

BRIDE HONORED AT PRE-NUPTIAL ENTERTAINMENTS

A spinster dinner this evening and rehearsal dinner Friday evening will complete the list of parties honoring Miss Jane Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dean Alexander of Glenzary road. On Saturday, Sept. 10, she will become the bride of John Alexander McPherson, son of Mrs. Frances Crall Patterson of Detroit. A home ceremony, to be performed by the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, Miss Dorothy Alexander, sister of the bride-elect and her maid of honor, will be hostess to the group which will attend the spinster dinner at the Alexander home. The affair will be a novel departure from the conventional, carrying out a circus motif. The guests will wear typical circus costumes and afterwards will be called upon to present their act. Prizes will be given for the most appropriate. The table will be centered with a small tent and balloons will be used as decorations. Tiny clowns will mark the places for Miss Katherine Belknap, Miss Marjorie Kidder, Mrs. James Hirschfeld, Miss Yvonne Gay, Miss Elizabeth Wallace, Mrs. William I. Martin, Miss Mary Jane Tippet, Miss Jane and Miss Harriette Babeck and their house guest, Miss Susi Weber, and Miss Mary Quinn. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander will be hosts to the wedding party at the rehearsal dinner on Friday evening. The affair will be held at the Detroit Athletic Club. Miss Belknap joined the list of those who have entertained for the bride-elect when she was hostess at a pantry shower and picnic on Wednesday at her home on Cranbrook road. Besides the honoree the list of guests included the names of Mrs. E. Dean Alexander, Miss Dorothy Alexander, Mrs. Hirschfeld, Miss Gay, Miss Wallace, Mrs. William E. Hargreaves, Miss Catherine Wilson, Miss Frances Morley, Miss Tippet, Miss Kidder, Miss Mariana Craig, Mrs. Frank Crout and Mrs. Francis Patterson, mother of the bridegroom-elect.

BIRMINGHAM GOLF PLANS FULL PROGRAM

The feminine contingent at Birmingham Golf Club will be entertained in several different ways at the next party for women, planned for the afternoon of Friday, Sept. 16. There will be a luncheon and bridge, as well as an exciting preview of all manner of fall wearing apparel.

NUPTIALS REVEALED BY BRIDE'S PARENTS

One of late summer's weddings was revealed this week by Mr. and Mrs. George U. Jones of Humphrey street. The bridal pair are Miss Ruth Jones, their daughter, and Joseph C. Kiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kiley of 14 Mile road.

The quiet nuptials were solemnized on Saturday, August 27, the announcement stated. The young pair will make their home in Birmingham.

THAT MAID PROBLEM—when the girl who can cook, wait on the table and housekeep perfectly on a few slender dollars per, is easily solved. You can find her immediately with a small advertisement in The Eccentric. Write Ad Columns, Telephone 11, before 4 o'clock Wednesday of each week. Ad. 25-24.
