LIVE and LEARN

By Alice Ann Saunders.
 It was Armistice Day. The speaker spoke at length on the virtues of peace, completely swaying his audience to his way of belief with his eloquence and logic. The speaker, the speaker, sat down on the hard bench that was provided for the occasional speakers invited to speak in the town hall of this small city. His hand was rudely arrested in the act of wiping his brow by the voice of the chair man asking the audience to rise and sing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," which they did and lastly...

Obituary

Samuel M. Summerhay
 Samuel Mark Summerhay of 1340 West Long Lake road, died Tuesday on the Edwin S. George Estate, where he had been engaged as gardener for 16 years. Funeral services will be held today from the S. O. Wylie Bell Funeral Home, with Rev. W. Glen Harris officiating. Burial will be in White Chapel Cemetery. Surviving are the widow, Mable McNeill; a daughter, Constance, 13 years old, and brothers and sisters in England. Summerhay was born Oct. 17, 1881, in Bristol, England.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Thorley
 Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Immanuel Presbyterian church in Detroit for Mrs. Elizabeth R. Thorley, who died Friday, Dec. 30, at the home of her sister Mrs. Flora Sturman, 688 Purdy street, with whom she had made her home for the past eight years.

Mrs. Thorley was born July 8, 1845 on Grosse Ile. As a small child, she came to Southfield Township with her parents, where she lived until moving to Detroit 60 years ago.

Survived Mrs. Sturman, she is resided by a brother, William Rofe of Royal Oak. A twin sister died eight years ago. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery, Detroit.

Sound Effects
 "Why do you always type your employer's speeches from dictation instead of using shorthand?" "Because," answered the typist of a long-voiced member of congress, "I need the noise of the machine to keep me awake."
