

Country Clubs Arrange Elaborate Entertainments For Labor Day Crowds

YOUNG GOLFERS TO END SEASON AT OPEN DANCE

The younger set has not been left out of plans for a festive holiday. The Junior District Golf Association will entertain members and their guests at a dance Friday evening, to be held at the Birmingham Golf Club. The event promises to be a gay one, with prizes for the championships which were played this week, to be awarded during the evening. Max Gail's orchestra will provide music for the affair.

WILL OPEN DANCE STUDIO

Miss Bertha Thompson has spent the summer in study with Madame Victoria Casson in St. Louis, Mo. Madame Casson was formerly an instructor for eight years at the late Madame Anna Pavlova. Miss Thompson, who is well known in this area as an instructor of the dance, will open her Birmingham studio in the early fall.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Ross of Willis street left Wednesday for Buffalo, to which they will travel by boat. They will spend the holiday weekend in Buffalo, returning next week.

Michigan League Will Film Collegiate Color Movie

Birmingham members of the University of Michigan League will have an unusual opportunity to revive college memories when they see the proposed all-Michigan movie, for which Michigan alumni are making plans. Mrs. Lee A. White, president of the League's local chapter, states that the film, which will probably be shown in Birmingham, will be a romantic of the deeds at Ann Arbor, played by students, both on and off the basketball ground. A special musical setting has been arranged, with many of the University's familiar songs sung and played by the Glee Club and Orchestra. Bethany Wilson, who has written the scenario, is one of the alumni working on the project. Dr. Katherine Chambers will act as photographer and Truman Smith as director. The movie is under the sponsorship of the Mary B. Henderson Cooperative Dormitory committee.

St. James League Sets Date Of Style Show

Mildred can stop wrinkling her pretty brow over the all-important question of what to wear, thanks to the League of St. James Women! This group announces first plans this week for its fall fashion show, to be held at the Community House on the afternoon of Tuesday, Sept. 27.

Travel Togs

A preview of the fall fur parade is offered by Hollywood's Ellen Drew, who wears a novel travel coat of brown Scotch moleskin. Note how the inserted one-skin band fastens across the bodice, secures the wide shoulder lines.

YOUNG CAMPERS WIN HONORS AT ANNUAL AFFAIRS

The annual banquet at Camp Hilleland in Holly, brought honors to a number of Birmingham's youngest set. Awards were bestowed upon the young campers for athletic prowess and improvement for outstanding character traits.

Programs For Holiday Week-End Mean Dinners, Dances and Sporting Events

A three-day period of gayety over Labor Day week-end will bid a festive farewell to summer in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. Elaborate plans to amuse members and their guests have been made at the various country clubs with dances, swimming, sailing and golf, as well as other sports, claiming a place on the program.

Oakland Hills Country Club will be one of the gayest spots in the district, with the formal dedication of the club's new pool on Saturday taking the spotlight. The dinner and dance, with the swimming and diving exhibition, will draw large numbers of members and their guests to the club on Saturday evening.

Birmingham Golf Club will introduce the Vocators for the dinner dance on Saturday evening. The band is from Chicago, making its first appearance in the Detroit area at the club. Among those who plan to attend the affair, with their groups, are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey C. Flood, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Binkie, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Folin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Flaherty, Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Gibson, Dr. and Mrs. Otto O. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Braisted, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. MacFarlane, Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Miller.

Pine Lake Sets Stag Day Date

Plans for the annual fall Stag Day at Pine Lake Country Club are almost clinching those for the holiday, at least in the minds of the club's masculine contingent. The day of Saturday, Sept. 10, is the one chosen by the men to take over the clubhouse and grounds, along with a special dinner. On Monday there will be two ball mixed games, with selective drives.

Orchard Lake Country Club might be said to have started off the week-end on Wednesday evening, when men and women sailors met at the beach house for an informal picnic supper. In charge of arrangements were Mrs. Benjamin H. Micoe, Mrs. Hugh W. Hitchcock, Mrs. Paul L. Penfield, Mrs. Arthur Griswold and W. D. Crim. The sailing championships for junior boys will start on Saturday morning at Orchard Lake and the men sailors will also participate.

ROUND TABLE TALK TO FOLLOW LUNCHEON

A luncheon and round table discussion of European affairs will be the program for the Canadian-American Affiliates of the Foreign Policy Association, to be held at the Women's Club at 12:15 p. m. today.

On Saturday evening there will be a dinner and dance at the club. The period from Saturday through Monday will see the tennis finals in mixed doubles being played off. Prizes will be awarded on Monday. Golfers will participate in a three-day, three-round medal play, with two divisions. There will be a two-day ring contest and a driving contest on Monday.

BARNUM P. T. A. ANNOUNCES DATE OF COUNTY FAIR

Members of the Parent Teacher Association of Barnum School are waiting no time in planning for an active season. The annual County Fair, always a festive occasion, will be held on Friday, Sept. 30, to inaugurate the year's activities for the Barnum Association. Mrs. Mahlon H. Stevens, current president of the organization, and Mrs. Louis F. Hock, chairman of the ways and means committee, are among the most active workers for the affair.

'Doe Day' To Be Held At Forest Lake Club

The traditional "something new and different" will be offered at Forest Lake Country Club, when feminine members meet on the morning of Wednesday, Sept. 7, for "Doe Day." The day promises to be hilarious, and full of informal entertainment. The women will start the day with a crazy golf, wearing the craziest costumes they can assemble. Guests may be invited and a picnic luncheon will be served outdoors, weather permitting. In the afternoon, the men and their guests will be permitted on the golf course.
