

Piety Hill Chapter Opens New Fall Season

NEW MEMBERS TO BE HONORED AT PROGRAM TEA

Club activities will start with a program and tea on Tuesday, Oct. 11, for members of the Piety Hill chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Harold G. Perkins will open her home on Lone Lake road for the affair. Mrs. Mark B. Harris, beginning her second term as Regent, will preside.

Speaker and honor guest will be Miss Grace B. Krum, chief of the Bureau Historical Collection at the Detroit Public Library. Miss Krum, who is also a member of the D. A. R., has chosen as her subject "Your Genealogy Papers." Having made a thorough study of the subject, she will present it in a manner especially designed for those interested in D. A. R. papers.

Following the regular business meeting, new members and guests eligible to belong to the society, will be welcomed by old members. A number of invitations have been issued. Tea will follow, with Mrs. Irwin E. Bigzett and Mrs. Walter D. Stecker presiding at the tea table.

Mrs. Harris was hostess to officers of the local chapter at a tea in her home on Hawthorne road on Tuesday, Oct. 4. Preceding the tea a discussion was held of the organizations, forthcoming plans for the fall and winter season.

P. T. A. COUNCIL ASKS SCHOOLS TO JOIN MEETING

A milestone in Parent Teacher Association work in Birmingham was passed on Thursday evening, Sept. 29, when the local council of Parent Teacher Associations met at the Community House. This is the first meeting at which all of the city's six schools participated as members.

The theme for the year, the Council announced, will be "Know Your School," with the six different organizations building their programs and activities around the general theme. Formal announcement that the week of October 2 was national P. T. A. week was also made at that meeting. The Council explained its own purposes and to furnish opportunities to cooperate with city agencies in the field of education and child welfare.

Committee chairmen in the Council who will serve during the coming year include Mrs. R. W. Turner, membership; Mrs. Roy B. McCutcheon, program; Mrs. J. R. Thomas, R. Navin, recreation; Mrs. Walter T. Elliott, hospitality; Mrs. Mahlon H. Stevens, public relations; Mrs. Arthur L. Genung, publicity; Harry Bretmeyer, radio and motion pictures; and Charles W. Duffin, finance. Their duties will be applied to most of the affairs concerning school children during the year.

Mrs. Quinn is cooperating with the plans for the annual Halloween festival for school students when the Council is providing the food. Assisting her is a representative from every P. T. A. in Birmingham.

During the program which followed the regular business meeting, a trio of members from the Parent Teacher Association of the Pierce school presented a membership play. The cast included Mrs. Francis Falmis, Mrs. Walter D. Briggs, Miss Susan Briggs, Miss Betty Couzens and her guest, Miss Martha Cotter of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Sloss Nichols and their daughters, Ann and Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bradley Higbie, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Winningham, Mr. and Mrs. Clay E. Herbst, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Siguel, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tracy, Mrs. Edward A. Skae and her daughter, Florence, who had as her guest, Miss Peggy Flinn of Grosse Pointe; the Graham John Gramms, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Thom and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Cavan of Pleasant avenue, had as their guests at the football game Saturday between University of Michigan and Michigan State, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Uhler of Pontiac.

BLOOMFIELD GARDEN UNIT CHANGES DATE

The date of the next meeting of the Bloomfield Hills unit of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association has been changed to Thursday, Oct. 13. Mrs. Betty Roberts, who will appear on the program as guest speaker, assumed the engagement at that time as an accommodation to the group, which was to have heard Mrs. Benjamin Warren of Grosse Pointe, until she was called out of town.

Mrs. Roberts will address the gathering on "Colonial Days and Old Williamsburg." Hostess for the occasion will be Mrs. Louis Kahn of 14 Mile road. A tea will follow the program.

Other plans for the activities of the Club for this season are well under way according to James Murray of the Balsam high school faculty and president of the club. The plans will make for an expanded program of events.

Other significant dates of the club calendar are Friday, Nov. 11, and February 11, at which times, nationally recognized speakers will be presented under Teachers' Club auspices.

A November date will be followed by Dr. Frank Slutz, in conjunction with American Education Week, which will extend from November six, through November twelve. The February engagement will be filled by Dr. Harry Overstreet. Club members will sell tickets to the first lecture in the near future.

Ralph D. Hammond of Niagara Falls, N. Y., was the house guest of the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Watkins of Pilegrim road.

HOLIDAY HOUSE PREPARING FOR AUTUMN MART

The grounds of Holiday House, vacation home of the Henry Ford Society, on Pine Lake, were the scene of the annual Autumn Mart, held Saturday afternoon. The affair is taking the place of the Ford garden tour.

Festivity reigned over all the estate, inside and out-of-doors. Two al fresco grills were kept busy dispensing hamburgers and coffee. On the broad, screened porches and indoors there were tables of baked goods, candy, jams, jellies and pickles, vegetables and cider. Needlework from other counties, Christmas cards and other articles were also available for sale.

In the children's house, Bird's Nest, the gift of Mrs. Henry Ford, there was a tea and fashion show. Other amusements included fortune telling and silhouette cutting.

Mrs. Joseph F. Page served as chairman of the dining room committee, with Mrs. Sidney Waldon decorating the tea table with flowers from her own gardens. Dispensing tea during the afternoon were Mrs. Ralph B. Steyer, Mrs. A. W. Sempliner, Mrs. Orla B. Taylor, Mrs. George E. Clark, Larsen, Mrs. H. E. Truman, Mrs. Herbert E. Hathaway, Mr. & Mrs. Charles H. Braitt and Mrs. Healey Green.
