Want Ad with the name of the article or service you have to offer.

Be clear. Readers respond more quickly when given definite information.

Make it easy for the prospect to reach you. Always insert your name, address, and if possible, your phone number, in your Want Ad.

To secure the greatest reader attention, place your Want Ad in the consecutive insertions. Six or more time insertions without interruption are much better than occasional summer sales.

Place yourself in the reader's place and ask yourself what you would like to know about your offer. The answer you give will make a good Want Ad.

Want Ads that fail to bring satisfactory results do so, not because they are carelessly worded, but because they contain enough information to get prompt action.
