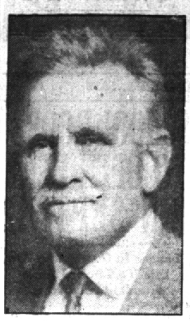
SEEKS OFFICE



James H. Lynch

James H. Lynch has announced his candidacy for the office of Probate Judge. Mr. Lynch was appointed to fill the office left vacant by the death of Probate Judge Dan A. McGaffey, who was elected for a four-year term in 1936.

In a public statement, Mr. Lynch said: "I will have served only 18 months by January 1. I am desirous of finishing the late Judge McGaffey's term, hence I am a candidate at the coming November election for the term of two years. I trust my administration of the Probate office so far meets with the approval of my fellow citizens, and I would appreciate the support of the public in November."

ROMEO PREPARES TO BE HOST AT PEACH FESTIVAL

The little village of Romeo will be host to thousands of people beginning Saturday with the formal opening of the 1938 Michigan Peach Festival, and continuing throughout Sunday and Monday. Queen Frances Leithauser of Port Huron will be presented with the key to the village in the opening ceremony and thus will be inaugurated the eighth annual Festival.

Originally conceived by Edward A. Jacob of Romeo as a rural acquaintance project with its aim that of boosting Michigan products and acquainting urban and rural communities, the Festival has grown in size each year until today it enjoys nation-wide publicity.

The three day entertainment program has been carefully planned to include features for all tastes and ages. There will be carnival rides, a horse-pulling contest, a farmer's market and 4-H Club exhibit, a street dance, free acts, and many other entertainment features. Monday's program includes three large parades—one for the children in the morning, the floral parade in the afternoon and the mummer's at evening, the latter creating a carnival spirit throughout the village.

Coronation exercises will take place at noon on Monday and the Festival will be climaxed that night with a Queen's Ball in the gymnasium of the high school.

All entertainment is free except carnival rides and the Queen's Ball. Michigan residents are cordially invited to Romeo to participate in one of Michigan's largest festivals.

POOL OPENING TO BE EVENT OF WEEK-END

"World's Greatest Exhibition Diver," and Earl Clark, also a "nationally known star."

To wind up the day's celebration, there will be dancing on the porch. Continuing the week-end program, the club announces a 36-hole Medal Handicap for Sunday, with a buffet dinner from 6 to 9 p. m.

Golf will lead off events on Labor Day, with a Medal Handicap for 4 holes, and a mixed two-ball foursome after 2 p. m. Children will be given an opportunity to enjoy the pool Monday afternoon, when the comedy team of Patterson and Clark will present a fancy diving act especially for juvenile members and guests.

Buffet Dinner

A buffet dinner at 6 p. m., and dancing from 7 to 11, will conclude the holiday festivities.

The swimming pool was designed by Cyril E. Schley, at an approximate cost of $28,000. It is free of a series of recreation units included in the club's program. Among the modern features with which the pool is equipped are underwater illumination, terrace for spectators, and an underground tunnel will afford access to water pipes for feeding and draining the pool. The dimensions of the pool will permit six lanes of competitive swimming.

BITS OF B'HAM

There are, no doubt, times when John W. Citizen and his entire family feel they would like to take a fling at managing city affairs, or so it may seem to the City Commission. But it's a man-sized job, and interruptions of civic routine only serve to make matters more complicated. That is why the Commissioners decided to defer turning over city affairs to the Hassberger Chapter of DeMolay, until a time when City Manager Egbert is less occupied with numerous projects. In a letter to the commission, the Chapter requested a DeMolay Day, similar to several years ago, when the boys took over city government for one day as a civic project.

Up to this time there have been no markers along the River Rouge to designate the extent of the city's boundary lines, the commission was informed Monday evening by City Manager Donald C. Egbert. In requesting that City property be given markers, Manager Egbert said that some residents were using a portion of land belonging to the City for garden plots, and other purposes. To forestall any future dispute as to boundary lines, he suggested the markers.

Dr. John M. Rainey has transferred his business to a new office. Dr. Rainey will find him installed in offices directly in back of his home, which is on Oakland avenue.

Mrs. Lillian Diederich, wife of John W. Diederich, 18784 Saratoga boulevard, is hoping to consider herself one of the many feminine friends of the amiable Charlie McCarthy." Mrs. Diederich wrote a poem about Charlie, which she showed to Fred H. Schader, publicity manager for the Michigan State Fair, at which Charlie and Edgar Bergen will make an appearance. According to the authoress, Mr. Schader showed the poem to Bergen, who was so pleased with it that he promised he and Charlie would read it over the radio soon.
