Students' Shop Entertains Guests at Tea

A tea of lovely appointments introduced The Students' Shop patrons of the arts in Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills and the surrounding area on Saturday.

Hostesses who presided at the tea table during the afternoon included Mrs. Della Adams, chairman of the art division of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs.

The tea table was lovely in white and green appointments, carrying out the scheme of the shop.

Painting sculpture, pottery, plants and flowers, as well as many interesting pieces of fabric, transformed the shop into a beautiful and formal setting.

Members of the group, their guests, and the general public are invited to attend the affair.

Players List Complete Plans on Eve Of Little Theater Convention Here

The curtain will rise on a full day's program on Sunday, April 29, when the sixth annual convocation of the State Association of Non-Professional Theatrical Companies at the Community House.

The official business session which will occupy the morning, will be concluded with a noon luncheon at the House, open to about 450 members.

The afternoon sessions will be divided into a series of round-table discussions on the various phases of amateur theatrical work.

Players will take an active part in the day's activities.

Joint hostesses at Monday's affair were Mrs. Martha Bruce and her daughter, Miss Florence Bruce.
