

MT. PLEASANT (MPA)—When State Trooper Horvath saw a pig dashing in front of cars and being chased by children and pedestrians in Clare, he stopped to give aid. The pig, however, had little respect for law, and attempts to catch him turned into a game of tag. Finally the pig gave up, not to the officer, but to a garage employee. As there are no facilities for keeping pigs at the State Police post, the problem of disposing of it was bothersome for a while, but was finally solved.

Revelation by Christian Science Theme of Lecture

"Christian Science: The Revelation of Man's God-given Dominion and Freedom" was the subject of a lecture delivered by Thomas Hurley, C. S. B. of Louisville, Ky., Friday evening in Baldwin High school auditorium. Mr. Hurley is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientist in Boston. The lecture was introduced by Mrs. Adele F. Fink. The lecture was attended by an audience of about 800 Birmingham residents.

ACCOMMODATING FIREMEN RIVER ROUGE (MPA)

Local firemen don't mind putting out another city's fire, when they only have to go across the street to do it. When there was a roof fire at the C. E. Mat residence in Ecours, someone went across the boundary line and pulled a River Rouge alarm box. Part of the street on which Mat lives is in Ecours, and part in River Rouge.

Importance of Healing. Christ Jesus understood and taught the great spiritual facts of real being. Often these were plainly stated, but at other times he taught by parables and works; and the spiritual truths which these contain as well as his direct teaching, must be discerned through spiritual sense, rather than through the human intellect. We can thank God that each individual has spiritual sense, and that therefore he is able to understand the truth which to work out his own salvation; hence all can be, with belief, saved.

Knowing God Aright. The spiritual illumination, which Mrs. Eddy sometimes threw upon the words and works of Christ Jesus and the other inspired writings of the Bible, enabled the singularly gifted revelation of the spiritual truth about God and man which they contain, and to demonstrate this in his own wonderful through overcoming sin, sickness, and other phases of mortal disquiet. The revelation of the truth of God is not only in complete accord with inspired Scripture, but is its reasonable and logical subject to proof, which establishes its correctness beyond all doubt.

Freedom God's Will for Man. The spiritual fact that it is God's will for man to be free when understood, enables one to overcome various forms of slavery to the material sense, and to be brought to false appetites for alcohol and tobacco. Slavery being the complete loss of the true human mind, the overcoming of it, however claims to enslave is of utmost importance to the true idea of freedom. When we realize that it is God's will for man to be free from false appetites for any other form of slavery, and to be refused to induce these claims on this understanding, we have the complete freedom to support ourself to his freedom.

The Truth about Man. If the material sense of man, sinning, sick, limited in every respect were true, to know this could not possibly help him. As a matter of fact, this is just what mortals have been doing for centuries, but it has not set them free and never will. Yet the Master said, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." Since the understanding of the truth about man sets us free from the claims of error, the truth must be that we are free now, that we always have been, and always shall be free, and that this sense of our selves as material and in bondage to this or that form of error is false, a mistaken conception of man which the true idea corrects.

Prayer. Prayer is the utilization of the spiritual fact that it is God's will for man to be free in the present perfection of God and His idea. man. Prayer is not only the knowledge that God knows he is also striving to be this man. It is an affair of living, not merely a matter of a method or words. If Christian Science treatment of the spiritual fact pertaining to the case is scientifically affirmed with the humble, prayerful desire to realize it, and the material evidence is denied. The moment we realize the spiritual fact that it is God's will for man to be free, we replace the false belief, and we have healing. In brief, prayer is the admitting of the true principle, whereby we know man as spiritual instead of material, as har-
