Barker's Spiel Is Bid To Public From PTA

(Editors' Note: Catching the informal spirit of the old-fashioned County Fair at its gayest, Mrs. Mahlon H. Stevens, president of the Barnum School Parent Teacher Association, has written the following invitation to the people of Birmingham, for the Eccentric. The P. T. A. will present its annual fair Friday afternoon and evening at the school.)

By Mrs. Mahlon H. Stevens: It's Come, It's Come! With fun for everyone, the Barnum County Fair will be held Friday, Sept. 30, from four o'clock till it is over. Entertainment for everyone, from baby sister to grandpa, will be there. Pony rides, movies, vaudeville, dancing and fortunes told. Plan to stop in at Clement's Cafeteria for supper; "genuine" home cooked vittles, like mother (don't) make 'em.

Fashion Tips

Brilliant scarfs in violent color combinations are being shown that do not contain something to look suits. These scarfs can also be used as shawls. Some of the new colors in hats are laurel and olive green—Indian green with a trace of red and a dark brown called coffee—Teal and Royal blue.

Social Briefs

Dr. and Mrs. Fraser McDonald moved last week from Aspen road to Kennesaw avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. McGregor, of Wing Lake, had as their house guests over last week-end Mrs. Louise McVilard, of Miss Jane Cantrell, of Grosse Pointe, and Faxon House of Columbus, O., formerly of Birmingham. In honor of the visitors, the McGregors entertained 12 friends at a picnic supper in their garden Saturday evening.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Winston Main (Arlow) announced the birth of a daughter, on Sept. 27, in Martin Place hospital, Detroit. YOUR RUGS NEED CLEANING TOO! Why do women who are so particular about their personal cleanliness often neglect their rugs? Rugs are the dirt-collectors of the home, and they, too, need regular cleaning! Star will make your rugs so clean that children can safely play on them—so bright that they'll cheer up the whole room—so luxurious that they'll spring under foot. And Star-cleaning is inexpensive, too. STAR CARPET CLEANING COMPANY Phone 10100

"Sheffield" OLD SHEFFIELD PLATE, as created by the master craftsmen of England, was made by rolling the silver on copper. Similar to those originals of which their makers were so proud are the beautiful reproductions which we are showing. The reproductions are the handwork of silversmiths who have a deep understanding of the art as practised in the olden days. Consequently, each article is authentic as to design and period.
