

Thrift Shop Board Issues Appeal For Assistance In Carrying On Activity

(Editor's Note: With interest in the Community House running high, as the annual drive gets under way, a correspondingly high interest is being manifested in the various agencies which function through the House. With this thought in mind, The Eccentric approached a member of the Thrift League, which manages the Thrift Shop in the Community House, and asked for a story on the work of the store.

By Barbara Traub
On a bleak Saturday morning the two young saleswomen in the Thrift Shop were huddled in their coats behind the counter, hoping that the storm across the room would soon bring warmth.

Through the Thrift Shop also, the welfare fund of the Community House is increased, because all the profits of the Shop are turned over to the general fund, to aid other welfare work.

Plan Bundle Tea
At this time of year, the Thrift Shop board is hopefully planning the spring Bundle Tea, to be held in the Community House on Tuesday evening, April 25, from four until six. Admission to the affair is possible through the donation of usable merchandise for the Thrift Shop.

Club Notes
A book review will entertain members of the Franklin Village Traders Association on Tuesday afternoon, April 18. Mrs. Hal G. Trump will open her review of the season and Mrs. E. F. Dickman will present the review.

Like Spring
DOWCLENÉ
DRY CLEANING
RENEWS LIFE
Dowcленé, our modern dry cleaning, is like a spring tonic for textiles. It refreshes every garment—restores the original lustre—and cleans fabrics without the slightest harm. Dowcленé is colorless—leaves no oily film to dirt or discolor—leaves no dry cleaning residue.

Mrs. Henry Waterpocket will be hostess at The Past Matrons Club at Birmingham at the afternoon of Tuesday, April 18. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at her home on Montross avenue, Detroit. All members are requested to attend the meeting.

The Sorptmist Club of Birmingham will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Bessie Maxwell on Henrietta street at eight o'clock this evening.

Mrs. W. F. Tiche of Knox street will give the second in a series of book reviews at the Community House at 215 on Monday afternoon, April 17. She will present brief reviews of four books: "The Peppercorn," by Pearl S. Buck; "Seasoned Timber," by Dorothy Canfield; "Reaching for the Stars," by W. A. Rinehart; and "Wickford Point," by John Marquand.

The Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs will meet on Friday at the Community House, for the regular monthly meeting, beginning at 10 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at the home of Mrs. J. M. Geopfert, Federation president, will represent the international relations hour. Speaker of the day will be Mrs. Marie E. Fackley, whose topic is "Cancer Control."

Safe Bet
There is always a tie between father and son, declares a Southern Rotarian. Probably, and it is safe to bet, that the son's wearing it.—Boston Herald.
