Shakspeare's "Much Ado About Nothing" arranged for ten scenes, will be presented by a cast announced this week.

Colonial Days Live Again As Guild Stages Another Successful Public Show Colonial America lived again on Friday and Saturday evenings with the Lauger play, "Pursuit of Happiness." The delightful means by which members of St. Dunstan's Guild transported audiences to the days of our forefathers. It was the Guild's mid-winter public show.

YOUNG MARRIEDS WILL GATHER AT VARIOUS AFFAIRS Another assembly of the Winter Club will be held at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club on Saturday evening. The affair will follow numerous dinners and cocktail parties given by members of the young marrieds set.

From the Women's Angle In the old days when an enemy appeared at the gates of a fortified center, a alarm was sounded to make the citizens aware. Guards were posted, and everyone was on the alert to check the enemy's advance.

The special sort of Heaven reserved for trouper will surely be the reward of Henry Whiting, whose characterization of Capt. Kirkland may be chalked up as another personal success. His own fine stage presence lent dignity to the heroine's father, turning him out as a mixture of whimsy and a certain Colonial independence at once subtle and sympathetic.

Thomas R. Navin Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Navin of Southfield road, spent the week-end with his family. He is studying at Kenyon College, in Ohio. His brother, Robert, will depart for the east next week to resume his classes at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd M. Brock and their son, Bowen, of Lone Pine court, are planning to leave early in March for a sojourn at Naples, Fla.

Charles Stanley, son of Mrs. A. Alberta Stanley, of Madison avenue, has left for Tucson, Arizona, where he will spend three months.

Miss Porter Miss Porter is a young woman who is not only a member of the Fox and Hounds for dinner, but also a member of the Fox and Hounds for dinner.

By Carol Dweley At last week's basketball game in which local men played, I was impressed among the apparently silly ideas men have of what is fun; their notions are, to say the least, peculiar.

Spring Tonic—for taking right now ONE of these days you're going to take steps that that new car you've been dreaming of. You're going to walk into your dealer's and start talking delivery dates — and you'll feel better just to have done something definite. What we want to know is — why not get a good lift while you're at it — and get it now? As things stand at the moment, we can put a staunch, steady, sprightly-stepping Buick at your command in almost no time at all! We can seat you behind a great Dynafash straight-eight, whose very song will be tonic to your soul — we'll send you whistling on your happy way in the comfort of BuicCoil Springing that's soft and gentle as your own bed! We'll brighten your outlook — with visibility stepped up as much as 412 square inches! We'll ease your driving with a gearshift out of knee-way and Knee-Action that banks turns for you. We'll lift your spirits, soothe your trouble, treble your joys — and do it quickly if you take action now! But when spring comes to our showroom, it's going to come with a rush of buyers wanting quick delivery, just as they did last fall. Shop early and you avoid this rush. Prices, we repeat, are lower than a year ago — lower than you'd expect — lower even than on some sixes. Name the model you're interested in and we'll show you just how much lower.

By Nellie Hurley Minifie An indistinguishable blob of brilliant material, topped with a fluffy, fluttering feather, preferably an ostrich, and a wig of a veil that will conceal its envious foster, material and veal, and you have that which will make any woman's heart beat faster. The above ingredients will give you what every man ridicules and what every woman desires. A jaunty little Spring bonnet.

Following his investiture of the Chevalier Degree, Order of DeMolay at the Community House Wednesday evening, Milton L. Freeman entertained a group of friends at his home on Adams road. Motion pictures of winter sports were shown by Kenneth McBride, preceding a buffet supper.
