

Crippled Children At Rotary Fete

Twenty-nine crippled children from lowest Oakland County were honor guests Sunday at the annual crippled children's party which the Birmingham Rotary club holds each year. The party this year was held Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock in the Community House.

D. S. Hastreiter, who acted in the capacity of Santa Claus, distributed gifts to the children following the turkey dinner. Christmas carols were sung during the afternoon and Thomas Hadley, of Pleasant Ridge, showed moving pictures.

Charles J. Shain was in charge of food arrangements for this annual party. Others who made arrangements for the affair were George W. Mullin, George E. Martin, J. H. Hoston, Ray Cook and George B. Boutwell.

The next meeting of the Rotary club will be held Jan. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Jeffers, of Morningview drive, will honor their son, Jim, who is home from Culver Military academy for the holidays on Friday evening with a dinner-dance at the Oakland Hills Country club. Thirty members of the young school set will attend. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffers will have their own dinner party to the club the same evening, their guests to be Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Whitney of Mendon, and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Chittenden.

Joseph Hinshaw, Jr., is coming from New York City to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw, of Pon Valley.

Irene E. Hanley, Mable Cook and Lucille Facer, all employees of the city, have returned to Birmingham from a two week vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Mary Elizabeth Staley is expected Saturday from Washington, D. C., where she has been visiting the Raymond H. Klinears. Also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allen Staley at their home at 7111 Abbey road during the Christmas season will be Mrs. B. K. Vandam of Indianapolis and the Klinears of Washington.

Judicial Wisdom
The defendant was being sued because his goat had eaten up the plaintiff's garden. The goat was in court and little attention was paid to him while witnesses were being sworn.

When the first witness was sworn they looked in vain for the Bible.

"Your honor," said the prosecuting attorney, "that goat has eaten the plaintiff's Bible."

"Well," grumbled the court, "make the witness kiss the goat. The goat can't tell you court to get a new Bible."

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson have issued invitations to their annual Christmas party at "Longmeadow" on Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Winnings will have their annual Christmas party at their home at Fort Lauderdale on Christmas Day.

May this Holiday bring you the utmost of joy and may the New Year bring with it success as reward for your every effort. You have been very considerate of this institution and have made possible our continued growth. For your kindness we wish to express our appreciation and to pledge anew our policy of even greater service to the community which we serve.

and Happy New Year!

Plastic Women's Wear Is Made of Glass, Wood, Coal

Milday may soon be buying her gowns and sportswear at the grocery shop or the hardware store if present trends in plastic fashions continue. Evening gown of shimmering fiber glass, left, is still in the experimental stage. More complete is the latest silk suit and hat made of wood shavings, center. Bathing suit, right, is also made of glass, a combination of salt, coal and air, all stirred up into a safety glass mixture.
