

Club To Operate With Sale Funds

The Saturday Club will be operated this year on funds derived largely from the book sale which the American Association of University Women sponsored for the duration of last week. Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, general chairman of this year's sale, announced that about $100 had been realized. "We are very much pleased with the results," she said. "We will send the best of the magazines and newspapers which are left over, to the hospital, and that detail will complete work for this year's sale."

Mrs. Lewis E. Daniels, chairman of the sales force, was assisted by numerous A. U. W. members, who worked under the chairman which she appointed for each day. The list of chairmen includes Mrs. Charles F. Dye, Monday; Mrs. A. J. Underwood, Tuesday; Mrs. Dumas Ewen, Wednesday; Mrs. C. Howard Donnelly, Thursday; Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, Friday, and Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, Saturday.

YOUR RUGS NEED CLEANING TOO!

Why do women who are so particular about their personal cleanliness often neglect their rugs? Rugs are the dirt-collectors of the home, and they, too, need regular cleaning! Star will make your rugs so clean that children can safely play on them—so bright that they'll cheer the whole room—so luxuriant that they'll feel springs under foot. And Star-cleaning is inexpensive, too.

Members Of Village Players Triumph As Curtain Rises On New Drama Season

By Carol Dweilley

The orange curtain at The Village Players' dramatic role-up on one of the organization's most ambitious and successful attempts, when the dramatic season opened with "Boy Meets Girl" on Friday and Saturday evenings. Veterans and newcomers rubbed shoulders in the cast, and the play, which was a account of life in Hollywood, while the audience rolled in the aisles, and "before and after" parties brought out formal attire on both evenings.

With a cast so large and with so many good performances, it is impossible to nominate any single actor as the star of the show. Honors are certainly shared. Dr. George Howell, who played J. Carlyle Benson, one-half of a nutty team of authors, with a squawking chicken and a patchy. The lightness and ease with which George Howell Fox assumed the role of Bobby Law, the other half of the team, is deceptive, unless you realize just how much care goes into the "careless" character.

D. S. "Domnie" Hasterreiter portrayed Mr. Friday, whose frozy mounted gradually until the tears of laughter he occasioned might well have been mingled with tears of pity.

Normaine (Mrs. William L.) Martin, as Susie, deserves special mention for her portrayal of the second role, which was intelligent but a bit ignorant. In this, her second role for The Players, Mrs. Martin takes her place among the established stars. There was no question in her performance of what was good or what was effective. She simply was Susie and everyone loved her, from the moment she

Young Married Set Forms Supper Club

Under the direction of members of the young married set, for whom the organization is designed, the Tuesday Supper Club is once more in full swing for the season. The group convened in its regular monthly meeting place, the parlors of St. James Church, for dinner and a program on Wednesday this week, for the convenience of some of the members.

About a hundred persons attended the affair, which was concluded with movies, under the chairmanship of this month's committee. Those serving on it are Mr. and Mrs. Elliott S. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Carrett W. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hart Strunk, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. T. Hollister Mahley. The group, which is open to non-members of the church, has but one officer, William L. Martin, treasurer.

HAY RIDE WILL MAKE DIVERSION FOR YOUNG SET

Two hay wagons will carry the members and guests of the Joyce DeMolay Chapter around the Birmingham countryside and then to a huge bon fire where the tang of freshly pressed cider along with doughnuts and roasting marshmallows will greet the riders, this Friday evening. The party will leave from the Masonic Temple at 8:15.

A few of the couples planning to attend are, Art Underwood and Ada Ward, Bill Timm and Helen Ann Biddell, Bill Bawden and Jan Savin, Roger Blackmore and Doris Jones, George Ford and Bette Elliot, Stuart Adams and Virginia Heiser, Bill Merrill and Alice LeHeimiller, Harry Sevin and Margorie Brown, Ed Wolf and Rosemary Essig, Dalton Lamb and Gloria Gruber, Merle Ryder and Phyllis Rainey, Dan Swartz and Eleanor Wiedenmann, Bill Baldwin and Elena Romy, Delbert Adams and Jeann Acktinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalbert Fear, Milton Freeman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Plumbstead, Mr. W. E. Groves and Mr. and Mrs. L. McQuater.

Max Horton, George Forester, Jr., and Bill Russo are in charge of the fire and refreshments. Bill Timm is general chairman.

Baldwin PTA Will Hold Bake Sale

Like the fairy-tale houses built of candy, the Baldwin high school Parent Teacher Association will furnish the teachers' room at the high school by means of tempting goodies. The organization is sponsoring a bake sale, to be held at Shie's on Friday, Oct. 27, starting at ten o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Walter Anderson, general chairman of the sale, will have Mrs. Lett R. Eise as vice-chairman. They will enlist the aid of numerous matrons on the sub-committee. In charge of collection will be Mrs. Donald C. Eade and Mrs. Charles D. Carr. A committee of room mothers is soliciting P. T. A. members for donations to the sale. The list includes the names of Mrs. William Spiegel, Mrs. Frank G. Kay, Mrs. C. P. Hamel, Mrs. Frank A. O'Donnell, Mrs. Harold T. Ellerby, Mrs. Lloyd S. Linton, Mrs. Lett R. Eise, Mrs. L. C. McConnell, Mrs. J. B. Williams, Mrs. Harry Breitmeier, Mrs. J. Nicholas Hadjisky and Mrs. William G. Merrill.

Matrons Plan Attractions To Tempt At Fair

Brides-elect, newlyweds and brides of 20 years ago will find much to interest them in the linen booth at the Piety B. Bazan, to be sponsored by the League of St. James Women. In anticipation of the event, which will be held on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 17 and 18, the three chairmen of the booth and their committees have been at work for a long time, to load their shelves with tempting wares.

Under the leadership of Mrs. E. G. Hatch, a number of matrons are preparing Italian accessories for luncheon and dinner tables of all sorts. Those who are participating in the work include Mrs. Harold E. Middleton, Mrs. W. Boynton, Mrs. L. G. Welch, Mrs. Matthew B. Whittlesey and Mrs. William R. Eiseck.

Mrs. Rolf C. Spinning heads the list of those working on informal linens, of the breakfast set type. Assisting her are Mrs. A. J. Hart, Mrs. H. G. Muehlman, Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mrs. Robert F. Watt, Mrs. C. C. Morchouse, Mrs. S. C. Bartlett and Mrs. Arthur Fletcher Plant.

Mrs. E. W. Lett is supervising the work on towels of every description. Her committee includes the names of Mrs. L. M. Baker, Mrs. E. E. Hammond, Mrs. Archie C. Utter, Mrs. Godfrey Streinger, Mrs. Lane Bishop, Mrs. E. T. Coombs, Mrs. Charles Buck, Mrs. Roland H. Mann, Mrs. John List, and Mrs. Donald Bay.

FALL BRIDE WILL SPEAK VOWS AT MORNING RITES

Interesting news among the fall brides-elect are the wedding plans of Miss Mavis M. Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Robertson of Webster Avenue, who will wed Henry C. Maes of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Maes of Murfreesboro, Ill., on Saturday, Oct. 29.

The ceremony will be performed at eight o'clock in the morning at the Holy Name Church, with the Rev. Father James W. Cotter officiating. Relatives and close friends of the bride and groom will witness the rites.

Mrs. Dominic N. Cavalier of Detroit, sister of the bride and groom, will be a bridesmaid.

HALLOWEEN FOLK TO VISIT OAKLAND HILLS

Oakland Hills Country Club will stage an old-fashioned Halloween party for members and their guests on Saturday, Oct. 29, as a climax to the fall program. Festivities will start out with a cabaret dinner, during which there will be a surprise floor show, keeping with the time. Afterwards, there will be music for guests and dancing, assisted by Mrs. Glenn D. Coley and Mrs. Charles F. Buttner, Mrs. H. L. Wilton and Mrs. William H. Utegraff will preside at the tea table.

This week's Club program includes co-operation with the annual Red Cross Home Safety Campaign, which is held from Oct. 24 through Oct. 29. Mrs. Warren C. Pratt, president of the Club, announced, with supernatural beings and skeletons hidden among the corn stalks and pumpkins.

Rev. Woodrooffe Will Address Club

The Birmingham Woman's Club will hold a meeting on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 1, at 2 o'clock in the Community House. The Rev. Robert W. Woodrooffe, assistant rector of Christ Church Cranbrook, will speak to the Club on "Literature in the Bible." Mrs. Harold E. Ellerby, of Ridgedale Avenue is chairman of the day. Tea will be served after the conclusion of The Rev. Woodrooffe's talk, with Mrs. Frederick A. Carey in charge, assisted by Mrs. Glenn D. Coley and Mrs. Charles F. Buttner, Mrs. H. L. Wilton and Mrs. William H. Utegraff will preside at the tea table.

DELTA GAMMA WILL INITIATE LOCAL GIRL

Miss Shirley Hersey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott A. Hersey of West Maple Avenue, will be among the pledges to Delta Gamma sorority who will be initiated Saturday in ceremonies conducted by the organization's Alton College chapter. Miss Hersey, who is now in her sophomore year at the college, is a graduate of Baldwin High School, where she was active in the affairs of the youngers.
