

Breads That are Different Try These Given By Famous Cook

you crave breads that are different, try the recipes in this column. They have been given by famous cooks who have their own recipes from many years. They are easy to prepare and the results are always good.

Cream Rolls
1 cup thin cream
1 egg
1 cup butter or other shortening
1 egg yolk
1 cup sugar
1 cup blanched almonds, chopped

Beat cream and cool until lukewarm. Add cream and mix with a cooled cream. Beat the egg yolk one at a time, beating after each addition. Add the cream mixture to the creamed egg yolk. Beat thoroughly. Chill dough overnight in refrigerator. Mix sugar and egg and sprinkle the mixture on the baking sheet. Divide the dough in half, roll out each on the sugar and nut mixture. Roll the dough into a rope, about 1 hour. Bake in oven 350 degrees for 25 minutes until delicately browned.

Fig Luncheon Muffins
1 cup dried figs
1 tablespoon butter
1 egg
1 cup sugar
1 cup molasses

NO WROTE IS
Baby's Birthday Party

1 cup water
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ginger
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups bread crumbs

Boil figs 10 minutes. Drain, chop the stems and chop. Cream butter and sugar, add beaten egg, molasses and water. Add the flour sifted with the baking powder, soda, salt, ginger and cinnamon. Add the figs and beat well. Stir in bread crumbs. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

Tea Cake
2 cups milk
6 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons sugar
1 cup melted shortening
1/2 yeast cake
2 tablespoons lukewarm water
1 egg

Scald milk, cool to lukewarm. Sift flour, salt and sugar. Add the melted shortening to lukewarm milk. Add yeast cake which has been softened in lukewarm water. Add beaten egg. Combine liquid ingredients with flour mixture. Knead lightly on floured board. Press into 3 greased 8-inch layer cake pans. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake in an oven 400 degrees for 30 minutes. Cool, split each layer in half, toast and butter generously. Stack in 2 or 3 layers and cut in pie-shaped pieces. Serve warm with honey, jam or marmalade, and with coffee or tea for dessert.

Party Twists
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter
1 yeast cake
1 cup lukewarm milk
1 tablespoon sugar
1 egg yolk, beaten
1/2 cup chopped pecans and granulated sugar

Combine flour and salt; cut in the butter as in making pastry; working it in a little more thoroughly. Crumble the yeast, blend with the lukewarm milk and sugar until the mixture is smooth. Combine with flour and mix well. Let stand in a warm place for 5 to 10 minutes. Add egg yolk one at a time, mixing well after each addition. Cover dough and let rise in a warm place until it is light and spongy about 1 1/2 hours. The dough will be very soft. Turn out on a lightly floured board. Do not knead the dough. Divide into 18 equal portions. Mix equal amounts of sugar, chopped nuts and a waisted slip. Roll pieces of dough between palms of hands into fingerlike lengths. Holding dough at both ends, twist in opposite directions to form a spiral shape. Place on a greased baking sheet. Brush with a glaze made by cooking 1 teaspoon cornstarch with 1-1/2 cup water. Sprinkle on nuts and sugar. Let the rolls stand about 10 minutes. Bake in an oven 400 degrees for 15 minutes. The rolls are at their best soon after baking.

Fashion Tips
Jackets seem to be of three different lengths; those that come just below the hip-line, those that come to the waistline, and the bolero that touches the top of the belt.

Woolens are soft and pliable for suits as well as for frocks and lead themselves to a variety of novel treatments.

Ensembles of mated checks and plaids are good.

Corsets are definitely in and the smart woman, whether thin or plump, will not be without a foundation garment this season.

Many of the coats are flared at the bottom, but redingotes are in favor for dressy occasions.

A fabric which is used for some ensembles is a hairy beaver cloth, quite silken. It is very soft and falls in folds very much as velvet does.

Deep crowned felts are worn with the new suits and snoods as popular as ever.

Film Folk

Marlene Dietrich has been engaged to play the lead opposite James Stewart in "Destiny Rider Again." Mischa Auer will have a supporting role in the same picture.

"Pocahontas" will probably be filmed in technicolor next summer with Hedy Lamarr playing opposite Clark Gable or Spencer Tracy. Herbert Marshall has withdrawn from the play, "Ladies and Gentlemen," which Helen Hayes is playing in a stage musical.

Jane Bryan has replaced the European actress, Dolly Haas, as feminine lead opposite Paul Muni in "We Are Not Alone." A minor nervous collapse was given as the reason of Miss Haas' withdrawal.

A first novel by Augusta Tucker entitled "Miss Susie Singles," has been purchased by Paramount for $20,000.

Lillian Gish was offered the part of the mother in "Swing Lady Robinson," but refused it. Kay Francis may portray the role.

Bob Hope is reported to have received a round trip ticket to Hollywood and a check for $25,000 from his radio sponsors.
