Scholarship Plan Is Announced by Local Drug Firm

Olivier Jenicke, manager of Cunningham's Drug Store in Birmingham, today announced a scholarship plan which will offer four Cunningham's employees four-year scholarships at the College of Pharmacy of Wayne University or the Detroit Institute of Technology.

The scholarships will include matriculation fees, complete tuition, laboratory fees, special course fees, books and other school expenses.

In addition to offering the winners their complete pharmacy course, Cunningham's will enable them to earn enough money for clothes and incidentals during the year by giving them employment with pay on Saturdays and Sundays for two hours a day.
