Day-Braun Troth
Is Told At Dinner

At a dinner held recently at Orchard Lake Country Club for 24 guests in honor of Miss Lucille Buke of Kansas City, who was her houseguest at the time, Miss Betty Day told of her engagement to Julian Laurence Braun, an announcement which is of much interest in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills society.

Guests at the dinner party were Dorothy Herbst and her fiancé, John Chick, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. deBeaulieu, who have just announced their marriage, Lillian Vaughan, Bud Herbst, Marian Zwolski, John Hammond, Victoria Wideman, Bill White, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Kinney.

Miss Day's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Vance H. Day of Suffolk avenue, Birmingham, and Mr. Braun is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun of Bloomfield Hills. Miss Day is the daughter of Mrs. W. L. Day of Pontiac. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Day chose for the occasion a cotton peasant gown of navy blue with a dainty white organza blouse. She was graduated from Bradford Junior College in Bradford, Mass., and Mr. Braun attended school in Canton, Wis., and graduated from the University of Detroit.

Fete Flint Girls
At Many Affairs

Two Flint girls who were camp mates of several Birmingham girls who attended Chippewa Lodge Camp on the Chippewa River during the early part of the summer are guests in town this week and are well accorded welcome by many of the young set.

Libbie Taylor is the guest of Lucille Morehouse at the Morehouse home on Maryland boulevard and at the same time Betty Jane Cameron is the houseguest of Carol Cameron of Yorkshire road.

Among the festivities which have been planned in the girls honor was the dinner at the Morehouse home Wednesday and the swimming party at Pine Lake Country Club which is scheduled for this afternoon.

Nancy Kirn has arranged for a slumber party to be held at her home on Puritan road this evening. The girls will leave Birmingham for their home in Flint on Friday.

Plan Street Dance
At Barnum Court

Mrs. Wilbur Johnstone is general chairman of the dance which will be held at the Barnum court of the Barnum school Friday evening. The P. T. A. is sponsoring these weekly dances which originated earlier in the summer under the sponsorship of the Recreation Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Watson, co-chairmen of the refreshment committee, are being assisted by Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson and Mrs. Robert Mills. Ice cream and cake will be served provided the weather is warm, but should the cold weather endure hot dogs will be served.

There will be a nominal charge to defray expenses a representative of the P. T. A. announced this week. All children, unless accompanied by parent, will be asked to leave at 9:30.

John Watson is heading the committee of boys who will assist.

Manifest Interest
In Pine Lake Golf

Although barely more than month of the season remains, women's golf is by no means on a lull. If the activities of the Pine Lake Country Club are any criteria.

A great deal of interest was manifested in the Hatch tournament, the three day meet which was held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Mr. William F. Roche of Detroit, came in first in this tournament. Second place was taken by Mr. Irene Nelson of Pontiac.

The trophy for this tournament has been donated for three years by Clarence Hatch of Detroit. Last year's winner was Mrs. R. Crawford.

Between 30 and 40 entries expected when qualifying regatta for the women's club championship get underway today. Spectatorship will feature a family night which will follow day's play.
