Pythians Entertain Mothers, Daughters

The Pythian Sisters held their annual Mother and Daughter banquet at the local Temple on Wednesday, April 19. Approximately 70 guests sat down to the beautifully appointed tables. The banquet was served by the Knights of Pythias.

Honor guests for the evening were the two eldest mothers, both of whom are charter members of the order's Birmingham branch. They were Mrs. Emma Montgomery and Mrs. Elizabeth Wendolph. In recognition of their position, both were present with corsages. Similar tribute was paid to the youngest mother present, Mrs. Adella Caputa.

Entertainment followed the social. Performers included daughters of the members, in vocal and instrumental numbers. To conclude the evening's activities Mrs. Beatrice McDonald read three appropriate poems from a collection of her original work.

Miss Emma Parks Names Attendants For Spring Rites

Miss Emma Margaret Parks of Detroit, who will join Birmingham's colony of brides on May 6, following her marriage to John Chandler Jr., has completed her wedding plans, which are announced this week.

The young couple will be united at a solemn High Mass at ten o'clock Saturday morning, May 6, at St. Matthews Church in Detroit. The Right Rev. Joseph Ellison will officiate.

Miss Parks will be given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Joseph C. Eger. Miss Mary Eger will assist her as maid of honor, and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Jack Ogden, sister of the bride-elect, and Miss Evelyn Haven. Tiny Joan Lounsbury, niece of the bride-elect, will act as flower-girl.

Gordon Greene of Birmingham will assist Mr. Chandler as best man. The list of ushers includes Jack Ogden of Huntington Woods, brother-in-law of the bride-elect; Carl Lounsbury of Detroit, brother-in-law of the bride-elect; Robert Wilson of Wyandotte and William Cloman of Highland Park.

Mr. Chandler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler of Forest avenue.

Birmingham Scots Plan Dinner Dance

The Birmingham Scots will hold their annual dinner and dance in the Masonic Temple on Friday, April 28. Dinner will be served commencing at 6:30 p. m. The affair will bring to a climax a series of card parties and social evenings which have been held throughout the evening for the pleasure of members of the organization.

Arrangements for the affair are in the hands of M. and Mrs. Harry Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Doss and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stacey. They have arranged a program which will include Scotch songs and country dances as well as the modern variety.

Mrs. R. K. White of Park drive entertained at dinner Thursday evening in her home. Guests at the affair were members of the choir of the First Methodist Church.

Women's Auxiliary Will Hold Festive Bridge Luncheon

One of the largest spring social events of the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook will be held on the afternoon of Tuesday, May 16, when the group sponsors a luncheon and bridge at the Guild Hall.

Mrs. Fred W. Sanders and Mrs. Murray S. Kice, co-chairmen of the affair, have recently appointed a committee chairman who will assist them with their plans.

Luncheon arrangements will be directed jointly by Mrs. Bruce B. Coulter and Mrs. Frederick J. Wood, assisted by the entire house committee of the Women's Auxiliary. Mrs. Max M. Gilman is chairman of the prize committee, assisted by Mrs. Ferd M. Brock.

Mrs. George Y. Reed will supervise bridge arrangements, with the aid of Mrs. Howard R. Estes, Mrs. Cornelius M. Harper is in charge of publicity.

A group of Auxiliary members will assist Mrs. Raymond R. White as chairman of ticket sales. The committee includes the names of Mrs. Alan W. Wentz, Mrs. J. Rodney Weeks, Mrs. Rawson Vail, Mrs. Rufus B. Jones, Mrs. Edwin M. Beresford and Mrs. C. Theron Vandusen.

The Soroptimist Club of Birmingham will meet for a pot-luck dinner at 6:30 this evening (Thursday). Miss Ruth Collins will open her home on Henrietta street for the event.

Birmingham Golf, Oakland Hills and Orchard Lake Reserve Early Dates

The coming of spring to the Birmingham-Bloomfield district is the signal for the reawakening of the golf and country clubs. Plans are now in the making for a variety of festive occasions, all designed to open the summer seasons at the clubs. Members will participate in the first athletic contests of the season, dinners and luncheons, dances and bridge parties, as the gay round of warm-weather entertainment begins once more.

In general, feminine members of the clubs will begin the season earlier than the men. Bridge-luncheons and fashion shows hold the limelight at present, as a forerunner of what is to come.

Pierce P. T. A. to Entertain Guests On Father's Night

The public is invited to attend the regular meeting and Father's Night program of the Pierce School Parent Teacher Association, to be held at eight o'clock this evening, at the school. Harry Clark, outgoing father vice-president; Inez McCoy, teacher vice-president; and general chairman of the meeting.

The formal opening of Birmingham Golf Club will be held on the evening of Saturday, May 13. Members will partake of a buffet dinner, followed by dancing to the music of Max Gail and his Yacht Club orchestra, featuring the songs of Shirley Brooks. All the facilities of the club will be open from that date on.

The women golfers at Birmingham will gather for their first meeting on Friday, May 12. They will play nine holes of golf preceding luncheon. On the afternoon of Friday, May 25, another treat is in store for the feminine contingent. They will meet for luncheon and a style show at 12:30, followed by an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. Arthur Elison is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. W. S. Summers is chairman of the women members at the club. Her associates include Mrs. W. A. Corey, vice-chairman; Mrs. Elison, social secretary; Mrs. G. Elison, secretary; and Mrs. G. A. Matthews, treasurer.

Oakland Hills Club

A whirl of activity will open the season for women members of Oakland Hills Country Club. Invitations have been issued for the complimentary luncheon on Friday, May 5. The affair, open to all feminine members, is designed to introduce newcomers and re-established acquaintanceships. Mrs. D. Postal, entertainment chairman and chairwoman of the golf committee, is in charge of arrangements.

The first event on the Oakland Hills calendar will be a spring luncheon and fashion parade, at 12:30 on Friday, May 12. Mrs. D. Postal is presiding over the affair, which will offer many enticing prizes as well as an entire previous of country club fashions.

The first of the popular Friday golf days set aside for the women will be held on Friday, May 12, at Oakland Hills. Luncheon will follow the game.

Orchard Lake Club

Orchard Lake Country Club has planned one of the earliest events of the season. Members are eagerly anticipating the traditional program, to be held at the Oakland Hills Club on Saturday evening, April 29. The semi-formal affair will be open only to members. No reservations are necessary.

Orchard Lake will open formally on Saturday evening, May 27. A dinner and dance will be the evening's attraction. Men will enjoy their qualifying rounds of golf for the club championship that day, and all other athletic facilities will also be open.

Club Notes

The Embury Ladies' Society of the First Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. F. E. Halstead at two o'clock this afternoon (Thursday).
