Tennis Matches Attract Interest At Orchard Lake

Nearly 100 entries are expected for the annual tennis tournament being held this month at Orchard Lake Country Club. Matches for the club championship will begin during the latter part of this week and the first round of play must be finished before Aug. 13 club officials have announced.

A great deal of interest is being manifested by club members in the outcome of this tournament which is of considerable importance in the club tennis circles. Finals will be conducted during the weekend of Labor Day.

Julian Fry, winner of the men's singles last season, is entered again this year as is Jeanne McKinney, the women's singles champion. Gardner Stanton and Fredrick Fox were doubles champions last year and Mr. and Mrs. Fry were champions in the mixed doubles division. Weston Meyer won the junior singles last year and the boys champion is Jack McElroy.

Doris Franklin Hostess At Luncheon This Week

A luncheon Tuesday at which Miss Doris Franklin was hostess in her home on Woodhrope lane was the latest way of honoring several of the younger set who will depart for colleges in the fall.

Small paper menus served as place cards bore the names of the following guests: Marion Kirk, Shirley Smith, Patricia Williams, Ennie Giffels, Faye Anderson and her house guests Margaret Foster, the Percot, Shelly, Dugan, Nancy Walker and Sue Sharp.

Leading National Golfers to Compete For Championship Title on Local Course

Arriving at Oakland Hills Country Club late Wednesday afternoon members of the Women's Western Golf association set about completing final arrangements for the 10th closed championship tournament which is being held at the club in Bloomfield Hills next week, Monday through Saturday.

Members of the committee, arriving from Chicago were Mrs. Melvin Jones, president of the association; Mrs. C. B. Willard, first vice president; Mrs. F. A. Bunte, second vice president; Mrs. E. D. Lescroart, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Denney, recording secretary; Mrs. W. W. Kimball, treasurer; Mrs. Philip G. Long, handicapper; Mrs. J. E. Neff, rules chairman; and Mrs. Don Hamilton, member of the advisory board.

Mrs. Charles H. Booth of Detroit, who is third vice president of the association, is general chairman of the tournament to be held at the Oakland Hills course.

In addition to the large list of national figures in women's golf circles throughout the country, several women interesting locally have been entered in the tourney. Those who will play the course for the championship are Mrs. Donald Weiss who won the Michigan championship at Meadowbrook Country Club last month; Miss Jean Kyer, former district champion; and Miss Margaret Russell who is the present district champion.

Hope Scrimous, medal champion by virtue of winning the district title for the past four years, is also scheduled to enter the tournament.

Among the national figures who will enter the play are Miss Buchanan of the Lakewood Country Club, Denver, Colo.; Shirley Ann Johnson of the Sunset Golf Country Club, Glencoe, Ill.; Beatrice Barrett, once champion of the Women's Western Golf association, coming here from Broadmoor Golf Club, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Jeanne Cline, 1935 old

Miss Jane Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Foster of Royal Oak has set Aug. 24 as the date of her wedding to Robert Thomas Elder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elder of Williams Lake and Fernald.

Miss Foster has been employed at Shain's Drug Store for the past two years. The bride-elect has chosen to wear her grandmother's wedding gown. The dress, which is 55 years old, is designed in heavy ivory satin.

The couple will be attended by Rosalie Nathan of Lansing and Wilbur Horie, Fernald, in ceremony will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents. The couple expect to reside in Birmingham.

Former Local Girl To Become Bride In Ann Arbor Rites

Miss Rita Mary Wellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Wellman, will become the bride of Glen William Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Phelps of Oakville, Ont., Saturday, in the Ethel Fountain Hussey room of the Michigan League, Ann Arbor.

The Wellmans, now living in Ann Arbor, are former residents of Birmingham where Miss Wellman attended Baldwin High School. She graduated from the University of Michigan in 1937 and received her M. S. degree in 1938. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Mr. Phelps is a graduate of the engineering school at the university.

Miss Betty Phelps, of Oakville, sister of the bridegroom, will be maid of honor and only attendant of Miss Wellman. George Wellman, brother of the bride, will be best man for Mr. Phelps. Ushers will be Frederick M. Johnson of Detroit and Curtis Johnson of Muskegon.

The bride will wear white orcamy with puffed sleeves, square neckline and bouffant skirt. Her veil will be tulle falling from a halo of starched lace. Miss Phelps will wear a dress of pink net with lace inserts, also pink. Her hat will be of mimosa with a visor and ribbons of turquoise velvet will fall to her waist in back.

After the wedding, to which about 150 guests have been invited there will be a reception in the garden of the League.

Assisting at the reception will be Mrs. J. J. Roura and Mrs. L. E. Quinn of Birmingham, Miss Debra Skinner of Detroit, Miss Helen Nutting of Northfield, Minn., Mrs. A. T. Hugg of Pleasant Ridge.

Catherine Wilson To Be Spring Bride

About 75 guests were present to receive the news of the coming marriage of Catherine Ten Eyck Wilson to James Radenbough Packard made Saturday evening at a steak roast and barbecue which served to open the new recreation room constructed in a part of the family garage. Photographic slides, flashed on the screen during the evening, announced the couple's engagement and set next Spring as the time for the wedding.

Miss Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Rockwood W. Bullard of Manor road, and Park Fellows Wilson of Wheeling, W. Va., is a graduate of Kingswood School in 1935 and attended Sarah Lawrence and Connecticut College for Women.

Mr. Packard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Packard of Cranbrook in 1935 and attended College in Amherst, Mass. He was affiliated with Alpha Delta Phi. Among the out of town guests attending the announcement party were Mrs. Bullard's sister, Miss Helen Sutherland of Cleveland, O.; Samuel Sagerdorph of Philadelphia and Victor Pattengill of Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Brown, of Cranbrook road, with their daughter, Hilda, and their son, Bill, returned Sunday from Glen Lake, where they occupied a cottage for 10 days.

Vernors Entertain At Breakfast Party At Lodge At Lapeer

One of the largest affairs of the summer and one which was of particular interest to members of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills society was the breakfast Sunday morning at which Mr. and Mrs. James Vernor, Jr. entertained at their country estate, Eagle's Nook, near Lapeer.

The breakfast to which nearly 350 were invited was in honor of the Vernor's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Vernor III. Mr. and Mrs. Vernor and the honor guests received before the luncheon breakfast in the great hall of the lodge which had been decorated with disposals of wild flowers from the farm.

For the occasion Mrs. Vernor, Jr. chose a frock of white printed dimity and Mrs. Vernor III was gowned in a tailored dress of white jersey.

The center of much activity and the focal point of the morning's activities was the silver punch bowl which bore what the group referred to as the Fountain of Youth which bubbled the refreshments in the most approved manner.

Assisting Mrs. Vernor about the lodge and spacious lawn were Miss Helen Keller, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Andrew Lormier of Detroit, and Mrs. T. Y. Leonard and her daughter, Miss Alice Davis of Grosse Pointe.

Gordon Lefebvre, Jr., To Wed Saturday

Of considerable interest in Birmingham is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Anne Beryl Finch-Noyes, of Oakville, Ont., and Gordon Lefebvre, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lefebvre, also of Oakville. The Lefebvres formerly resided in Birmingham and have many friends here.

The wedding is set for Saturday, Prescott Little, of Birmingham, will serve as one of Mr. Lefebvre's ushers. Others from here who will attend include Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. F. John and Joseph F. Little.

Mr. Lefebvre will take his bride to Kenmore, N. Y., to live after the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Ewald, of Yarmouth road, with Rhea and Bill Ewald, returned Monday from their summer home at Torch Lake. They will return to the lake Aug. 14 to pass the balance of the season.
