NON-PARTISAN STATE NEWS LETTER

COPPER HARBOR, Mich.—Thousands of residents of the Wolverine state may scoff at the statement, proof indeed that this strange, vast region of the Upper Peninsula is still the "great unknown."

Here is a country of mechanized mines and many idle workers. It is a land covered 50 to 100 years ago by virgin pine forests, now being gradually restored by federal and state agencies. It contains the cream of Michigan's natural scenery. Its people are generous and hospitable. They welcome the ranges of hills, you arrive at Eagle Harbor on Lake Superior and ascend the Brockway mountain drive.

Devoid of billboards, bird dog stunts and gasped stations, the drive sweeps around and over the Keweenaw mountains, giving you a fine view of the Lake Superior on one side and a rocky, forested shore line of the Lake Superior on the other.

When the atmosphere is clear, you can see Lake Superior, 50 miles away.

A sleepy fishing village, Copper Harbor, comes into sight, and adding it is the million-dollar Keweenaw Park, built by the WPA in the depression days when most of the county inhabitants were on relief. Instead of keeping the jobs men miners on a dole, the government put them to work creating a model tourist park from amid a wilderness. A clubhouse, cabins and a nine-hole golf course were constructed and then handed over to the county highway department to maintain.

Harold Westcott, aviator and proprietor of the Pontiac Resort at Copper Harbor, told us that more than 70 cabins are now available for tourists. This region is especially lovely in the Fall between Sept. 15 and Oct. 1 when frosts turn the forest foliage into riotous gay hues of reds and yellows.

Lake of the Clouds

Within an easy drive from Houghton is Ontonagon at the edge of the Ottawa National Forest and adjacent to the Porcupine mountains.

Ontonagon is enjoying a belated boom. Seven miles of streets are being paved. Many new homes have been built this season.

The state highway department is constructing several new bridges, the upper parts consisting of logs, on the Porcupine drive which skirts Lake Superior, and the lower parts of concrete. The road is being paved as far west as the Lake of the Clouds. There the road turns north and follows the shore of the lake through virgin white pine tracts to the vicinity of Ironwood with connecting roads to Duluth.

Guided by Claude Riley, publisher of the Ontonagon Herald, we climbed "Porky," abetted by a firm staff, and viewed the Lake of the Clouds. This body of water is rolling mountains.

"This region has great tourist possibilities," enthused Riley. "But the average tourist doesn't know what to look for. We need rustic signs to guide the traveler over trails. We must acquaint the visitor with our historical lore as well as our scenic here. The N.Y.A. is starting a sign project here, and James Jamison, former deputy auditor general, is supplying the working for them."

Lake of the Clouds was formerly known as "Caribou Lake" in violation for Escarpment lake, so named because of a high stone wall between the lake and the hikers obtain a rare vista of distant mountains.

BITS OF B'HAM

Miss Carrie L. Stoddard, secretary of the Birmingham Police Department, returned here last week after her annual two weeks' vacation, part of which she spent in Toronto, and with her parents in Fenton. "Toronto is a great and interesting city," said Miss Stoddard, "and with the people there are less restless than most of us in the United States."

Thomas H. Cobb, local insurance agent, has been awarded the 25-year-service certificate by the American Surety Co. of New York. It was November 21, 1913, when the 16b first associated himself with that company.

NOTICE TO ALL LOCAL CHILDREN: Birmingham's public schools will open Monday, September 11. So get in as much fun as you can in the remaining days which are left for carefree playing.

Robert F. Watt, vice-president and manager of the Birmingham office of Max Broock, Inc., has returned to Birmingham after spending several weeks in New York City.

A Guernsey cow owned by John Endicott, of Bloomfield Hills, has just completed a year's record by giving 14,752.7 pounds of milk, and 768.2 pounds of butter fat. This makes her queen of all year-old Guernsey cows in class BH. This column has no other information about the cow.

Young Set Kept In Social Whirl

A succession of guests have made the summer days a whirl of party for the city's younger set. Miss June B. Hestler, of Albany road, has had two guests and in their honor she gave a bridge-union Tuesday at the Orchard Lake Country club. The visitors were Miss Ellen Parker, who left Wednesday for her home, and Miss Jessica Gay, who is remaining for a couple of weeks.

Invited to meet the Kentucky girls were Miss Madeline Fessenden, Miss Dorothy Frusening, Miss Molly Carney, Miss Mary Anne Neff, Miss Mignon Conway, Miss Estelle McQuay and her guest, Miss Marion Gilbert of Jackson, and Miss Evelyn Stephenson.

Miss Anderson is entertaining today at a breakfast for Miss Gay's pleasure and Miss Pease will honor her on Friday, with a luncheon.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman, of East Long Lake road, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Worden, of West Long Lake road, spent the week-end in Ludington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, of "Valhalla," Bloomfield Hills, and his sister, Mrs. Irwin H. Neff, of Linden road, are expected home at the end of next week, from a flying trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. McCarty and their children, Nancy and Billy, of Puritan road, returned Monday from Oakwood Inn, Oakwood, Canada, where they spent six weeks.

Miss Margaret Walsh is leaving today for her home in Evanston, Ill., following a 10-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Clark, of North Adams road. The Clark's daughter, Miss Hildagard Clark, is going to Kalamazoo today, to spend a few days with her cousin, Miss Sara Woolley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Houghton, of Birmingham boulevard, will leave Friday for Tampa, Fla., where she will be the guest for two weeks of her mother, Mrs. M. Frantz, and her sister, Mrs. Roy Luckie.

Perry A. Vaughan, Bloomfield Township supervisor: "This week has been unusually quiet. We haven't had so much as one small grass fire."

William J. Lambert Enters Rensselaer

William J. Lambert, Jr., of Birmingham, is one of approximately 400 new students accepted by Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., for entrance next month.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lambert, 1220 Buck

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Rev. Joseph O. Nelson, pastor of the First Baptist Church: "On our trip to the East this summer, Mrs. Nelson and myself had quite a time trying to keep from getting lost in Boston. We did not hire a guide in this old city, but I feel that we would have saved both time and money if we had done so. We made our vacation more or less of a historical journey, and with its completion I made a trip I have always wanted to make."
