B'ham Fire Loss Is Only $51.50 for July

Although the total value of buildings and contents menaced by fire error during the menaced by fire error during the state of July amounted 12,000,00, quick response by Birmingham's firemen resulted in only $81.50 loss, according to figures, just re-leased by Fire Chief Vern W.

Griffith.

Twenty three silent alarms were responded to. Actual hours of fire-fighting and rescue work put in by the department totalled slightly less than six for the month, and the trucks travelled 30.9 miles.
