NON-PARTISAN STATE NEWS LETTER

LANSING, Feb. 9.—Can Governor Fitzgerald save the rising tide of civil service resentment among Republican legislators?

Pledged publicly to support of the new plan, the governor has a tenuous situation on his hands in the threatened revolt of law-abiding Republicans. The growing hostility to the law is a result of current investigations, led by Senator Elmer E. Porter of Blissfield, which have convinced many legislators that the statute merely blanketed deserving Democrats in state jobs.

Clothes Men Like to See Women Wear

Rudy Vale likes his women on their toes, but he doesn't want the toes to show. He likes high heels, but not too high and a stiletto is a no-no for large hats and satin.

Charles LeMaire, who designs costumes for stars, says the screen leans heavily toward the romantic. Eddie Duchin likes high hair do's, exposed ears, low cut evening gowns and no orchids.

Walter Huston says the best dressed women wear simple clothes. James Montgomery Flagg, famous illustrator who should know, says women who have sex appeal should dress to 200's.

Favoritism Charged

That political favoritism prevailed in administration of the sales tax was a target for Senator Porter's legislative committee at Detroit.

Robert K. Healy, accounts examiner, testified he had been mysteriously pulled off his audit of a deficiency of $6,000 to $8,000 extending to the sales tax at Detroit.

Slacks Out

Vincent Price likes crazy hats, extreme clothes, and says no woman should wear slacks except Hedy Lamarr. Guthrie McClintic, when he published a study of German Social Democracy and his "Philosophy of Leibnitz." His first essay "The Free Man's Worship" was regarded as the high water mark in Modern English prose because of his perfect language and power of expression.

1—The steamship "Tuscarora" was torpedoed, 1918.

2—Pius was elected Pope, 1922.

3—First telephone conversation made between New York and Chicago, 1922.

4—Japs select the Bundara for Emperor, 1928.

5—The United States weather bureau was established, 1921.

6—Canada was ceded to England, 1763.

7—Beer was elected first German president, 1919.

Spending Trends

Another question on Governor Fitzgerald's doorstep is this one: Can he "deliver" the economy which he promised to the voters during the fall campaign?

One pledge made frequently by the governor was to reduce the state payroll $8,500,000 in 90 days.

"Let Lansing Do It"

If a community is unable to solve its problems, local officials are wont to writing the hands and involve the legislature to do something about it.

It is a neat way to load local responsibilities upon someone else.

Two years ago the legislature decided to plow through the budget some 18 millions out of balance. This year, request for state funds are 100 millions out of balance with expected income for the 1938-40 biennium. The huge deficit together with the insistence of home governments for continued state aid (if not more) is plunging the governor in his economy campaign. It has been suggested that home rule legislation be passed to enable cities to levy taxes on cigarettes and amusements, such as exist in New York City, for raising of welfare funds.

More School Aid

How to reduce millions in state expenditures, while more money is granted to schools in state aid while old age assistance payments are increased and while other benefits are distributed to needy citizens is one of those remarkable

FOREIGN POLICY TO BE DISCUSSED AT ROUND TABLE

Detroit Town Hall, in the Fisher Theatre, presents the first platform appearance of the University of Chicago Round Table Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 11 a. m.

Prof. Harry Giddens of Columbia University, formerly of the University of Chicago, Maynard C. Krueger, on the political science staff of the University of Chicago, and Walter H. C. Laves, director of the Mid-West office of the League of Nations Association and lecturer on political science at the University of Chicago will be the speakers. They will be introduced by Charles M. Novak, principal of Northeastern High School.

Bertrand Russell Town Hall Speaker

Lord Bertrand Russell, author, scientist, philosopher, biologist and humanitarian, will be presented by The Detroit Town Hall in the City Club, Friday evening, February tenth at 11 o'clock. His subject will be "Dare We Look Ahead?"

Bertrand Russell has been known as a philosopher since 1896 when he published a study of German Social Democracy and his "Philosophy of Leibnitz." His first essay "The Free Man's Worship" was regarded as the high water mark in Modern English prose because of his perfect language and power of expression.

Florida in Michigan

ALMA (MPA)—Florida publicity men please note! There are agitators in Michigan. A 18 1/2-inch specimen was found by Alma youths in the Pine river recently. It is now in captivity and officially. It is thought that someone brought the reptile from the south and freed it here, or did not watch it closely enough to prevent its escape.

Rode Away From Home

ST. JOHNS (MPA)—Although children sometimes get the urge to run away from home, Frances Blish, 15, who lives near Laingsburg, is different. She rode away from home, mounting a horse on Tuesday, she rode until Wednesday afternoon, when a deputy sheriff found her coming into St. Johns.
