Fruits and Cool-Looking Salads Urged As Frequent Dishes for Sultry Days

When the hot August days come upon us it is a relief to have a meal that requires the minimum of preparation on the part of the housekeeper. Treat the family frequently to fruits for the first course, a salad that looks and makes them feel cool. Use plenty of vegetables, simply cooked but well seasoned. Use these menus and if liked, put them away for future use.

Summer Borsch
3 large beets, 2 cooked, 1 raw.
1 quart meat stock.
Juice of 1 lemon.
1 teaspoon sugar.
1 cup cream.
Peel and grate the 2 cooked beets, add to the stocks with lemon juice and sugar. Simmer 5 minutes. Meanwhile grate the raw beet, add to first mixture and strain through cheese cloth, pressing to extract all meat juice. Scald and add cream, chill and when serving top each portion with a teaspoon of whipped cream, sweet or sour.

Broiled Chicken
Broilers, cleaned and split. Rinse the broilers first in cold water, then in hot water and then in cold again. Then, using 2 tablespoons of butter for each broiler, grease the skin side thoroughly. Then place 1 tablespoon of butter or margarine on a broiler rack in the broiler range the broilers skin-side down on a broiled rack in the broiler, which has been preheated 10 minutes. Broil under a very low broiler heat for 20 to 25 minutes on until practically done. Turn and broil 5 minutes on the skin side or until golden brown.

Spiced Tongue
1 smoked beef tongue, 3 1/2 lbs.
1/4 teaspoon salt.
1/2 cup vinegar.
3 tablespoons sugar.
3 bay leaves broken in pieces.
18 whole cloves.
1 large onion peeled and sliced.
1 tablespoon lemon or orange rind in pieces.
Wash the beef tongue well. Arrange in a deep covered kettle or Dutch oven, cover with cold water, bring to a boil, and then pour of the water. Next add enough cold water to come about two-thirds of the way up around the tongue. Add the other ingredients, cover and simmer about 3 hours. Cool in the liquid, remove skin and root from the tongue. Chill and serve sliced thin.

Vegetable Salad Plate
6 medium tomatoes.
1 1/2 cups flaked salmon.
1/2 cup diced celery.
1 tablespoon minced green pepper.
1 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice.
1 tablespoon French dressing.
2 tablespoons mayonnaise.
6 cooked stalks broccoli.
1 cucumber.
6 deviled eggs.
Stuffed olive, sliced.
Cut a slice from the stem and of the tomatoes, then scoop out to form cups. Sprinkle with salt, invert on a plate and chill. Make salmon salad by combining salmon, 1 cup of chopped tomato pulp, diced celery, green peppers, lemon juice, French dressing and mayonnaise. Chill. Pour some French dressing over the cooked broccoli and chill. Slice the cucumber, lengthwise, with the peeling on and chill in ice water. Just before serving time, fill the tomato cups with the salmon salad. Then arrange a stack of broccoli on one side of each dinner plate. Place a tomato cup on lettuce beside it. Close by arrange 3 or 4 of the cucumber slices and a deviled egg, garnish with the stuffed olive slices and place on lettuce.

Baked Whole Peaches
6 ripe peaches.
6 tablespoons sugar.
Boiling water.
Cream.
Wash the peaches, rub all the fuzz off but do not peel. Arrange in shallow baking dish. Pour the sugar and enough boiling water to cover the bottom of the dish. Bake in an oven 400 degrees until tender, when pierced with a fork. Baste the peaches frequently with the syrup in the pan. Serve hot or cold with cream.

Frozen Apple Sauce
Add 4 tablespoons of sugar to 2 cups unsweetened apple sauce, then add 1/2 cup of orange marmalade. Fold in 1/2 cup of cream, whipped stiff. Freeze.

She: "Lots and lots of water, so that I don't have to skimp? Enough for shampoos and rinsing hair? And no waiting for water to heat? It's too good to be true!"

We: "Just the same, it's a fact. An automatic electric water heater brings you the finest hot water service you can buy. You'll wonder how you ever did without it."
