

Numerous Entertainments Will Provide Gay Opening For Village Players

SUNSHINE GROUP TELLS RUMMAGE SALES PLANS

Members of the Sunshine Group of the First Methodist Church are completing plans for a rummage sale, which they will hold on Saturday, Oct. 26, at 462 South Woodward avenue. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. Herbert Roberts, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Jack Wilson and Mrs. E. L. Birtwhong.

Mrs. R. K. White opened her home on Lakeside drive for the group's meeting on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Birtwhong presided over the meeting, in her capacity as chairman of the Sunshine Group.

Club Notes

The Triangle Club will meet at the Community House at eight o'clock Sunday evening, for a hay ride. In case of rain, the meeting will be held indoors at the House, at the same time. Newcomers of high school age and over are welcome to come to meetings of the group, with or without escorts.

The Philomath Club will convene for its next meeting on the afternoon of Tuesday, Oct. 25. Mrs. Bert Moore will open her home on Woodward avenue to the group, for a dessert luncheon, to be followed by an afternoon of sewing.

WILL LECTURE

Miss Hormel

The second in a series of lectures on "Backgrounds and Horizons," by Miss Olive Deen Hormel, will be given at the Guild Hall of Christ Church Cranbrook on Monday, Oct. 24, at two o'clock. A dessert luncheon will be held at 1:15.

Birmingham Business Women will gather this evening at the Community House, for dinner at 6:30. Mrs. Harold E. Middleton will deliver a monologue on the program which will follow.

Pine Lake Country Club, which formerly closed for the season, will remain open for sports and light lunches in the locker room as long as the weather permits, according to the house committee.

Members of the Ladies' Missionary Society of Redeemer Lutheran Church will be hostesses to the general public at their annual fall supper, to be held this evening from 5:30 to eight p. m. The affair will be held at the Masonic Temple. Mrs. Alvin H. Knorr is chairman of the dinner committee and Mrs. Walter Feist is chairman of the bazaar, which will be run in conjunction with the dinner.

Union Will Hear Program At Tea

Mrs. Cecil Brown, secretary of the Michigan Children's Aid Society, will appear before the Women's Union of the First Presbyterian Church at the organization's regular monthly meeting, to be held at the church parlors on Wednesday, Oct. 26, at two o'clock. Mrs. H. D. Harris, president of the Union, will preside.

Mrs. Brown will tell the members how the thousands of garments which they construct and donate to the Society every year are used, and who benefits by their contributions. Following her on the program will be Miss Valde Scott, in a group of vocal selections.

Tea will be served to the members and guests, to conclude the afternoon's activities.

TWO-NIGHT RUN IS OPENED TO NON-MEMBERS

Friday and Saturday evenings will be more than a case of "Boy Meets Girl" at the Playhouse when The Village Players present the three-act comedy written by Sam Bell Spewak for the school. The two-night run of the play will also serve as a chance for non-members of the organization to attend a Players' meeting, since admission will be open to everyone.

A new innovation will be music at 8:45 on both evenings, 15 minutes prior to curtain time. Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff, chairman of the music committee, who is arranging the entertainment, has also promised musical selections to while away the time between the acts.

COSTUME DANCE TO BE STAGED BY FRANKLIN PTA

A highlight of the fall activities presented by the Franklin Village Parent Teacher Association will be a Halloween costume party, to be given at the Franklin Town Hall on Friday, Oct. 28. Decorations in the true autumn motif will enhance the appearance of the hall and there will be numerous prizes for the best costumes, most original dancers, etc.

Jimmy Wood and his Franklinaers will provide music. Dancing will be a mixture of the square dances, so popular last season in the series sponsored by the P. T. A., and modern dances. Another autumnal note will be struck with the refreshments, of cider and doughnuts. Tickets will be limited.

to 185, and may be secured from P. T. A. members.

Mrs. Richard S. Orchard, chairman of the organization's budget and finance committee, is general chairman of the dance. Assisting her will be four committees, headed by Mrs. William B. Hoey, refreshments; Mrs. Vernon Converse Jr., decorations; Mrs. J. Jennings Morse, tickets and Mrs. Edward B. Housell, publicity.

WOMEN OBTAIN EXTRA MONEY by using The Eccentric's Classified Ad columns, where they may sell various household items no longer needed by them—but desired by others who are on the constant lookout for bargains. Telephone our office, 11, not later than Wednesday noon. (adv.26-31)

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser McDonald, of Kennesaw road, will go to New York the end of the week to spend several days with Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. G. H. Laney, and her sister, Mrs. A. L. Finch.

Dinners Planned

Numerous parties will precede and follow the performance on both evenings, as members take advantage of the opportunity to attend with non-members. Mrs. and Mrs. Rolfe C. Spinning will be hosts at dinner preceding Friday's play, and will have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hammons, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Duxley and from Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vaughan and Mr. and Mrs. James J. Follows. The play, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Averill will be the scene of a supper, for a group of their friends, at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Don J. Buell and Mr. and Mrs. Kay C. Brown, at dinner at their home on Wilminton road.

Saturday's play will be the occasion of still more festivities. A group which will meet for a subscription dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Clark, on Brookside avenue, include Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Vliet Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hart Strunk, Mr. and Mrs. Newman T. Halvorson, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Coffin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Morris. Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. McCombe of Lakewood drive, will also be hosts at dinner before the play. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Swain Hill and Mr. and Mrs. J. Bay Scolari Jr.

To Honor Guests

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hastreiter will have as their guests at the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis of Ann Arbor. They will honor the visitors at supper Saturday evening following the play. Others in the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Pardee, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Mosby and Mr. and Mrs. James Nyser of Detroit.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hardig of Kennesaw road, will take a party to the show, returning to her home afterwards for supper. She has issued her invitations for Saturday evening.

Girl Scouts

Patrol One entertained the other patrols with a games party on Wednesday evening at the Community House. Light refreshments were served.

A hiking trip to Springdale Park, followed by a picnic, was given by Patrol Two for the other patrols on Saturday afternoon. Miss Lillian Walton is the patrol leader, assisted by Miss Phyllis Bause and Miss Virginia Duker.

Orders for Christmas cards and wrappings are now being taken by Troop B Seven. A sale of Christmas cards with a games party will be given under the sponsorship of the Troop every Saturday afternoon, starting Nov. 5, at Sanders store on West Maple road.

Patrol names and leaders were chosen by the girls of Troop Two last week. Ann Holiday is the leader of the Shamrocks, Martha Gruber is leader of the Blue Jays, Jean Blinn the leader of the Little Pines, and Pattie Williams is the leader of the Silver Poplars.
