City Employees Hosts At Party

Birmingham's city employees entertained their families at the annual fall party Thursday evening held at the clubhouse at Springdale Park. About 70 persons attended the affair.

Members of the Pythian Sisters served the dinner, which was under the general chairmanship of Miss Irene E. Hanley. Ralph L. Main served as chairman of entertainment, while transportation to and from the clubhouse was arranged by Elmer Haack.

A varied program of games was staged following the dinner. There was a treasure hunt among other things, as well as community singing. Prizes were "white elephants," brought to the party by the hosts and hostesses.

THE CLOSEST WAVE TO THE HEAD EVER DEVELOPED—

that's why KOOLERWAVES LAST LONGER

THE NEW RILLING KOOLERWAVE PERMANENT

For matchless beauty in a Permanent Wave, we feature the new Rilling KOOLERWAVE. Positively waves down to the hair ends... goes in usually, even curl... leaves hair marvellously soft and lovely regardless of texture and color. Your wave will last much longer.

It is cool... featherweight... only six minutes on the head. Ask for a test curl. No machine electricity—use like any other permanent waving method.

PARTIES HONOR BRIDE-ELECT BEFORE WEDDING

Miss Marjorie Lucille Kidder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Kidder of Brown Street, will become the bride of William F. deBerg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. deBerg of Woodland drive, during the forenoon of Saturday, Nov. 12. The ceremony, which will be witnessed only by the immediate families of the young couple, will be performed by the Rev. Warren L. Forsyth, in St. James Episcopal Church.

Miss Howard H. Darbo of Chicago, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. Mr. deBerg will be attended by his brother, Oak. A luncheon for the bride party and their families will follow the wedding, at Botsford Tavern.

Miss Yvonne Coy Jovel, the list of those who have honored the bride-elect at pre-nuptial entertainments when she was hostess at the kitchen and utilities shop Wednesday evening. The affair was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gay, of Suffolk road. Among those present were Mrs. Kidder, Mrs. deBerg, Mrs. John Alexander McPherson, Mrs. Robert Jay Vinton, Mrs. John Shenber, Miss Margaret Scriven, Miss Sally Babcock, Mrs. Harriette Babcock, Miss Harriet Breiford and Miss Betty Peabody.

The Kilder home will be the scene of a spinsters dinner this evening. Mrs. Kidder and Mrs. Darbo will be hostesses at the affair. Invitations have been sent to Miss Mary Ellen McMahon, Miss Joan Bishop and Miss Katherine Hughes, all of Detroit; Miss McPherson, who is a cousin of the bride-elect; Miss Breiford, Miss Peabody, Miss Esther Beckley, Miss Julie Preston, Miss Carol Dweley, Miss Mary Francis and Miss Katherine Valley.

LEAGUE DRIVE INSPIRES PLEA FOR ASSISTANCE

By Mary Baird Cunningham
(Editor's Note: Mrs. Cunningham has written for The Eccentric an appeal by members of the University of Michigan League, for support in their drive for the new cooperative dormitory for the campus of the university. She is among the most active of the alumnae taking part in the drive.)

Were you born with a gold spoon in your mouth, or even a gold silver-plated one, so that when you went to college you had only to rub the magic spoon to provide yourself with the wherewithal for an education? If you were born lucky, can you imagine being a college girl who has to work six hours a day to earn her board and room, so there's little time for study? If you were, how would you like to live in a nice cooperative dormitory, such as we are going to build at the University of Michigan? Twenty girls may live together there and by sharing their duties, work only one hour a day, so that there is time for study and campus activities.

Would those of you who had your education thank you like to help these other girls, less fortunate? You might feel that you had repaid an obligation if you could have a part in building the cooperative dormitory for these students, who will be chosen by a committee of League members for their general deserving qualities and scholastic ability. Will you help us?

Pierce P. T. A. To Meet For Program

The regular meeting of the Pierce School Parent Teacher Association will be held at the school this afternoon, at 3:15. Mrs. Clyde E. Dalton, president, will preside over the short business meeting, which will open the program.

Afterwards, Miss Marilyn Prussing will open the entertainment as soloist. Ernest P. Davis, of the Detroit Department of Education, will appear as principal speaker.

Ten will follow the program. Mrs. James Greer, mother for Miss Francis Looney's room, is in charge of arrangements for the tea. For the convenience of mothers, who cannot leave small children, the little ones may be left at the kindergarten room, where they will be cared for during the meeting.

Junior League Members Join Forces To Arrange Annual Christmas Fair

By Photograph Shop of Birmingham
Miss Thompson

Miss Romaine Thompson of "Keweenaw," Bloomfield Hills, general chairman of the Christmas Fair which the Junior League will sponsor on Tuesday, Nov. 15, heads the list of those working on arrangements. The Fair, which is the first to be held in Bloomfield Hills in many years, will be held at Thornhill Studio on the Henry S. Booth estate, Lone Pine road.

Among the hostesses of the fair are Mrs. Marc T. Patten, besides the Kilder home will be the scene of a spinsters dinner this evening. Mrs. Kidder and Mrs. Darbo will be hostesses at the affair. Invitations have been sent to Miss Mary Ellen McMahon, Miss Joan Bishop and Miss Katherine Hughes, all of Detroit; Miss McPherson, who is a cousin of the bride-elect; Miss Breiford, Miss Peabody, Miss Esther Beckley, Miss Julie Preston, Miss Carol Dweley, Miss Mary Francis and Miss Katherine Valley.

Church Women Will Hear Social Worker

Mrs. Julia K. Lally, director of the Community House, will appear as principal speaker before members of the League of Catholic Women at their regular monthly meeting. The group will convene at the House at two o'clock on the afternoon of Monday, Nov. 14.

Mrs. Lally's talk will be entitled "Experiences of a Social Worker in Birmingham." Also during the meeting, Mrs. Jack Leary, chairman of the League's standing entertainment committee, will discuss plans for the annual Christmas party, always a red-letter date for League members. Her committee will be announced in the near future. Funds from the affair will be devoted to the welfare work of the organization.

The Rev. Father James W. Cotter will celebrate Holy Mass at 8:25 Tuesday morning for the 17th, for deceased members of the group. It is expected that League members will attend in a body.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop B-7 of Girl Scouts is now taking orders both for Girl Scout cookies and for Christmas cards and gift wrappings. The cards and wrappings will be on display every Saturday afternoon, during November, at Sanders' store, where orders will be taken, as well as for the cookies. The display and the work is in charge of members of Troop B-7, with a different pair of girls working each Saturday. Miss Lillian Walton, Captain, and Mrs. Andrew Watson, Lieutenant, are supervising and guiding the work.

At the Nov. 3 meeting of Troop 20, seven girls were invested in membership. The list included the names of Marjorie Thompson, Betty Hooper, Adele Birrell, Elizabeth and Eleanor Ellis. Mary her work as merchandising chairman, she is planning decorations for the scene of the bazaar. The rooms will be festive with decorations of silver and grey, a Christmas touch being provided through disposals of huge, snowy-white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Hamilton H. Paterson is assistant to Miss Thompson. Others who head committees are Mrs. Henry S. Booth and Mrs. Guy C. Smith, co-chairmen of announcements; Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, publicity; and Mrs. Paul B. Hoffman, who heads the large sales committee.

Hundreds of announcements of the event have been sent to matrons in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, and Pontiac, making it one of the outstanding affairs of the fall season.

WOMAN'S CLUB TELLS PLANS FOR MONTHLY MEET

Three of the departments of the Birmingham Woman's Club will hold their meetings simultaneously on Tuesday, Nov. 15.

The American Home Department will meet at Hedges, and the later will visit the Florence Crutenden Home in Detroit. Mrs. E. H. Hogen and Mrs. L. B. Bishop are in charge of luncheon arrangements and transportation.

An interesting day is planned for members of the Art Department, at the home of Mrs. Harry Williams of Oakdale. Mrs. Williams will discuss the New York artist Willard Reiss, and his portraits of the Blackfeet Indians, which are located in Glacier National Park. In connection with his autobiography, she will display about 50 colored reproductions of his most prominent works. Mrs. J. P. Wood, assisted by Mrs. Charles Stetson, will take charge of a desert luncheon, to be served preceding the program.

Mrs. Harry B. Donnan of Green Lake formerly of Birmingham, will entertain the Literature Department for a Shakespearean program and tea. Mrs. Howard Chapel is chairman, and will speak on "The Influence of Shakespeare on Modern Speech." Mrs. Glenn D. Coley will describe the life of Shakespeare and the Elizabethan Theater. Mrs. F. Crawford will deliver selections from four of his plays. Mrs. E. D. Stetson, and Miss H. G. Gardner will serve the tea.

The International Relations group will meet on Monday, Nov. 21. To enable members of the other groups to attend the meeting if they desire, Mrs. L. S. Ward will hold her home on Throckmold road for the occasion, which will open with a dessert luncheon. Mrs. John K. Ormond will discuss "The Controversy of the Motion Picture." Members of other departments are welcome to attend. Mrs. Ormond is taking luncheon reservations and the program will start at two o'clock.

Baldwin P. T. A. Announces Theme For Winter And Spring Program

A program carrying out the organization's aim for this year has been organized by the Baldwin high school Parent Teacher Association, according to Mrs. Warren L. Forsyth, president. The aim of the group, she says, is "Know our school and its needs." To this end, programs and projects of the P. T. A. for the entire year will be built around the theme.

The group's first meetings of the year have laid the foundations for the current theme. Dr. Frank J. Sladen, head of staff at Ford Hospital, spoke at the first meeting, talking about "requirements" for good students and parents from a physiological standpoint.

On Tuesday, the P. T. A. members arranged an "open house" at the school, with night sessions of the classes, which parents attended preceding the regular meeting.

A tea for junior high school students, their parents and their teachers, will be held during December, to help them get acquainted with one another.

January has been selected as the time for a jury panel, the members of which will be composed of students, parents and teachers. An effort will be made to bring out the present situation at the school and to suggest additions or improvements which the panel may think important.

In February, another tea will be held. Guests at this affair will be students in the senior high school and their parents and teachers.

P. T. A. activities will take on a festive aspect in March, with a carnival, in which the children of members will assist the adult committees. The affair will be run along the same lines as last year's hobby show, with further details of the program to be disclosed by the committee in the future.

Among the present projects of the Baldwin P. T. A. is the furnishing and redecorating of the teachers' room at the high school. Funds for the project were raised by a bake sale, of which Mrs. Walter Anderson was the general chairman. Clyde Bennett is acting as

DR. HASSBERGER TO GUIDE CASTS OF BOTH PLAYS

Casting has been completed and rehearsals are now in progress for the November production of The Village Players, scheduled for the evening of Saturday, Nov. 26, at the Playhouse. Dr. John Hassberger will direct both of the plays, which are selections from the "Twilight At 8:30" series by Noel Coward.

"Hands Across the Sea," the first play, has Mrs. Robert F. Tilton in the leading role. Others in the cast include Warren Peace, Jr., Mrs. Rolf C. Spinning, Edward S. Reid, Jr., Mrs. Carol Dweley, Mrs. George Howard Fox, Clark E. Pardee, Howard Pardee, and Mrs. A. A. Averill.

Mrs. Arthur L. Genung is assistant director for this play and Mrs. Clark E. Pardee is in charge of production. Mrs. L. E. Colgrove will hold lines for both productions.

The second play is "Ways and Means." Appearing in the cast will be Mrs. W. Carlsson Scott, H. Kenneth Bingham, Mrs. Paul K. Averill, George D. Clark, Clond L. Gray, Cecil E. Chaffin, J. Z. Lander, Stanley R. Saunders, and Mrs. Charles F. Thayer. Dr. Hassberger will have Miss Margaret Telford as his assistant director, and Mrs. Louisa J. Giffels is in charge of properties.

Plans are being made for between-the-acts entertainment, under the direction of Mrs. Robert V. Woodruff, chairman of the music committee. The occasion will also mark the first Artgarden, an informal social gathering following the plays, of the Players' season.

ALTAR SOCIETY WILL SPONSOR FEATHER PARTY

A combination of two favorite forms of entertainment will be given by the Altar Society of Holy Name Parish on Tuesday, Nov. 15. Mrs. J. C. Lawson will open her home on Kennesaw drive for a desert luncheon, to be served at 1:15. Afterwards, there will be a feather party.

Prizes will be awarded for the games and there will also be door prizes. The affair is open to the general public as well as to members of the Society and their guests.

Mrs. Harry S. Starr is general chairman of arrangements, assisted by a committee of twenty members. The list includes the names of Mrs. Thomas Cummings, Mrs. Harry Hart, Mrs. Edith Shelby, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Roy Casper.

Proceeds will be devoted to the various projects of the Society's program.

Shirley in Rags Puzzles Visitor

Shirley Temple, the little Hollywood star, was puzzled by a visitor who came to her dressing room at the Hollywood. Possibly her puzzlement is accounted for by Shirley's rather ragged apparel. Shirley's clothes were part of her wardrobe for "The Little Princess."

NEW BRIDE

Listening to the election returns over the radio was the chief entertainment in Birmingham Tuesday night. The Village Players took the occasion to have an election party at their Playhouse, where members played bridge and other games, enjoyed a few musical interludes and generally had a jolly and informal time, while listening to the election bulletins. Supper was served about midnight and the more ardent ones stayed on until the wee small hours of the morning.

Noted among the Players at E. Bullock

Counting as a surprise to many of the friends of the bride couple is the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Preston of Madison avenue of the marriage of their daughter, Lucile Eliza, to Arthur C. Turover, Jr., son of Mrs. G. M. Nygaard of Royal Oak and A. C. Harbort of Washington, D. C.

The young couple spoke their vows at a quiet ceremony performed Friday in Napoleon, O., under the auspices of the Rev. Barbara Slater of Bowling Green, O., one of her classmates at college.

Mrs. Harbort is a graduate of Baldwin high school. She later attended Olivet College, where she was a member of Sorority Sigma Xi.

Mr. Harbort received his education in Palm Springs, Cal., and in Wichita, Kan.

At present, the young couple are at home to their friends on Ann street, where they have taken an apartment.

MARGARET BOSS TO WED SATURDAY

In compliment to Miss Margaret Boss of Birmingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boss, of Charleville, who will become the bride of Stewart Smith on Saturday, Nov. 12, Mrs. Merrill Olsen of Purdy street, entertained guests at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening. Mr. Smith is the son of Mrs. George Smith of Willets street.

The wedding will take place in the bride's parents' home in Charleville, after which the couple will reside in Birmingham.

Guests at Mrs. Olsen's shower included Mrs. Kenneth Lundberg, Mrs. King Russell, Miss Elizabeth Olsen, Miss Betty Sheridan, Miss June Reed, Miss Marquette MacDonald, Miss Frieda Hard and Mrs. Mary Eyrson.
