

Numerous Parties For Detroit Girl Interest Hills Set

Parties honoring Miss Sylvia Callender, daughter of Judge Sherman D. Callender of Detroit, continue to be of ranking interest to the post-debutante set in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. Miss Callender was set Saturday, Aug. 19, as the date of her marriage to James Berry Brazg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brazg of Bloomfield Court. The bride-elect is the center of an increasingly large number of social gatherings.

On Saturday, Miss Callender will be complimented at a luncheon and shower, given jointly by Miss Elizabeth Palmer of Burlington drive, Palmer Woods, and Mrs. Charles French of Ann Arbor. The affair will be held at Miss Shierson's home.

The following Saturday has been chosen by Mrs. Simon Knudsen of Birmingham road, for a luncheon and shower in compliment to Miss Callender. Mrs. Knudsen's party will be held at the Grospe Point Yacht Club.

Pink and White Blossoms Adorn Church As Dorothy Jardine Weds Franklin Love

Disposals of gladioli, stock and baby's breath, in white and delicate pink, decorated the altar of St. James Episcopal Church for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Francis Jardine and Franklin Curtis Love, at ten o'clock on Saturday morning. The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiated at the rites, which were witnessed only by relatives of the young couple.

The former Miss Jardine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dudley Jardine, Mr. Love, whose home is in Farmington, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Love of Iron Mountain.

The bride was attired in a white suit of silk and wool, with which she wore a white leghorn hat and white accessories. Her flowers were orchids in lavender and purple, worn in a corsage arrangement.

Miss Naomi Schwallie, as bridesmaid, also chose a white wool suit for the occasion. With it, she wore a pink lace blouse and a corsage of red roses in a matching shade of pink.

James Uran, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, attended him as best man.

After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Love were entertained at breakfast. The affair was held at Wagon O'Shanter Country Club, where gladioli, stock and baby's breath carried out the decorations motif in shades of pink and white.

A large wedding cake formed the centerpiece of the decorations, and small ornamental boxes of wedding cake were presented to the guests.

Mrs. Jardine greeted her guests in a teal blue frock, made with a marquisette bodice and a lace skirt. With it she wore a French of Detroit, corner Birmingham resident.

Mrs. Love, who came from Iron Mountain, was the guest of honor.

Girl Scout Camp Holds Open House

The Oakland County Girl Scout Camp on Davis lake at Lapeer held open house for parents and friends on Wednesday. Beginning in the afternoon, the affair included a pot-luck picnic supper and an evening campfire program.

During the day, the regular camp program of handicraft, nature study and sports on land and in the water, was carried on. Songs and stunts were presented in the evening.

Camp Sherwood is now in the second week of its season. The 75 girls currently enrolled there celebrated July 4 with a patriotic program of song and ceremony. On Saturday night, overalls and straw hats were worn to "Farmers' Night." Miss Vivian Ruell acted as mother for the occasion.

Mrs. T. Melbourne Roberts announces plans for talks on Saturday night, overalls and straw hats were worn to "Farmers' Night." Miss Vivian Ruell acted as mother for the occasion.

Mrs. T. Melbourne Roberts will leave on Friday for a stay at Frong River, Barzizaloo Camp, taking an active part in the program which makes up such an important part of that fisherman's retreat. With an Indian guide, she will make canoe trips for the purpose of taking colored photographs. These pictures will illustrate a lecture which Mrs. Roberts has planned for next season.

Later in the summer, Mrs. Roberts will return to Quebec and the Gaspé peninsula, to photograph subjects which she will include in her new travel talk.
