loday your voice can girdle the globe

Sixty years ago Michigan's service was limited to a few per-sons in a few scattered communities. If you were a sub-scriber you could call perhaps a score of folks in your own town or neighborhood. But you had no way of talking to the next town or across the State.

The change began in 1881, when a Long Distance line linked Detroit with Port Huron — considered a great thing is those days.

in those days!

Today you not only can talk to almost any one anywhere in Michigan . . . but, due to continuous development and research, your telephone can connect you with 35 million other telephones in nearly all parts of the civilized globe.
