Orchard Lake Regatta Winner During Week-End

Orchard Lake skippers, who have gained considerable reputation in these parts, increased their laurels by defeating the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, international champions, at the annual regatta between the two clubs, held this year at Toronto over last week-end.

The Orchard Lake team, who won the second race consisted of Clem Page, Hewitt Noble, Bud Adams, E. W. Averill and Herbert B. Gardner.

The Royal Canadian Yacht Club boasts a strong sailing team and although Orchard Lake has won for the last two years the Toronto club was a consistent winner before that time. The annual regatta was instituted in 1931.

Thomas H. Wilsons Plan Swimming Party Sunday to Compliment Sylvia Callender

Parties honoring Miss Sylvia Callender, daughter of Judge Sherman D. Callender of Detroit, continue to be of great interest to the post-debutante set in Birmingham. ## All Day Session Is Planned For Flower Lovers

A show expected to attract a great deal of attention in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills is the school for flower exhibitors which will be held on Tuesday at Pontiac.

The event, which is being sponsored by the Michigan Horticultural society and the extension division of Michigan State College, will be an all day session to be held at the Y. M. C. A. building on Mt. Clemens street in Pontiac.

Mrs. Aaron H. Webster, president of the Birmingham unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden club, said this week that many members of the local organization are expected to attend the show.

The morning session will open at 9:30 with a discussion and lecture by Paul E. Krone, executive secretary of the Michigan Horticultural society. Mr. Krone will discuss "Staging a Flower Show."

Following luncheon Mrs. Myron Zucker of Royal Oak will talk to the group on "The Basis of What Flowers Are Judged."

At 2 o'clock Mrs. Fred Linscheid, also of Royal Oak, will discuss "Interpreting the Schedule of Classes," and Clarence Faunce of Fowler will speak on "Selecting and Staging the Flower Show in Specimen Bloom Classes," at 2:30. The Arrangements for the Flower Show and the Home" to be held at 3 o'clock will be led by Mrs. Zucker and Mr. Krone.

Those planning on attending have been asked to bring a box lunch. Tea and coffee will be furnished.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vinton, of Linden road, plan to leave next week for their lodge at Bute Lake in Canada, where they will spend two weeks. Mrs. Vinton's mother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Reed Alexander, of Fairfax road, will leave about the same time for Montauk, N. J., where they will visit relatives, going later to Rideau Lake.

These planning on attending have been asked to bring a box lunch. Tea and coffee will be furnished.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Murray of Essex avenue, recent guests of Mrs. Frank Evans in Colvidar.

Miss Margaret Sander of Bloomfield Hills will leave Friday for Yosemite Valley, Los Angeles, San Francisco and a cruise to the Hawaiian Islands. Miss Sander will be accompanied on this trip by Miss Beatrice Beams of New York.
