

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Arnold W. Berard, director of the Summer Recreation Band and head of instrumental music in the Birmingham Public Schools: "I prefer the clarinet above all other instruments primarily because this instrument combines three tone colors. Each of the registers has a different tonal quality."

Oh, Sure!

"When a woman reaches middle age she should be her age and not try to dress and act like a girl of sixteen," snapped her husband. "But it's all right for her to wear kid gloves, isn't it, darling," she smiled sweetly.

What Your City Commission Is Doing—

July 31, 1939

Bills were approved in the amount of $13,988.75, including a payment of $4,629.68, final payment for six voting machines purchased in 1936. Request was paid in full of this date, thereby saving interest in amount of $207.07.

A request for sidewalk on Henrietta was referred to the manager.

Residents on Edison Avenue requested that the name of such street be changed to Willow Lane. The request was granted upon payment by the residents of $20.00 to cover miscellaneous expense in connection with such change.

The manager and clerk were authorized to enter into an agreement with the Automatic Voting Machine Company for the purchase of two additional machines, making a total of eight machines now owned by the city.

The manager was authorized to remove a small tree in front of the new post office driveway.

A request for permission to operate a tea room on Baldwin Avenue, a violation of the Zoning Ordinance was received without action being taken.

Irene E. Hanley,
City Clerk.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Myron E. (Shorty) Snyder,
of 211 Madison avenue: "I think that Birmingham's billboard ordinance is a fine piece of constructive local legislation. If the Commission can enforce its terms, Birmingham will take on a better appearance in many areas. The better this community looks, the better for the people in it, people travelling through the town that is littered with billboards do not get a favorable impression of it."

Even master's bed is open to "Barnegat Pete," brought up in Barnegat, N. J., home of Raymond Beckett, who rescued deer from forest fire years ago. Here Pete and family cat get ready for regular, mutual noonday nap. Deer has been virtually adopted by entire town.

Scholarship Award To Carol Dweley

From a list of 32 contestants from all over the nation for a year's scholarship in the Tobecorn School for Fashion Careers, located in New York City, Miss Carol M. Dweley, who resigned from her position on the editorial staff of The Eccentric, was the one selected last week. Miss Dweley, who had been on The Eccentric for two years, is now at the family summer cottage in Maine, and will enter upon her training September 15.

The Tobecorn School is recognized as the outstanding institution of its kind in the United States. Students are given opportunities to gain detailed instruction and practice in every phase of modern merchandising, from buying right through sales promotion, including every channel of writing and art work.

After a written examination, Miss Dweley was asked to come to New York for a personal interview. It was then that the award was granted her. She is well known in Birmingham and vicinity, and her many friends are happy over her advent into larger field of activity. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dweley, of 148 Elgin road.

Flash! The results of Birmingham's participation in The Camporee have arrived.

Joseph A. Meier, Minister, received the Standard Camper award, but the flaming Arrow patrol, which was the subject of the B-S Falcon patrol in number of points scored. Now in theory there was no competition between the two patrols, but in fact the keenest rivalry existed. Out of a possible 1200 points, B-S scored 1004, and B-S 346. This was especially good for B-S because none of the scouts in its patrol had ever been to a Camporee before, although the Falcon patrol had attended last year. The patrols were marked on neatness, initiative, campfire, cooking, arrival, and leaving, etc.

There is a new honor society in town for Scouts and Scouters. The name thereof being the Seaweed Club, more formally the Sacred Society of Seaweed Snatchers. Its membership is composed of those daring souls who can dive off the raft at Camp George and bring up seaweed with them. Depth at which Seaweed may be found is estimated at between 5 and 200 feet, (the former being the closest, in the opinion of Years Trust). At present the Society includes only four members, but anybody may qualify for membership by bringing up seaweed in the presence of any duly authorized member. Members to date are Glenn Watson, Glenn Roark, Paul Westerly and Jack Dunn.

That party they told you about last week that the Sea Scouts were having at Camp George turned into some things. It was the first thing of its kind ever held in Birmingham, and it turned out so well that the Sea Scouts are determined to have another one as soon as possible. Skipper Stanley and Mate Courtwright both brought their wives and almost all the Scouts came with escorts; in fact, the only stage there were Mate Ernie Pettypiece and Yeoman Paul Westerly. Only the thirteen Scout Law (A Scout is hungry) enabled the boys and girls to dispose of the super abundant provisions. One of the hardest things to get down was a concoction of their own called female rickety. This is composed of equal parts of lemonade, ginger ale, and lime rickety, and is not advised for weak stomachs. A big victory when Mr. Courtwright, the Mate, won the litterbug contest hands down. He had some real litterbugs to compete with, too.

A round dozen of Scouts and Sea Scouts turned out to act as ushers at the Federal Band Concert last Tuesday and proved amply sufficient to handle the crowd and distribute the programs, and so forth. Afterwards several of them put up the chairs before going home.
