

St. James Church Guild to Sponsor Flower Festival and Children's Fair

Sam T. Lively of McMinnville, Tenn., is the house guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Collins of Henricetta street, at present.

Where's Elmer??

at MIL-PEX COFFEE SHOP

... where we "heat all" our fine food, tastefully prepared... at popular prices. Drop in for your midnight snack.

138 SO. WOODWARD—PHONE 9072

Bowery Ball is Planned as Party For Younger Set

Members of the alumni chapter of Alpha Omega will play hosts to the school and college sets at another of their most popular parties on Saturday evening, May 6, at the Village Players' theater. The affair will be called a "Bowery Ball," complete in every detail as an echo of the Steve Brodie days.

Mrs. Charles J. Shain's Class Plans Annual Reunion Breakfast and Program

Church Women to Sponsor Talk on Far East Problem

Members of the Birmingham Council of Church Women are planning a meeting of special significance for Friday evening, May 5, at eight o'clock. The International Relations Department will have charge of arrangements for this, its annual meeting, which will be held at the First Baptist Church.

The class in international relations conducted by Mrs. Charles J. Shain will hold a reunion breakfast at nine o'clock on the morning of Friday, May 5, at the Community year of association with the group, and will also bring the current season to a close.

Dr. Walter H. Judd will appear as principal speaker on the program, which will follow the breakfast. He will discuss the Far East. The annual reunion breakfast is always eagerly anticipated by members of the class. They are privileged to attend. Students and former students in the class from Ann Arbor, Detroit, Pontiac, Pleasant Ridge, Royal Oak and the Birmingham district have indicated that they would attend.

Assisting Mrs. Shain in plans for the affair is a committee composed of Mrs. Wesley C. Casson, Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. J. Nicholas Hadjiseky, Mrs. C. W. Lewis, Mrs. Sidney Gilbreath, Mrs. Raymond Reilly, Mrs. Ned Shattuck, Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, Mrs. J. R. Rouse, Mrs. Clinton E. Sears, Mrs. Edward Gay Wasey and Mrs. Francis F. McKinley.

Mrs. U. S. Ackles, General Chairman, Names Assistants

Summer will be given its traditional welcome in Birmingham at the flower festival and children's fair, which St. Elizabeth's Guild of St. James church will sponsor on Saturday, May 20, at the Parish House. Under the leadership of Mrs. U. S. Ackles, a large number of Guild members are planning the events of the day.

One of the best-loved events for members of the young set will be the children's pet parade, which will start off the program. Registrations are being taken by Mrs. Garrett W. Arnold, who announces that prizes will be awarded for the best and funniest entries. A children's hobby show will also be held, and puppets will be featured in the entertainment, which will follow.

Lone Pine Grange To Present Program

All is in readiness for the Red Cross program, which the Lone Pine Grange will sponsor at 7:45 Tuesday evening, May 2, in the West Bloomfield Township hall, on Orchard Lake road. The public is cordially invited to attend the affair, which will be followed by refreshments.

The program will include an accident prevention movie, "Why Not Live?" and another movie, "Behind the Flood Lines." "Kulturist" Service uniforms of the Red Cross, to conclude the program. Everyone who desires to, is invited to stay for the pot-luck refreshments which will follow.

Social Briefs

Mrs. James Cousens, of "Wabeek," is in Alexandria, Va., visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bryant.

Mrs. Frederick M. Hammond entertained her sewing club at luncheon, Tuesday, at her home on East Long Lake road.

Woman's Club to Hear Program at Annual May Fete

Tuesday, May 2, is the date set by the Birmingham Woman's Club for the annual meeting and May Breakfast. The event will be held at Devon Gables.

Mrs. Warren C. Pratt, outgoing president, will preside at the meeting, which will start at 10:30 a. m. The chairman of the program will be Mrs. George D. Clark, an director. Mrs. H. S. Hascall, the new president.

Breakfast will be served at 12:30, under the direction of Mrs. H. S. Hascall. Mrs. M. R. Trimmer and Mrs. Russell McBride. Those attending the breakfast will meet in the Williamson room at the most appropriate surroundings for the program, which will follow.

AS FAMOUS TODAY AS IT WAS YEARS AGO FOR Steaks-Chops and Good Food in General

YOUR FAVORITE MIXED DRINK BY "OSSAR" FROM STRIKE'S HOPBRAU B. P. (Before Prohibition) With Decanter of California Wine PRIVATE ROOMS FOR BUSINESS OR SOCIAL GROUPS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE

Lunches 40c-75c Dinners 55c-95c SUNDAY DINNER, $1

153 Michigan Ave. . . . Diagonally opp. Book Cadillac Hotel

Cheer Dan's CAFE OLD MADRID

153 Michigan Ave. . . . Diagonally opp. Book Cadillac Hotel

Here's a Ridley Value Worth CROWING About!

9 x 12 DOMESTIC RUGS CLEANED by RIDLEY

9 x 12 DOMESTIC RUGS CLEANED by RIDLEY

NOW ONLY... $2.39

REDLEY Cleaners

PHONE 380

YOUNGS SHOE STORE 167 N. Woodward

Dr. Walter H. Judd will be the speaker. His topic is "America and the Far East." Tickets may be secured at the door or from any member of the committee. In view of the educational aspects of the program, high school students will receive complimentary tickets.

Mrs. John K. Ormond, department chairman, heads the list of speakers. Others include Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Maxwell Allen, Mrs. Amos F. Gregory, Mrs. L. M. Baker and Mrs. Raymond H. Morrow.

Dr. Judd has just recently returned from ten years in China, as a medical missionary. He was part of that group of American doctors, doctors and business men who saw the approach of war, stayed at their posts during the conflict and afterwards observed its effects firsthand. In August, Dr. Judd left the Japanese-occupied territory where he had been working, to report his experiences before American audiences.

He is an experienced lecturer, having started on the Chautauqua circuit in 1920, for two years. During 1924-5 and again in 1932-3, he was a college lecturer for the student volunteer movement, between his periods of work in China.

Female members of Western Golf and Country Club will entertain the summer season with their first bride luncheon of the year, planned for the afternoon of Wednesday, May 17. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Walter Gee, Mrs. E. D. Cline, Mrs. K. H. Crumrine and Mrs. James Allen, Jr.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. John Abbott, or the club house. The affair will inaugurate women's social activities for the summer.

Mrs. F. A. Lake, of Arlington road, is at home again, after spending some time in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Wide Open Mesh On a Platform

Kedettes

Can you imagine anything cooler than this open toe model with mesh sides? It's the smartest shoe of its type we have seen and perfect for every summer occasion. We have the colors for your summer outfits. Washable in soap and water!

Division Four will gather at the home of Mrs. Seymour Adams of North Adams avenue, under the leadership of Mrs. R. H. J. Brennan. Division Five and its leader, Mrs. J. H. Hunt, will be entertained by Mrs. Clark C. Coulter of Ravine road. Mrs. Maurice E. Smith will open her home on Piedmont road to Division Five, led by Mrs. Charles F. Butters.

A J. Neerken, of Oxford road, has gone to Santa Monica, Calif., where he will reside in the future. Mrs. J. H. Hunt, and her son, John, Jr., and Richard, will remain here until after school is over the middle of June, when they will join him.

New Orleans Trip Follows Lovely Rites Uniting Jewell Jacobs and John Sager

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Sager IV are spending a fortnight in New Orleans, following their marriage Saturday evening, in St. Paul's Chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Saunders Jacobs of Lone Pine road, is the former Miss Jewell Marie Sager. Mr. Sager is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sager I of Webster avenue.

The Rev. Robert W. Woodruff officiated during the ceremony. Candle-light satin formed the bride's gown, which was fashioned along traditional lines. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns fashioned like that of the honor maid, in shades of roses. Their matching veils were confined by complementary blue ribbon bows, and shades of blue formed their colonial bouquets.

Donald A. DeVilger attended Mr. Sager as best man. Seating the guests were Thomas Reaney Jr., Henry C. Eggert and Milton Freeman.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs were hosts at a small reception in their home. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Charles Spencer of Chicago, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Herschel, Mr. R. B. Barnes and Miss Rosa Welter, all of Indianapolis.

Assistants at Sale Gather For Luncheon

The elaborate rummage sale sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook opens this morning at nine o'clock in the Guild Hall. The affair will continue through Friday, staying open until 5 p. m. on both days.

Mrs. Henry A. Manley, chairman of the stock committee, and her assistants lunched together at the church on Tuesday, to check last-minute details. At the affair, assisted by Mrs. Manley, were Mrs. E. W. Brecht, Mrs. H. Hall, Mrs. D. C. VanPelt, Mrs. William F. Mosher, Mrs. Norman Clarke, Mrs. Howard E. Estep, Mrs. W. E. Smart, Mrs. E. Y. Reed and Mrs. Benjamin H. Anhalt.

Catholic Matrons Tell First Plans For May Breakfast

The climax to the year's events on the calendar of the League of Catholic Women will be held on Monday, May 8. The date has been selected for the League's annual May Breakfast and program, and will mark the final function of the year for the organization.

The annual High Mass will be sung by the Rev. James W. Cotter to begin the activities of the morning. Afterwards, the League will adjourn to Devon Gables for breakfast.

Rev. John Gabriels of Lansing will make his annual appearance in Birmingham to be principal speaker on the program following breakfast. He will discuss his experiences in Ireland and tell his audience various facts about the country, as he observed them.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the study club for League members was held at the Community House, Monday evening. A study of the Mass was conducted by J. W. Quinn, using the outline from "Catholic Action" magazine, the official organ of the National League of Catholic Women.

Committees and chairman for the May Breakfast at Devon Gables are appointed, and will be announced in the near future.

Wedding Gifts

WHEN the Spring bride steps across the threshold of her very own home, it is the happiest moment of her life. And lending it the grace and individuality that makes it so very interesting are the numerous gifts from her dear ones. Gifts of silver, crystal and hand wrought metals in many beautiful designs, speak eloquently for many years of your thoughtfulness and good taste. Choose from scores of lovely, unusual things at—

La Belles

"Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts" 137 WEST MAPLE

STROUP'S

SPRING APPETITES ARE READY TO BE SATISFIED!

SHOE STRING POTATOES 3 cans 25c

POT ROAST OF BEEF lb. 25c

FRESH FROZEN CORN ON THE COB 4 ears 25c

HOME STYLE - No. 2, Can HUNT'S SUPREME PEACHES 4 cans $1

STROUP'S SAUSAGE MEAT . . lb. 28c

CROSE and BLICK#111 and COLLAGE INN TOMATO JUICE 4 - 52 oz. tins 95c

FRESH FROZEN SERVIS 4 BROCCOLI pkg. 22c

1 Qt. OLD ENGLISH NO-RUB WAX 1-20c PAINT REMOVER . both for 89c

FANCY SPY APPLES 4 lbs. 25c

Drink Mountain Valley Food Good Health

AS NEAR AS YOUR PHONE Stroup's Market Orders for $1.00 or More Promptly Delivered—FREE

2800 Complete Food Service

WORLD'S BEST Paint Cleaner

QUICK TRIK For All Painted Surfaces

Remove the water film of dust, grime and oil, leave there a perfectly good painted surface. Quick Trik restores original brilliance and leaves no streaks. It is a new discovery of the age! Use Quick Trik on all painted surfaces, eggshell, silk, enamel, chrome, brass, metal, furniture and woodwork. Quick Trik is safe and harmless to the hands.

QUICK TRIK SAVES WORK - MONEY - PAINT AND HANDS Buy the Large Red, White and Blue Box at Drug, Grocery, Hardware and Paint Stores