QUARTON SHOW INSPIRES MANY UNIQUE HOBBIES

Automobile emblems piled from rusty Model "T's" and many more relics from automobile history will form one of the most unique collections at the Hobby Show which the Quarton School Parent Teacher Association will sponsor on Monday evening, Feb. 6, at 7:30, at the school.

This display, the work of Frank Walker, was exhibited in New York in the fall, by the Pontiac Motor Company, at the annual automobile show. It comprises scores of emblems of American and foreign cars, and provides vivid reminders of the daredevils of an early day who, in chiffon veils and goggles, huddled down the muddy roads at 20 miles per hour.

In connection with the forthcoming show, hobby questionnaires have been sent home to parents of Quarton students. Returns are now being received by the P. T. A.

Mrs. Frederick B. Smith Jr. of 528 Ridgedale avenue, president of the Birmingham League of Women Voters, issued this week a request to all League members to go on record in favor of what she terms a "non-political, efficient and economical welfare administration, such as the League has worked for over a period of years."

She urges all women voters to write to Governor Frank B. Fitzgerald, in the State Capitol in Lansing, requesting a consolidation of relief in not agency in each county, directly responsible to a competent state administrator.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD
SNAPSHOT PARTIES

Humorous pictures—such as a series of a man eating a squirrel grapefruit—provide fun at a snapshot party. Arrange such a party for your fellow camera fans.

WHENEVER snapshots get together, the season is ripe then for a snapshot party. Such a party is a splendid entertainment idea—whether its intention is serious picture-taking or just plain snapshot fun.

The party can take two forms. Guests can be sent out on a "picture-hunt," each one assigned to bring back a snapshot of a certain type. Or, a snaphot can be fitted up with a few photo lights at the host's home, and each guest given a picture idea to illustrate.

Guests should be told to bring their cameras, loaded with suitable film. Since most parties will be held Saturday, the preferred film is one of the new high speed "super" type. The host should also obtain a few simple exposure guides, to assist guests who have not had much experience in taking night pictures.

For a picture hunt, one guest can be assigned to picture street scenes; another can picture show windows; and another can take snaps of electric signs. Brightly-lighted subjects without movement should be chosen.

Properly, snapshot parties should be planned as a series—each member of a group should bring one. Then, pictures taken at one party could be exhibited at the next. Such a party series can provide entertainment all season for a group of camera fans—and it would be a delightful project for a camera club.

Fashion Tips

Top coats are bulkier than ever but have a feminine air. They are made of soft wools and some designs are hand-embroidered.

Redingotes stress the slim waist, however, and coats of this type made in pin strip material are smart over light-colored dresses.

Bloused jackets are definitely smart and many dresses have the bloused effect, what with fullness from yokes and wide sleeves drawn in at the cuff.

Many of the mid-season designs have apron fronts. Some of these are in contrasting colors and many are pleated.

Plating is used extensively in many ways—on pockets and collars as well as on skirts.

Foxy Ensemble

Shirt and knee-length jacket of silk afternoon outfit are dark edged in blue fox. Tunic is brown and silver lame. Hat is brown velvet.
